

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1865

“Divine demon vital embryo? No wonder!”

Tang Hao was shocked.

He was experienced and knowledgeable, so he had naturally heard of the three great origin cores.

His heaven and earth origin core was one of them.

“The three great elemental embryos are the heaven and earth elemental embryo, the God and demon elemental embryo, and the immortal and spirit elemental embryo! All three of them are divine items!”

Old Daoist floating cloud explained.

“The meaning of an origin embryo is an embryo. The heaven and earth origin embryo is an embryo born from the heaven and earth Qi, while the God and demon origin embryo is born from the divine Spirit Qi. That immortal spirit origin embryo is naturally born from the immortal spirit Qi.”

“The three of them have their own unique abilities. Among them, the heaven and earth origin core is the most mystical and the strongest. The other two are slightly inferior, but not by much.”

“Some of the world-shaking figures in the ancient times were all born from these three origin cores!”

“These three types of origin cores can only be encountered and not sought. Furthermore, they are extremely difficult to cultivate. It is truly a great fortune to be able to obtain one and cultivate it into an avatar!”

“This eldest young master of the great void heaven is rumored to have astonishing luck and countless opportunities. In his early years, he chanced upon a God demon vital embryo and refined it into this avatar.”

“This Yuan embryo is nurtured by the Qi of God, which is equivalent to a God. To be able to refine a God, what kind of difficulty and opportunity do you think this is?”

“With this clone alone, few of his peers on Pangu continent, or even in the thirty-three heavens, can rival him.”

Old Daoist floating cloud sighed again.

The Liu Cheng Duo turned around and looked behind them, their faces filled with shock.

The young master of the great void heaven had long been famous on Pangu continent. He was a legendary figure among the younger generation, and had long been regarded as the Supreme young lord.

“Only such a person can be called a true Supreme youth!”

“That’s right! Wasn’t there a lower realm barbarian some time ago who was also called a young Supreme Being? Hey! This was too laughable! How can those lower realm barbarians compare to the eldest young master of the thirty-three heavens!”

They exclaimed in admiration.

When they talked about the lower realm barbarian, their faces were full of disdain.

“Lower realm barbarian?” Old Daoist floating cloud was taken aback, and then he uttered an ‘Oh’. The incident had caused such a sensation that it had spread across the entire Pangu continent, so how could he not have heard of it?

“That young man ... I’ve heard of him before. To be able to cultivate to such a realm from the lower realm, he’s also an outstanding person. What qualifications do the two of you have to laugh at him!”

He chided with a stern face.

The Liu Cheng Duo immediately withdrew their heads, not daring to speak.

“Let’s go!”

Daoist floating cloud turned around and continued to lead the other three.

Tang Hao turned around to look at her, but the doubt in his eyes deepened.

A small gate like the gate of fortune had gathered so many geniuses. Not only were there elites from various races, there were also many geniuses from the 33 heavens. Even the avatar of the great void heaven’s eldest young master was present. This situation was extremely unusual!

“There must be something in the gate of fortune that is attracting them!”

Tang Hao muttered to himself as he followed the floating cloud Daoist.

Very quickly, they arrived at a large hall. They collected their clothes, some crystals, and a few foundation cultivation technique manuals from the creation sect. Floating cloud old Daoist then led the three of them back to the medicine Pavilion and arranged a cave abode for each of them.

“Alright, you guys take a rest today! Report to the medicine Pavilion tomorrow morning!”

After explaining the sect rules, old Daoist floating cloud left.

Tang Hao sat down in the cave abode and began to plan.

He had finally entered the gate of fortune. Now, he was just a service disciple with a low status. It was not easy for him to be exposed and the risk was very low. However, this identity made it difficult for him to come into contact with the highest-level mantras in the gate of fortune.

“Forget it, I’ll eat that batch of medicinal herbs first!”

“That’s right, we still have to find out the purpose of those people coming to the gate of fortune. I don’t believe that they would come here without any benefits.”

Tang Hao soon came up with a plan.

The next morning, Tang Hao went to the medicine Pavilion to report. He was assigned the task of sorting out the herbs.

While Tang Hao was working hard, he was also trying to get close to the other servant disciples.

The medicine Pavilion was very large, and there were many service disciples, more than a hundred of them. Many of them were very old, having been here for ten or twenty years.

It had only been a few days, but Tang Hao was already familiar with them.

“Hey! Brother Shi, you’ve asked the right question. I’m Gao Dayong! I don’t have any other abilities, but I’m the most well-informed. There’s nothing I don’t know about the gate of fortune!”

“Let me tell you, the situation in our gate of fortune is very complicated. You’ve seen it for yourself. There are geniuses everywhere in the gate. Each one is more monstrous than the last. Their backgrounds are also more frightening than the last.”

“Let me see, at least half of the thirty-three heavens have people here. Don’t you think it’s scary?”

“Of course they have a motive. Do you know that our creation sect has a very mystical treasure?”

“Divine creation boat?” Tang Hao’s heart skipped a beat.

“No! It wasn’t! That divine boat or whatever, it’s long gone. We don’t know where it went. Some say it was broken, some say it was lost somewhere. No one knows. ”

“This treasure is another treasure of the gate of destinies. It’s a gate called the gate of destinies!”

At this point, the disciple surnamed Gao became somewhat excited, his eyes shining.

“This gate of fortune is really amazing. It used to be as famous as the divine boat. There are countless treasures in that gate, all of which were accumulated by the gate of fortune in the past. You have to know that the gate of fortune used to be so awesome that we didn’t even fear the 33 heavens. ”

“There are still many ancient objects in that gate. Aren’t those people squeezing into our gate of fortune for the treasures in that gate?”

“So that’s how it is!”

Tang Hao suddenly understood.

So it was for the accumulation of the creation Dao element. No wonder these people gathered here.

If it was in the past, when the gate of fortune was strong, it would definitely not allow such a situation. However, now that it had declined, it could not stop these people. Thus, it compromised and accepted these people into the sect.

This was also the reason why the floating cloud Daoist had such a complicated expression when he saw these disciples.

To the gate of fortune, these people were still outsiders. They were here to split their treasures.

“Then, how magical is the gate of destinies?”

Tang Hao asked.

“This door has a spirit. It’s not easy to get the treasures inside. You have to put some treasures in before the door will spit out the treasures. It depends on luck. If you’re lucky, it will spit out better treasures. If you’re unlucky, it’s just trash.”

“You even look at faces?”

Tang Hao was stunned when he heard that. He had a strange expression on his face.

“Of course! “Oh, right. There’s another way, and that is to make a wish. Make a Grand wish before the gate of fortune. If you can do it, the gate of fortune will bestow you with a precious treasure.”

The disciple with the surname Gao said.
