

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1879

In the sky, the ray of light quickly flew away.

In the gate of fortune, everyone looked up at the sky in a daze.

They found it hard to believe that the eldest young master of the great void heaven was actually beaten away!

Even though it was only a clone, he had never lost to a clone before. Now, it had been defeated by that fellow surnamed Tang. The meaning was even more different.

One was the eldest young master of the 33 heavens, while the other was from the lower realm. The difference in status between the two was like heaven and earth.

One could imagine what kind of commotion it would cause once the news got out.

“He was too careless!”

“This guy ... He’s pretty strong! That bow is not bad either!”

The young masters of the various heavens discussed in low voices.

At first, many people were eager to make a move. Like young master Taixu, they coveted the Fortune true gold and the Fortune Elixir’s recipe. However, at this moment, they all held back.

After all, even young master Taixu had been defeated, and they had only come with their avatars. They were afraid that they would not be able to deal with this fellow surnamed Tang.

“If you want the pill formula, you don’t have to snatch it by force. You just have to put pressure on the gate of fortune and you can easily get it! I’m afraid it’s not worth it to provoke such a ruthless character just for a piece of creation true gold. Moreover, there’s an even more ferocious old demon behind this guy!”

They weighed their options for a moment and gave up on the idea of attacking.

They had seen how bold this Tang fellow was just now. He had actually tried to snatch young master Taixu’s origin core body, which had truly frightened them.

When they thought of the previous rumors that said that this guy killed without blinking, they were even more afraid.

At this moment, in their eyes, this surnamed Tang was a brutal and audacious little devil. If it was not necessary, they should not offend him easily.

“It’s a pleasure to meet you, Daoist Tang! ‘Nice to meet you!’ I’m called Qi, from the purple sky!”

“I’m lie. Greetings, fellow Daoist Tang!”

Many of the young masters spoke up to express their goodwill.

“Greetings, young master Qi!”

“Greetings, young master lie!”

Tang Hao retracted his aura and returned their salutes.

Seeing this scene, the disciples from all four sides revealed shocked expressions.

The fact that these young masters of the heavenly planes had taken the initiative to befriend him meant that they had all acknowledged the strength and status of this Tang.

“Congratulations, fellow Daoist Tang, on obtaining the treasure!”

Following that, many clan disciples also came forward to congratulate him, but most of them just stood there with complicated expressions. In the previous pursuit, most of their clan members had died at the hands of this Tang fellow, so there were grudges between them.

At this moment, they couldn't bring themselves to do so.

Tang Hao only landed after a while.

Zao Huazi led a group of elders and hurriedly came forward to welcome them.

“I obtained this pill formula by chance in the lower realm. Today, it's returned to its original owner!” Tang Hao handed over the recipe.

“This ... This is really the pill formula for the creation divine pill?”

“Our ancestors have spirits! Let this pill recipe return to our sect after ten thousand years!”

When Zao Huazi and the others received the pill formula, they were so excited that tears streamed down their old faces.

“Fellow Daoist Tang, you are the benefactor of the creation sect!”

“Daoist Tang, please accept our respects!”

All the elders wanted to kneel down and express their gratitude.

“What is he doing? You're all seniors, there's no need to be like this!” Tang Hao quickly helped them up.

“Daoist Tang, you don't know how important this pill formula is to the creation sect! This is a proper greeting!” Said Zao huaizi excitedly. He held the elixir recipe tightly, and tears were glistening in his eyes.

“My eyes are bad!”

Elder floating cloud studied Tang Hao carefully, then sighed deeply.

He had never expected that a random servant he had recruited back then would have such a powerful background. He had even brought back the long-lost creation Elixir's recipe to the creation sect.

"Elder floating cloud, please forgive me for hiding something earlier!" Tang Hao said with a smile.

"Aiyo! Don't call me elder, I can't take it! You're the great benefactor of our gate of fortune. Aren't you trying to embarrass me by saying this?" Elder floating cloud hurriedly waved his hand and smiled bitterly.

"Daoist Tang, we've all heard of your deeds and have admired you for a long time! Seeing it today, it's indeed extraordinary!"

"Hahaha! That's right! To think that fellow Daoist Tang ... No, I should call you young hero. To think that you're born in the lower realm. If you were born in Pangu, that would be terrible. Those freaks and geniuses would have no hope of living. "

The group of elders surrounded Tang Hao and began to flatter him with all their might.

Tang Hao could only smile wryly when he heard that.

"Right, don't just stand there. Young hero Tang, let's go to the main peak!" Zao Huaizi said enthusiastically, "floating cloud, you stay behind and let the rest of the disciples continue! The rest of you, disperse!"

"Da Yong, come here. Let's go together!"

Zao Huaizi walked around and his eyes lit up when he saw Gao Dayong.

At this point, how could he not understand that Gao Dayong's crystals had all been given to him by young swordsman Tang? otherwise, how could a mere errand boy like him, who had only become an immortal, have so many crystals?

From this, it could be seen that Gao Dayong and young hero Tang had a good relationship.

This was a good opportunity to get closer to young hero Tang!

"Yes, yes! Da Yong, hurry up and come over!"

"Go! Let's go up and sit!"

The group of elders were also extremely enthusiastic.

They all looked at Tang Hao with fiery eyes, as if they were looking at a treasure.

This young hero Tang was not only their fortune sect's benefactor who had brought them the Fortune Elixir's recipe, he was also a peerless genius. He even had a venerable sovereign backing him up. He had a powerful background. If they could form a good relationship with him, it would be of great benefit to their fortune sect.

"Stone ..."

Gao Dayong walked over, but he was a little nervous. He couldn't call out "brother" no matter what.

Looking at the "brother Shi" in front of him, he felt like he was in a dream.

"Let's go up together!" Tang Hao smiled at him.

"Let's go, let's go!"

Zao Huazi led Tang Hao to the main peak.

After they arrived at the main hall and sat down, everyone exchanged pleasantries.

"Young swordsman Tang, you should have heard of him! In the ancient times, the gate of fortune was a well-known force. It was not inferior to the 33 heavens at all. However ... Fate made a fool of us. Now, we have fallen to such a state and suffered humiliation!"

"We don't dare to reject those clan members and the disciples of the thirty-three heavens!"

Speaking of those foreign disciples, the beggar sighed.

"The gate of destinies is the only legacy treasure left in our sect. There are indeed countless treasures inside, but it's a pity that we can't control the gate anymore. As the sect master, all I can do is open it a crack and hold the creation ceremony!"

"To control this door, you need a true sect leader token. The creation ring on my hand was re-forged later on. The real creation ring was lost long ago, along with the creation divine boat."

"Back then, the last person to possess the creation ring was the twenty-third generation of the creation disciple. He mysteriously disappeared 10000 years ago and took these two treasures with him. He also caused our creation sect to be in a slump for a while, and we ended up in such a miserable state."

Tang Hao's heart skipped a beat when he heard that. "Why did the 23rd generation go missing? And where did she go missing?"

Over the years, we've been trying to find the token and the divine boat of creation, but we couldn't find a single clue after searching all over Pangu continent."

Said Zao huazi as he shook his head.

Tang Hao was a little disappointed. "It looks like I won't have the chance to see that legendary divine boat again."

“We also want to! Unfortunately, there’s no way to find it!” An elder sighed.

“Actually, if the Ring of Fortune hadn’t gone missing, we would have had a chance to find the divine boat. Unfortunately, both treasures are missing. There’s no other way.” Said Zao Huazi with a bitter smile.

“Oh?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“Young swordsman Tang, you might not know this, but there is a compass in the gate of destinies. It is one with the divine boat. As long as you get your hands on the compass, you will have a chance of tracking down the divine boat.”

Son of fortune explained.

“Then how can I get the compass?” Tang Hao asked.

“It’s hard to say. You saw it yourself. The treasures that come out of the door are all random. There are hundreds of millions of treasures in the door. It’s not easy to spit out the compass.”

Said Zao Huazi.

“Could it be that the gate of destinies can only be used at random and can not be exchanged for specific treasures from the spirit of destinies?” Tang Hao was confused.

“I ... I’m afraid that’s not possible, unless ...” Creation Zi hesitated.

“Unless what?” Tang Hao asked.

“Unless you make a great wish, and it’s a very big one at that, then you’ll have a chance,” said Zao huazi hesitantly. Just now, you made a great wish to revive the Dao of alchemy, but you didn’t meet the requirements. You can imagine how high the requirements are, and how impossible it is. ”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard that.

Reviving the alchemy Dao was already a Grand wish. What other grand wishes could he make?

Moreover, it had to be something he had the chance to do. Otherwise, it would be a waste of time.

“Young swordsman Tang, don’t even think about it. That’s impossible!”

“Let’s go!” Zao Huazi advised when he saw Tang Hao’s thoughtful expression.

He could guess what Tang Hao was thinking.

Tang Hao thought about it for a long time. Suddenly, his eyes lit up as if he had thought of something. "That's not necessarily true. Senior Zao Huazi, I still want to make another great wish. Do you think it's possible?"

Master of Fortune was stunned. He thought that Tang Hao was joking.

"You ... Really want to?"

"Naturally!"

"But ... What can I promise?"

The group of elders were also puzzled.

They also thought that this young hero Tang was joking. They really couldn't think of what other grand wishes he could make. If they wanted to surpass the Grand wish just now, they would probably have to find the divine boat.

However, if he could really find the divine boat, what was the point of making this wish?

"Just now, I promised to revive the creation alchemy Dao. This time, I promised to revive the creation alchemy Dao and restore its former glory. What do you think?"

Tang Hao looked around at the elders and smiled.

When he finished speaking, the hall fell silent.
