

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1896

“Hey! Did you hear that? the gate of fortune razed half of the mountain to the ground and wanted to plant their own medicine! They even bragged about being self-sufficient!”

“Hahaha! There’s such a thing?”

Naturally, the commotion in the gate of fortune could not be hidden from the outside world. When the mountain peaks were flattened and the medicinal fields were opened up, the news had already spread, causing the people to burst into laughter.

In terms of the supply of elixirs, even the most powerful forces could not be completely self-sufficient. There were too many types of spiritual herbs in the world, and planting them required a lot of manpower and resources.

Most of the forces would grow a portion of their own crops and purchase the rest to meet the demand.

How could a mere second-rate force do that!

Not only did the gate of fortune have very few people, but it was also said that the original herb fields were also very small. There were not many spiritual herbs that could be grown. Now that the mountain range had been razed to the ground in a hurry, the quality of the herb fields that were opened up would probably not be very good. They would not be able to grow any high-grade spiritual herbs.

Besides, planting herbs was a very time-consuming task. Even the lowest-grade spirit herbs would take several months to ripen, and the slightly better spirit herbs would take one or two years.

As for the high-grade spiritual herbs, they were at least ten years old.

If the quality of the medicinal field was poor, it would take even longer.

Now that the gate of fortune had started planting, even if they had the manpower and resources, it would take them a few years to be self-sufficient. In particular, it would take them at least a few decades to supply high-grade spiritual herbs.

After a few decades, the gate of fortune would be destroyed!

The world disdained it.

Self-sufficiency? that was just a fantasy!

“It seems like the gate of fortune still wants to struggle!”

“Woof! “Don’t worry, it’s just a futile effort. With so many spiritual herbs, how much can the gate of fortune grow? they won’t be able to hold on for long. I can see that they’ll be crying and begging us in less than three years!”

“Three years? Hahaha! That’s too long! In my opinion, it won’t even take a year for the gate of fortune to regret it!”

The clan members watched coldly from the side.

They were all waiting, waiting for the gate of fortune to be unable to hold on any longer. They were waiting for the gate of fortune to come and beg for mercy, admit their mistakes, and kick that damned little devil out of the gate.

They wanted to make the little devil uncomfortable and warn all the forces in the world that whoever dared to be on the little devil’s side would not have a good end.

They were also very confident in this.

All the races in the world worked together to besiege a mere second-rate force. How could they fail?

This was absolutely impossible!

As for the gate of fortune, they didn’t have a deep relationship with the little demon. The reason why they accepted him was because of his talent and strength. Once they realized that it wouldn’t bring them any benefits and would instead cause a disaster, they would naturally wake up and kick the little demon away.

They waited and waited. Very quickly, a month had passed.

There was no news from the gate of fortune.

The entire mountain range had been sealed off. Previously, when the mountain range had been flattened, there had been a huge commotion, but now, there was no sound at all.

Outside the mountain range, there were people from various clans. They were all here to monitor the gate of fortune. They circled the mountain range every day to find out what was going on inside. No one could escape their eyes.

“That’s weird! Why isn’t anyone coming out?”

A few more days passed, and these people were a little puzzled.

In the previous month, many people had come out to recruit people. They were not recruiting disciples, but herb farmers. They pulled boat after boat in.

However, not a single person had been seen recently.

“Hey! Have you really started farming?”

First, he opened up the herbal field, then recruited a large number of farmers. It really looked like he was going to plant herbs on a large scale.

However, deep down, they felt that something was amiss. If they had to rely on themselves, when would the gate of fortune be able to grow enough medicine to satisfy the entire sect?

“There’s definitely something fishy about this matter!”

They all had the same feeling.

For this matter, the representatives of the various great clans would gather from time to time to discuss.

“I say, it can’t be some kind of camouflage, right? Farming in the open is actually to numb us so that we can relax. After some time, when the ban is lifted, they can sneak out to buy medicine.”

A clan representative said.

“Yeah! Why didn’t I think of that? it’s possible!”

When everyone heard this, they all felt that it made sense.

Self-sufficient was simply impossible!

The gate of Fortune’s people were not stupid. They knew this very well. If they still said that, they must be lying to numb them.

“Hmph! What a good plan they had! They think we’ll let down our guard and give them a chance to take advantage of us!” The elder of the Yao family smacked the table and sneered, “from now on, strengthen the blockade. Even a fly can’t escape from our eyes.”

“I don’t believe that the gate of fortune can still be so unyielding after being sealed for two or three years!”

The group of representatives discussed for a while and soon came to a consensus. They would send more people to completely seal off the creation mountain range until the creation sect begged for mercy.

Within a few days, the number of people outside the mountain range had doubled. These people patrolled every day and completely sealed off the mountain range.

Days passed, but there was still no movement in the mountain range.

Another month passed, and there was finally movement in the mountains.

This time, the commotion wasn’t small. Countless lights flew out of the mountain and rushed in all directions.

“He’s out!”

“Hahaha! I knew it, this was just a smokescreen. They must have thought that we had let down our guard, so they couldn’t wait to send people out. Stop them!”

The people from the various clans immediately intercepted them.

However, there were too many people this time, and there was no lack of experts, so they couldn’t stop them.

“I missed a few, they’re all 5th tribulation!”

“Send the news back and tell those Chambers of Commerce to pay attention. As long as it’s a big deal, they must be careful!”

Very quickly, this news spread to every corner of the desolate north. All the major Chambers of Commerce and clans were paying close attention to it. As long as it was a large transaction, it would be reviewed layer by layer.

They thought that they would be able to find the people from the gate of fortune. However, after waiting for a few days, they did not find anything. Not only the beihuang region, but the neighboring regions also did not receive any news.

A few days later, a piece of surprising news came.

On the market, a large number of spiritual herbs had suddenly appeared. The number was extremely large, and the price was also shockingly cheap, all of them were half the market price.

As soon as this batch of spirit herbs entered the market, it caused a violent shock. The prices of these spirit herbs began to plummet, causing the forces that planted these spirit herbs to lose all their capital.

This matter caused a wave of commotion, but the impact wasn’t big. In the spiritual medicine market, it was normal for prices to fluctuate. The price this time was so low. It could be that some force wanted to open up the market with a low price, so they made a loss.

However, a few days later, another large batch of spiritual medicine entered the market. It was the same huge amount and also shockingly cheap. The only difference was that the types were different.

The prices of these spirit herbs instantly fell ...

Everyone was shocked.

Without waiting for them to react, the third batch of spirit herbs came, once again bringing a huge impact to the spirit Herb Market.

The prices of many spiritual herbs plummeted.

The entire spirit Herb Market in the desolate north was in complete chaos.
