

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1871

“Brother ... Brother Shi!”

Next to Tang Hao, Gao daoyong shivered. His face was pale.

The other service disciples weren't any better off. Some of them were even worse off and almost fell to the ground.

The guy in front of him was one of the successors of one of the thirty-three super forces, who was above thousands of clans. Not only did he have a strong background, but his strength was also terrifying. Just this avatar alone was already in the fifth tribulation realm.

As for these handymen, they had at most the strength of the immortal realm. They had not even reached the Saint realm, and the gap between them was like the sky and the earth.

If he wanted to kill them, he didn't even need to make a move. Just a thought was enough!

Usually, when they saw such a person, they would have to stay far away and avoid him. Today, this brother Shi actually dared to disobey him and confront him.

If it was any other external disciple, it would be fine. For the sake of the creation orthodoxy, a rebuttal wouldn't do anything. But this person was different. He was a member of the great void heaven, and the great void heaven was famous for its overbearing nature.

Moreover, they were only servants, not even official disciples.

“What's there to be afraid of?”

Tang Hao's expression was calm and composed.

This performance stunned everyone and they were even more astonished.

Looking at this guy's appearance, it didn't seem like he was pretending. He really wasn't afraid!

But how was that possible?

How could a mere servant be unafraid of the eldest young master of the great void heaven?

Unless ... This guy was really an idiot!

“Where did this disciple ... Come from?”

Even Zao huaizi and the others frowned, looking a little puzzled.

This disciple's behavior was truly a little strange. The other servants were so scared that they were about to collapse onto the ground. He was the only one who stood there, facing the young master of the great void heaven without any fear.

In this world's younger generation, there were probably not many who could have such boldness!

How could a mere servant have such courage?

"This person ... I recognize him!" Elder floating cloud frowned. "His surname is Shi. I personally brought him in. Wasn't the medicine Pavilion short of people some time ago? I asked someone to recruit a few, and he was one of them."

"I have a deep impression of him. He has some talent in plants and vegetation, and he's also very diligent ..."

Elder floating cloud sized up Tang Hao as he spoke, his eyes full of confusion.

No matter how he looked at it, this guy didn't seem to have anything special! He was no different from the other handymen!

"I think ... It's just pure courage!"

Some of the other elders sized him up and said.

"Rather than saying that he's bold, it's better to say that his brain isn't good!" Another elder laughed bitterly.

Even an elder like him, a five-tribulation Saint, didn't dare to provoke the successor of the 33 heavens. A mere service disciple dared to do this. If he wasn't stupid, what was?

"This kid ... Is too reckless!"

Zao huaizi also sized him up, but he couldn't find anything amiss.

After all, if the other sects wanted to join the creation sect, it would be too easy. They could enter as official disciples. He would never have thought that someone would sneak in as an errand boy.

"You have some backbone!"

Young master Taixu stared at Tang Hao coldly. He was surprised.

There were very few people who could be so calm in front of him. Moreover, this was an existence that was even more insignificant than an ant. This made him feel a little surprised.

"Nonsense! Don't tell me you're the only one with a backbone!"

Tang Hao rolled his eyes and said impolitely.

As soon as he finished speaking, the surroundings fell into a dead silence.

Immediately after, there was a burst of cold gasps.

Everyone's expression became more and more aghast.

"H-H-He ... Is he crazy? How dare you speak to young master Taixu like that!"

In the next moment, the square was in an uproar. Everyone was exclaiming in shock.

"This guy ... He's quite arrogant!"

"Interesting! This is really interesting!"

In the air, many gazes also fell, sizing up this bold servant disciple with interest.

Young master Taixu's expression changed. He was a little angry.

He was the great young master of the great void heaven, when had he ever been rebutted like this?

He squinted his eyes and killing intent flashed. He was about to activate his will to kill this ant.

"Cough cough!"

However, at this moment, he was interrupted by a cough from the side. It was none other than Zao huazi.

"He's just a lowly servant. Young master Taixu, why bother to lower yourself to his level?" Zao Huazi cupped his hands and said with a smile, "today is the creation ceremony. It's a joyous day!"

"Good! I'll give your gate of fortune some face!"

Young master Taixu snorted and glared at Tang Hao before turning around.

"Hu!"

The group of service disciples felt as if a heavy burden had been lifted off their shoulders, and they all felt as if they had just survived a disaster.

"This guy is really lucky!"

Everyone was discussing.

Soon, they couldn't be bothered with the servant anymore and turned to look at young master Taixu.

A mere handyman was not worthy of their attention at all. A dazzling figure like young master Taixu was the focus of attention at this moment. He was the eldest young master, a legend whose name shook the four Seas and eight wastelands. The treasures that such a person would take out would definitely not be bad.

Under everyone's gaze, young master Taixu waved his hand and dozens of lights leaped up. They were rings. After each ring was opened, a torrent of crystals, plants, tribulation weapons, and all kinds of spiritual and beast materials poured out.

The countless treasures and the dazzling treasure light dazzled everyone's eyes.

"Those ... Those are immortal crystals?"

"So many spiritual herbs! Oh my God! There's also a precious medicine!"

"That's a weapon of the fifth tribulation, my God! There are still six more tribulations!"

Everyone was dazzled and speechless.

Those people from before, whether they were clan disciples or people from the 33 heavens, were simply not on the same level as this young master Taixu.

Whether it was in terms of quantity or quality, this person crushed them.

"How can there be so many treasures? I don't think an ordinary sect's Treasury has this much, right?"

A disciple said with a look of disbelief.

"Hey! What is this? think about it, what kind of person is he? he can destroy any sect and dig up ancient treasures, and he will have more than this!"

A disciple replied, but his tone was filled with envy and jealousy.

It took a full ten minutes before the treasures in the Rings were all spat out. The crowd could no longer count how many treasures there were.

"At least a hundred times more than the people before!"

"This is too terrifying!"

Everyone in the square was shocked.

When they came back to their senses, they cast their gazes towards the door, full of anticipation.

After investing so many treasures, what kind of treasures would the gate of destinies spit out?

This time, the waiting time was exceptionally long.

Clang!

As the bell rang, a divine light rushed out of the door. Vaguely, one could see that it was a huge thing the size of a small mountain.

“What’s that?”

Seeing this, everyone was a little stunned. They had never seen such a big thing come out of the door.

When the object came closer and they looked at it again, the disciples were still puzzled. However, Zao Huazi and the others trembled as if they had been struck by lightning.

“This is ... Creation true gold?”

In the next moment, a shocked cry resounded in all directions.
