

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1864

“From today onwards, you will work in the medicine Pavilion. You will help tidy up and guard the medicine storage!”

“Our gate of fortune has an ancient heritage. Although we have declined, we still have some heritage. There are many rare medicinal herbs in this medicine storage room. They are very precious. You must take care of them carefully.”

When they arrived at the medicine Pavilion, elder floating cloud led the three of them around to familiarize themselves with the place.

“What a big Medicine storage room!”

After entering the medicine storage room, Tang Hao looked around, and his eyes lit up.

Countless balls of light floated in this resplendent Treasury, like a vast and boundless Galaxy.

Each ball of light contained a medicinal herb.

At a glance, Tang Hao saw many rare herbs, some of which even he did not have. They were all extinct in the lower realm and only grew on Pangu continent.

“This is a good opportunity!”

Tang Hao was overjoyed.

He had collected a lot of herbs since he came to Pangu continent, but there were still many that he had not gotten.

He could use this opportunity to expand his spirit medicine storage.

He had the magical celestial water, so he didn't need to steal these medicinal herbs. He only needed to pick a leaf and break off a branch, and he could accelerate the growth of a complete medicinal herb, and then plant another piece.

“This is an unexpected gain!”

Tang Hao thought to himself.

He was originally prepared to observe the cultivation techniques and Daoist Scriptures of the creation orthodoxy and inquire about the creation divine boat. He did not expect that by chance, he would actually enter the medicine Pavilion and look after these rare medicinal herbs.

This batch of medicinal herbs was a huge harvest.

After explaining the rules of the place, Daoist priest floating cloud led the three of them to the main peak.

Along the way, rays of light flashed.

They were all celestial light, representing the experts of the Saint realm.

Upon closer inspection, these Saints all looked very young. They were obviously disciples of the younger generation.

“This is ... The 4th tribulation?”

“This one is also a 4th tribulation! How can there be so many 4th tribulation?”

Tang Hao was shocked when he read the message.

These disciples were not old, but their cultivation was at the 4th tribulation, almost as good as the Holy Sons of the clans.

“What’s that? Nine-colored ... Could it be the legendary nine-colored deer? That was an ancient auspicious beast! It’s rarely seen in the world!”

“Could that be ... A purple-gold flood Dragon? Oh my God! This is a rare treasure of a flood Dragon, a descendant of the great wilderness!”

As they neared the main peak, the immortal radiance increased.

These young disciples all had extraordinary auras. Some were riding tribulation weapons, and some were riding all kinds of mounts. All of them were rare breeds, and the three people were dazzled by them.

Even Tang Hao was left speechless.

Whether it was in terms of cultivation or temperament, these young disciples were not inferior to the Holy Sons of the clans outside. In fact, they were even slightly better. In particular, there were a few among them who had the most outstanding aura. Even the monster of the ye clan, ye jiuxuan, was not as good as them.

Moreover, what shocked Tang Hao even more was that each of them was covered in a resplendent treasure light, and their mounts were also ancient remnant beasts.

Even the Holy Sons of the clans could not do this.

“Why are there so many geniuses, treasures, and rare beasts in the gate of fortune?”

Tang Hao could not figure it out.

If it was tens of thousands of years ago, the gate of fortune might have had such a scene. But now, the gate of fortune had already declined. Where would they find so many geniuses and treasures?

Previously, he had heard that many clans admired the creation orthodoxy and had sent many geniuses over. However, these people clearly did not seem to be from the clan.

“Since it’s not the main clan, could it be someone from the higher-ups?”

Suddenly, Tang Hao’s heart skipped a beat. He looked up at the sky.

In this world, only the thirty-three super forces could surpass the clans.

If it was someone from the 33 heavens, then it would make sense.

Each of the 33 heavens was an ancient orthodoxy that was related to the great gods of myths and legends. For example, Tang Hao had once dreamed of Kunwu and witnessed its prosperity in the past.

Only the thirty-three heavens had so many treasures and geniuses.

But why would someone from the 33 heavens be here?

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he thought about that.

It was understandable for the clan to send people in, but why would people from the 33 heavens want to enter the gate of fortune?

In terms of orthodoxies, none of the 33 heavens were inferior to the creation orthodoxies.

Tang Hao’s gaze swept around him, and his eyes fell on elder floating cloud.

Elder floating cloud did not show the slightest joy or pride when he heard their exclamations. His face was filled with indifference, and a cloud of worry hung between his brows.

Those disciples passed by, and none of them stopped, calling out “elder.”

Although old Daoist floating cloud’s cultivation wasn’t high, he was still an elder. Shouldn’t ordinary disciples stop and bow when they saw him?

“It seems like the situation with the gate of fortune is a little complicated!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

Although he was suspicious, it was not appropriate for him to ask. He simply followed the floating cloud Daoist to the main peak.

Just as he was about to land on the mountain peak, he suddenly heard a Dragon’s Roar. On the main peak, a bright green light rushed out. When he looked closely, he saw that it was a Dragon. It was covered in green scales and its divine brilliance dazzled the sky.

“That ... Could that be a Dragon?”

The other two were dumbfounded.

Tang Hao was speechless.

This was undoubtedly a true dragon!

It was Tang Hao's second time seeing a real Dragon. The first time was when he left the little Golden Dragon in the lower realm, Marquis Wutian's Mount.

"Look! There's still someone up there!"

Liu Cheng pointed at the dragon's head and exclaimed.

Tang Hao focused his gaze and saw a figure shrouded in a dazzling light. He could not see the figure clearly.

"What a shocking aura!"

After sizing him up, he was even more shocked.

The man's cultivation base was at the fifth tribulation. Moreover, his body exuded an extremely demonic aura, which made Tang Hao's heart palpitate.

"This person ... Is extraordinary!"

Tang Hao's expression changed.

He had seen many monstrous talents on Pangu continent, but none of them could compare to this man!

Even elder floating cloud's expression changed when he saw this person. He actually revealed a trace of fear, as if he was a little afraid of this person.

Accompanied by the Dragon's Roar, the green light quickly passed by and disappeared.

The floating cloud Daoist stopped and looked back with a complicated expression.

"Do you know who this person is?"

The three of them looked at each other and shook their heads.

"A!"

Old Daoist floating cloud sighed and looked up at the sky, "do you know about the great void heaven?"

"Great void heaven?"

The expressions of the three changed drastically.

“Controlling a true dragon ... With such a formation, could it be the eldest young master of the great void heaven?” Liu Cheng exclaimed in shock.

“How is that possible?”

Old Daoist floating cloud laughed bitterly and shook his head. “Why would such a person deign to come to our creation sect? that was merely an avatar of his!”

Tang Hao’s expression changed when he heard that.

A clone?

A cultivator at the 5th tribulation and stepping on a true dragon, this is actually just a clone?

If even his clone was so powerful, how powerful would his true body be?

“That’s right! This is an avatar, not an ordinary avatar, but a Supreme avatar that he refined by refining a God demon vital embryo!”

“The God demon vital embryo is one of the three great primordial vital embryos. It’s the best treasure to create an avatar!”

Elder floating cloud added.
