

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1874

Under everyone's watchful eyes, Tang Hao slowly walked to the door.

He wasn't in a hurry. After standing still, he dusted his robe and had a calm appearance.

"I'd like to see what this fellow can bring out!"

"I guess he's about the same as those handymen from before!"

The crowd burst into laughter.

The disciples' faces revealed the same contemptuous and disdainful expressions as before.

That fellow surnamed Gao had indeed given them a great shock, but that was only a special case. How could there be a second one among this group of handymen?

"How much should I bet?"

Tang Hao touched his chin and looked troubled.

"All of them? That was too much! If he lost, it would be a huge loss! How about ... Half? No, no, no, half is still too much. Why don't we just vote one-third?" He muttered to himself.

When the surrounding disciples heard this, they could not help but be stunned.

Then, there was a burst of loud laughter.

"Hahaha! This guy ... He's really shameless!"

"Half is too much? Hahaha! Who does he think he is! You have the nerve to show off with that little bit of wealth!"

Everyone laughed out loud. A mere servant dared to show off his wealth in front of them?

This errand boy surnamed Shi was really laughable!

"Then one-third!"

Tang Hao did not seem to hear the laughter. He waved his hand, and a ring flew out.

In the next moment, the ring shone brightly, and a brilliant treasure light rushed out.

At once, the laughter from all directions stopped.

The smiles on their faces instantly froze.

Then, they widened their eyes, which were filled with extreme shock and disbelief.

The treasure light in front of them was not the small stream they had expected, nor was it a River. It was a raging sea!

The endless Crystal Light was like a raging tide, constantly spewing out of the ring!

Not to mention those outer-clan disciples, even those young masters of the various heavens were only so-so!

“My ... My God!”

Everyone stood rooted to the ground, dumbfounded.

On one side of the square, Zao huaizi and the others were surrounding Gao Dayong, asking about his well-being. When they noticed the strange situation, they looked up.

It didn't matter if they didn't take a look, but the moment they did, they were so frightened that they almost jumped up.

“This, this, this ...”

Son of fortune raised his trembling hand and pointed at the treasure light that filled the sky. He was already speaking incoherently.

At this moment, he was completely dumbfounded!

Wasn't this guy just an errand boy? Where did he get so much Jingshi?

Gao Dayong had already made him speechless, and now there was another one with even more crystals!

What was going on?

Hualala!

The crystal stones surged and let out a loud sound of the tide, echoing in the sky above the square.

The flood of crystals only stopped after ten minutes.

Tang Hao retrieved the ring and mumbled, “It's almost time!”

The square was deathly silent.

Everyone was stunned.

How many Jingshi were there just now?

They couldn't even count it. They only knew that it was uncountable, far more than those clan disciples. It was even more than some of the eldest young masters of the heavens!

“This ... Is this really one-third of the total?”

Some people recalled what this guy had said just now, and their expressions changed drastically.

If what this guy said was true, then he had twice the amount of Jingshi on him.

“No... No way!”

Everyone swallowed their saliva with difficulty, and their expressions were a little strange.

They couldn't believe it. If this guy really had so many Jingshi on him, it would be too shocking!

“This guy ... Who is he?”

Everyone's expression changed. There was no longer any contempt, but it was replaced with solemnness and fear.

They all realized that this guy was definitely not as simple as a handyman. He must have a powerful background. Otherwise, how could he have so many crystals? thinking of how this guy dared to confront young master Taixu just now, he must have an even more extraordinary background.

“Next, it's time for the spiritual medicine!”

Tang Hao waved his hand, and another ring flew out.

Whoosh!

Another wave of treasure light gushed out like an ocean, surging towards the gate of destinies.

“It's a spirit herb!”

“So many!”

Everyone looked up and couldn't help but exclaim.

The number of spiritual herbs in this batch made them speechless again.

Upon a closer look, they were even more shocked. These spiritual herbs were not ordinary. None of them were ordinary spiritual herbs. They were all rare species. Some of them were even extinct or rare species.

Moreover, these spirit medicines were not all one stalk, but appeared in bundles, making them feel as if they were in a dream.

It was as if these were not rare spirit herbs that were hard to find in the world, but bundles of cabbages.

The beggar and the others were speechless again.

"I ... I'm not F * cking dreaming, am I?"

Elder floating cloud couldn't help but pinch himself, causing him to wail in pain.

He was skilled in alchemy and was most familiar with spirit herbs. He naturally understood what this batch of spirit herbs meant.

It took him a few minutes to finish vomiting all the spirit herbs.

"Alright, I'm done!"

Tang Hao reached out and put the ring away.

With so many spiritual medicines and the Jingshi from before, it was already enough. As for the Tribulation weapon, he wasn't prepared to throw it in.

"No more?"

Everyone was stunned for a moment, then, they heaved a sigh of relief almost at the same time.

They were all a little glad that this guy had stopped, otherwise they would have been provoked again.

Then, they stood on their tiptoes and looked into the stone door.

They were all extremely curious. What kind of treasure would this fellow obtain? would he be able to surpass the other young masters?

"I don't think so! In terms of Jingshi and plants, he definitely has the most, but in total, he still can't compare to the eldest young masters!"

"That's not for sure. It's not just about who has the most treasures, it also depends on luck."

Everyone was discussing.

A moment later, the bell rang from the gate.

Then, a ray of light shot out and landed in front of Tang Hao.

Looking closely, it was a medicine bottle.

"This is ...?"

Tang Hao furrowed his brows. He took the bottle and opened it. He raised his brows in surprise when he saw what was inside.

"It's a medicinal pill!"

“I wonder what pill it is!”

The crowd was in an uproar. Everyone stretched their necks and looked towards the door.

They were all extremely curious as to what kind of medicinal pill was in that bottle!

In the next moment, Tang Hao solved their doubts. He patted the medicine bottle, and the pill inside leaped out, hovering in the air.

“This ... This is ... The creation divine pill?”

When Zao Huazi and the others saw it clearly, they felt as if they had been struck by lightning.

This elixir was the most famous divine elixir of his creation alchemy Dao. It was the creation divine elixir that shook the ancient times!

“Creation divine pill? It can't be!”

“Is that really the legendary peerless divine pill that can allow a mediocre person to instantly possess a creation divine body?”

The square was instantly filled with excitement.

The crowd was in an uproar, their faces full of disbelief.

The creation alchemy Dao had produced many divine pills, but the most famous one was the creation divine pill. This divine pill was almost the symbol of the creation alchemy Dao.

The magical effect of this elixir also made all the cultivators in the world yearn for it.

It was said that no matter what one's aptitude was, even if one was a good-for-nothing, as long as one swallowed one pill, one would immediately become a monster with the creation divine body. And this creation divine body was the world's top divine body.

With this divine body, there would be no obstacles before the Saint realm. As long as he had enough resources, he could reach the half-step Saint realm in an instant.

It was said that in the ancient path of creation, a Saint less than ten years old had appeared because of this creation divine pill.

Furthermore, this divine body had many other marvels. It could comprehend Dao techniques faster than ordinary cultivators and was more powerful than ordinary cultivators when used.
