

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1886

After a long time, Fu Yunzi finally stopped.

He stood there in a daze.

He had read through all of these alchemy books. The content was profound and the scope was comprehensive. It was simply unheard of, far beyond all the alchemy books he had ever seen.

In particular, the “alchemy Encyclopedia” covered a wide range of things and was truly shocking. His path of creation’s “creation elixir Scripture”, the “great void elixir Scripture” of the great void heaven, and many ancient elixir Scriptures that had been lost for a long time were all included.

This ... Was unbelievable!

“Unprecedented and unparalleled ...”

Fu Yunzi’s entire body was trembling. He was so excited that his face was flushed red.

He realized the value of this alchemy Scripture. It was definitely a treasure that could shake the entire alchemy world and make all the alchemists in the world go crazy.

After a long time, he turned around and looked at the young man beside him.

He became more and more dazed. He could not believe that such a great work was actually written by such a young man.

To be able to create such a masterpiece, how profound must this person’s alchemy Dao attainments be?

He was more and more shocked. He felt that the figure in front of him was becoming more and more unfathomable.

Immediately, he felt a sense of shame.

He had been diligent his whole life, bitterly cultivating alchemy for hundreds of years, and finally reached the alchemy Saint realm with great difficulty. He felt that he had some standard, but now he found that he couldn’t even compare to a young man in his fifties.

“I’m still far from it!”

He sighed, but his heart was filled with mixed feelings.

“Grandmaster Tang’s profound knowledge and deep attainments really make this one feel ashamed!” He bowed to Tang Hao in shame.

“Elder floating cloud, there’s no need to be like this. I’m just lucky to have collected many alchemy books over the years.” Tang Hao smiled and waved his hand.

“This isn’t luck!”

Fu Yunzi smiled bitterly. Without strength, how could he have collected so many rare alchemy books? without top talent, how could he have integrated these alchemy books and compiled them into such a great work?

“I’ll give you all of these alchemy books. Distribute them to the alchemy Masters in the sect so that they can study them!” Tang Hao said.

“What?”

Fu Yunzi was instantly shocked. Such a precious alchemy book was actually given to him so casually, and even asked him to distribute it to the alchemists in the sect to read?

He was a little suspicious. Did he hear wrong? or did this person not know how much value these alchemy books had?

“Tang ... Master Tang, you don’t know how precious these alchemy books are! It wouldn’t be an exaggeration to say that these alchemy books are the most precious treasures of alchemy, and their value is immeasurable. If this were to be spread out, the entire alchemy community would go crazy.”

Fu Yunzi said excitedly, “such a treasure should be treated as a Supreme alchemy Scripture and stored away. It can not be casually passed on to others.”

Tang Hao smiled and shook his head. “If I wanted to hide it, then what’s the point of me putting in so much effort to write it? the alchemy book is written for people to read, isn’t it?”

“But ...”

Fu Yunzi still wanted to argue.

He could not understand Tang Hao’s thoughts. Shouldn’t such pill Scriptures be kept as a treasure? the sect’s “creation pill Scripture”, the “great void pill Scripture” of the great void heaven, and the other Supreme pill Scriptures of the Dao of alchemy were all like this.

Only a small number of people were qualified to study it.

This was the tradition of the alchemy world, and it had been like this since ancient times!

“Pass it down! I wrote these alchemy books in order to pass down these alchemy techniques so that everyone can read and learn them. This way, we can cultivate more talents and strengthen our good fortune alchemy Dao.”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

After Fu Yunzi heard this, he was stunned.

He was deeply shocked. Everyone could see and learn. What kind of vast realm was this?

Then, he felt ashamed.

Not only was his alchemy skills inferior to this young man 's, but he was also far behind in terms of breadth of mind and realm.

“This is a true master!”

He sighed to himself as a sense of awe welled up in him.

“Look, Master Tang. In this book, you’ve written down the great void heaven and some other famous alchemy Scriptures. Isn’t this a little inappropriate? if this were to be leaked, there would be endless trouble!”

He organized his alchemy books, picked up one, and said to Tang Hao.

“That’s true! Then delete these and make another one for teaching!” Tang Hao said with a nod. He did not notice this when he was writing the code.

“Good! Then leave it to me!”

Fu Yunzi took these alchemy books and left excitedly.

Very quickly, a piece of news spread through the sect.

“Did you hear? that Master Tang has compiled a batch of alchemy books and placed them in the Sutra library!”

“Master Tang? Alchemy books? No way! He’s so young, and his alchemy skills are indeed amazing, but I don’t think he’s good enough to understand these theories!”

After the group of alchemists heard this, they were all a little suspicious.

They were completely convinced of Master Tang’s alchemy skills. A month and a half ago, he had shown his skills at the alchemy Pavilion and shocked everyone. He had left a deep impression on them and they all worshipped him.

However, they still had some doubts about writing a pill manual.

After all, this Master Tang was too young. He was so young that they could not believe it.

“Let’s go and take a look first. I heard from elder floating cloud that all of us are qualified to take a look, regardless of our level or status. Even the disciples are qualified to take a look!”

There were also quite a few alchemists who came to the Sutra library with the intention of gaining some experience.

When they flipped through the alchemy books, they were all shocked.

“This ... Was this really made up by Master Tang?”

“How is that possible?”

They were all in disbelief.

These alchemy books didn't look like they were made up by a young Alchemist. They covered a wide range and were of a high level, far beyond their imagination.

They would have believed it if it was written by a Living Alchemy God.

“It can't be wrong. It really was made up by Master Tang. Look, the style is the same!”

“Heavens! It's really him!”

Everyone looked through it and compared it carefully. They had to believe it.

“Mother! Was he a monster? He's so good at alchemy, and his theoretical level is so high!”

“It's too F * cking awesome!”

They were practically kneeling as they flipped through the alchemy books again.

“From today onwards, Master Tang is my idol. Whoever dares to say anything bad about him, I'll fight him to the death!”

The group of alchemists was extremely excited.

They didn't leave the sutras Depository either. All of them stayed inside and studied the alchemy Scriptures, forgetting to eat or sleep. They were all immersed in it.

The more they delved into it, the stronger their admiration for Master Tang became.

Not only was Master Tang knowledgeable, but his words were also exquisite. He could often use the simplest words to explain very complicated problems clearly. Even an Alchemist with a low level would not have any obstacles when reading it.

“Wonderful!”

“I see!”

They would occasionally gain something and laugh happily.

The news spread quickly, and the rest of the alchemists swarmed over and joined in.

In an instant, all the alchemists of the creation sect gathered in the Scripture chamber and studied the pill Scripture together. They would even exchange pointers from time to time. Some even took out their pill cauldrons and began to practice the pill techniques they had just learned.

After they left the sutras Depository and returned, they also studied alchemy every day and immersed themselves in alchemy.

There were also some disciples who had started to learn Master Tang's alchemy Scripture and improved at a rapid pace.

A vigorous and vigorous University study movement began.

The entire creation alchemy Dao was showing signs of prosperity.
