

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1891

“Many thanks!”

Upon receiving the pill, Zao huaizi was first stunned, then ecstatic.

“Good pill!”

He exclaimed in admiration and threw the pill into his mouth, starting to absorb it.

In an instant, the aura around his body skyrocketed. He was originally a little exhausted, but now he was full of energy and was full of vigor.

He held the seal in his hand and madly smashed it at the fierce beasts in front of him. Every smash was accurate, and the fierce beasts were forced to retreat in an extremely sorry state.

Seeing that the elixir had been swallowed, the ferocious beasts were ready to retreat. However, how could Zao Huazi and the others let them go? their eyes were all red. At this moment, in their eyes, these ferocious beasts were all moving treasure pills.

“My pill, don’t run!”

“Stop!”

They roared and chased after him.

They were fighting with their lives on the line, and the beasts were dumbfounded. At this level, no matter if it was a beast or a human, they rarely fought with their lives. But this group of xiuzhe in front of them seemed to have gone completely crazy.

“Motherf * cker, where did this group of lunatics come from?”

“F * ck your Grandpa!”

This group of beasts couldn’t help but curse.

They were a little afraid, so they started to run.

However, under the relentless pursuit of Zao Huazi and the others, there were still a few ferocious beasts that could not escape in time. They were surrounded by a group of people and beaten to death.

“Master Tang, look, this big tiger is not bad! A 5th tribulation cloud wing Tiger!”

“This snake is really powerful. It took me a lot of effort to deal with a 6th tribulation silver-horned dragon Python.”

They carried the monster carcasses to Tang Hao and looked at him with eager eyes.

“Good, good, good! Don’t panic! One by one!”

Tang Hao waved his hand and smiled.

He glanced at them. There were three of them, two at the fifth tribulation and one at the sixth tribulation. They could produce two five tribulation and one at the sixth tribulation.

“Not bad!” Tang Hao nodded with satisfaction. “Let’s find a place first so that I can focus on my alchemy. As for you guys, go and hunt as many beasts as you can. The more the better. No matter how many you bring back, I’ll be able to make them.”

The group of people’s eyes turned red again.

A fifth tribulation ferocious beast could refine a fifth tribulation treasure pill, which would help their cultivation soar.

If he had to rely on his own hard work, how many years would it take to be worth a treasure pill?

This was a once-in-a-thousand-years opportunity!

They had to make good use of this opportunity!

“Kill! Kill them all!”

“All the beasts will be ours!”

They looked around the mountain range, and their eyes were green and glowing.

When they found a Valley, Tang Hao set up layers of formations, then sat down and began to refine elixirs. Zao Huazi, on the other hand, led a group of elders and set off impatiently.

Soon, loud rumbles and the sorrowful cries of ferocious beasts could be heard from time to time.

“Stop!”

“Don’t run!”

Such roars rose and fell one after another.

The group of people, including Zao huaizi, moved as a group. After they fixed their eyes on a target, they rushed forward. Two 6th tribulation experts attacked first and smashed the target in a wave. The group of 5th tribulation experts attacked again and bombarded the target indiscriminately.

An ordinary fourth or fifth tribulation ferocious beast would not be able to fight back against such a group of fiends and would be killed in a single blow.

If he was at the 6th tribulation, he could still hold on for a while, but he would eventually be exhausted and beaten to death.

The beasts fell one after another and were brought into the valley.

Soon, beast corpses piled up into mountains around the valley. It was a spectacular sight.

Tang Hao increased his speed and focused on refining the pills. The cauldron would shake from time to time, and beams of light would shoot up into the sky, transforming into precious pills.

The treasure pills were distributed to each elder. They immediately swallowed one, and their cultivation rose sharply.

They were greatly encouraged and worked even harder.

Tang Hao also took a few pills and ate them. His cultivation level increased by a lot.

“Hey! Why aren’t you running! There’s a group of lunatics in the mountains hunting us down!”

“That group of lunatics! They were especially terrifying and brutal. They killed any beast they saw, and they even wanted to use your corpse to refine pills. They ate it!”

In a few days, the news of a group of lunatics coming to the mountain spread among the beasts, causing a panic.

Some beasts packed up their bags and fled in a hurry with their families.

“Hmph! Wasn’t it just a group of human xiuzhe! What’s there to be afraid of?”

“Watch how I’ll deal with them!”

There were also some beasts that were not happy. Most of them were 6th tribulation beasts, and some had ancient bloodlines. In their eyes, these human xiuzhe were just two-legged bugs that could be easily torn apart.

They set off valiantly and high-spirited, full of confidence. They swore to tear these detestable human cultivators to pieces and take revenge for their dead comrades.

However, what awaited them were traps and a group of people.

No matter how strong one’s physical body and divine arts were, they would still be ground to death.

“You ... Are despicable!”

“Detestable insect, fight me one-on-one if you have the guts!”

They were furious and unwilling to give up.

“One-on-one, my ass! Smash, continue smashing, smash him to death!”

“You talk too much!”

The beggar and the others shouted and smashed him in the face.

Under their joint attack, the beasts that came to seek revenge fell one after another and were refined into treasure pills in Tang Hao’s hands.

“Cool!”

“Hahaha! This treasure pill is equivalent to sixty years of bitter cultivation for this old man!”

After swallowing these treasure pills, everyone’s cultivation increased by a lot, and their combat strength became stronger. It became easier for them to kill those fierce beasts.

The cauldron in Tang Hao’s hand never stopped refining pills. One treasure pill after another came out of the cauldron. He had no idea how many pills he had refined in the past few days.

In the beginning, Zao Huazi and the others only killed the fierce beasts above the 4th tribulation. Later on, they killed every beast they saw, including those at the 2nd tribulation and 3rd tribulation, and piled them up in the valley.

There were so many of them that Tang Hao almost did not have enough time to refine them.

In order to save materials, he could only choose some high-grade ones. As for the 1st and 2nd tribulation beasts, he planned to take them back and slowly refine them.

A few days later, as the ferocious beasts that came to seek revenge fell one after another, those ferocious beasts were finally completely terrified. They fled with their families and fled from the mountain range.

The mountains became unusually deserted, and the fierce beasts they could hunt became extremely rare.

Only then did they stop hunting the beasts and began to search around for the ruins of the Tian Luo sect.
