

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1877

The square suddenly fell silent.

“That’s the recipe for the Fortune pill, the legendary divine pill! No wonder he couldn’t help it!”

“Even thirty-three heavens wouldn’t be able to resist such a rare pill! If the gate of fortune was at its peak, they wouldn’t dare to covet it. But now that the gate of fortune has declined, they don’t have to worry anymore.”

Then, a low discussion broke out.

No one found it strange. After all, this was the nature pill’s recipe, a recipe that all the forces in the world dreamed of!

There was also that piece of creation true gold, which was also a rare treasure. Young master Taixu would naturally not let it go.

Everyone was getting excited.

Although the identity of that fellow surnamed Shi was unknown, it was obvious that he was not an ordinary person. He must have a powerful background. Otherwise, he would not have such a divine item like the recipe of the nature pill. Furthermore, he dared to confront young master Taixu.

This person was probably also a peerless monster and would not easily surrender and hand over the treasure.

The faces of Zao huaizi and the others changed, revealing a look of anger and humiliation.

However, they did not make a sound.

They were very clear that with the current weak strength of the gate of fortune, it was impossible for them to keep a divine item like the recipe of the Fortune elixir.

The rest of the geniuses did not make a sound. They just watched from the side, but their eyes occasionally glanced at Tang Hao. They were obviously coveting the pill recipe.

“You want my treasure? You wish!”

Tang Hao chuckled and glared at his opponent coldly.

It had always been him snatching others’ share, and no one else snatching his share.

“You ... What a big tone!”

Young master Taixu was furious. His eyes shone with a divine light, and he turned into two beams of lightning that shot over.

At the same time, a terrifying pressure spread out from his body, which turned into a raging tide that pressed down on Tang Hao.

This was the pressure of a five tribulation Saint, and there was a trace of ancient demonic aura mixed in, which was more terrifying than the pressure of an ordinary five tribulation Saint.

“It’s a God-demon vital embryo!”

“What a terrifying aura!”

Everyone was shocked, and countless disciples turned pale.

“Hmph!”

Tang Hao was not afraid. Instead, he took a step forward.

In an instant, a thunderous sound came from his body, and his aura began to soar. Immortal realm, Saint realm, second tribulation, third tribulation, and in a short moment, it rose to the fifth tribulation!

A monstrous pressure gushed out madly and welcomed the opponent.

On his chest, the God’s spiritual bone glowed brightly, and the aura of a God spread out.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The two pressures collided in the air, causing a deafening sound to erupt.

In an instant, the wind blew and the world changed.

With the point of collision as the center, a circle of translucent ripples spread out, shaking the disciples in all directions. Those at the third and fourth tribulations could still stand still, but those at the first and second tribulations were directly sent flying.

“Fifth tribulation! He’s also at the 5th tribulation!”

“This pressure ... Why does it also have the aura of a God?”

Cries of alarm could be heard from all directions.

Everyone looked at the two figures in the air, who were facing each other, and they all revealed shocked expressions.

That Shi guy was indeed a monster!

What shocked everyone even more was that he was actually on par with young master Taixu.

Although young master Taixu was only an avatar, few people in the younger generation of the world could be his match.

Who was this Shi guy?

“Eh? The aura of divinity!”

“Good fellow! He actually blocked it!”

Among the young masters, there were also exclamations.

This situation had completely exceeded their expectations.

Young master Taixu was also shocked. He had not expected this.

He had thought that even if this fellow had some background, he would definitely not be a match for his clone. However, he did not expect that this fellow’s strength would far exceed his expectations.

“You ... Who are you?”

He stared at his opponent and questioned him sternly.

Everyone’s gazes followed, staring at that figure.

At this moment, the curiosity in their hearts was at its peak.

They were all eager to know what kind of monster this so-called handyman was!

“What? you don’t recognize me?”

Tang Hao laughed coldly. “I’ve heard that the great void heaven has been looking for me recently!”

Hearing this, young master Taixu was taken aback. He looked puzzled.

Everyone was the same, somewhat puzzled.

Hearing these words, this person seemed to be someone they were familiar with in the great void heaven. However, they could not recall who he was at that moment.

A moment later, someone finally came to their senses, and their expression changed drastically, revealing extreme shock.

“It’s him! He’s that Tang guy!”

“He’s Tang Hao! That god of death!”

A series of exclamations cut through the sky.

The entire square was in an uproar.

“He’s that Tang Hao?”

“It can’t be!”

Everyone cried out in shock, their faces filled with horror.

It was Tang Hao!

This name was simply too resounding!

Everyone on Pangu continent had heard of this name.

He was born in the lower realm, but he had swept across the younger generation of Pangu and was almost unrivaled. In the previous pursuit, all the clans and heroes in the world had gathered, but they couldn’t kill him, and instead, countless were slaughtered by him.

That pursuit had also forged his legend!

“It’s actually him!”

“No wonder!”

Everyone was relieved. So it was such a peerless figure. No wonder he was so powerful and had the courage to confront young master Taixu.

Then, their expressions changed, and they took a few steps back, their faces pale.

This man was not an ordinary monster. It was said that he was a brutal and murderous man. During the pursuit, he had slaughtered countless people.

Moreover, there was an even more brutal old devil standing behind this person.

“It’s him!”

Zao huaizi and the others were also shocked.

“My good boy!”

Gao Dayong and the servant disciples who were familiar with Tang Hao were all shocked.

Brother Shi, who was always smiling and looked very kind, was actually the legendary cruel demon?

The impact was too great!

“So it’s him!”

The expressions of the people from the 33 heavens also changed slightly. When they looked at Tang Hao again, their gazes were filled with fear.

The chase was so sensational that they had naturally heard of this fellow's strength and background. Even they were a little afraid of him.

After all, he was an eight-tribulation venerable sovereign.

"Alright! It's actually you!"

After young master Taixu came back to his senses, he sneered.

He, the great void heaven, was just worried about not having a place to find this fella. To think that he actually delivered himself to his doorstep.

He squinted his eyes, and a silver glint appeared in his pupils. He swept his gaze at his opponent's forehead, as if he was trying to find out something.

But very quickly, he was stunned and exclaimed in a low voice, "How can there be no one?"

He seemed to be a little unwilling to give up. He narrowed his eyes again and activated the secret technique, constantly checking the space between his opponent's eyebrows.

However, he still found nothing.

There was nothing between his opponent's eyebrows.

"Tsk! What a pity!"

After several fruitless attempts, he finally gave up, looking a little disappointed.

The crowd was puzzled by this. They did not know what young master Taixu was doing, but Tang Hao knew exactly what he was doing. He was obviously after the great void seal.

He was from the lower realm and was protected by The Blood King. The people of the great void heaven would definitely suspect him, which was why they sent people to search for him.

Young master Taixu had been probing the mark between his eyebrows.

Thankfully, he had The Blood King's Mystic technique that perfectly concealed the mark, preventing it from being exposed.
