

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1900

"I say, creation sect master, is your creation sect's field really different from the rest? Must we come and visit?"

"That's right! It's just a few mu of land!"

The crowd followed him while mocking him.

They had made this trip to see a joke. Now that the creation sect had allowed them to visit The Herb Farm, wasn't this the biggest joke?

Although the medicine fields of the gate of fortune were large in number and were said to be hundreds of thousands of mu, the quality would not be good because of the large number. It might not even be comparable to the average medicine field. What was there to visit?

While walking in front, master creation listened to the voices behind him. He smiled and said from time to time, "Everyone, don't be anxious, don't be anxious!"

The laughter behind them also became louder and louder.

"Everyone, we've arrived! This will be our creation sect's new spiritual herbal garden!"

After a short while, Zao Huazi stopped. In front of him, a Valley shrouded in fog appeared. At the entrance of the valley, there was a stone tablet with the words "spiritual medicine garden" written on it.

Everyone looked forward, only to see a vast expanse of fog, nothing could be seen clearly, the entire medicinal garden was enveloped under the spell formation.

With a smile, Zao huaizi waved his sleeves, and the fog in the valley split into two, revealing a passage.

"Please!"

With creation taking the lead, they walked in.

"Yo! This array is not bad! And not just one!"

"I say, creation sect master, you guys are too wasteful! Was there a need for such a good formation just for a few acres of broken land? I don't think all the medicinal fields and the spirit herbs here added together are worth more than these formations!"

When everyone came forward to take a look, they were all a little surprised.

A broken herb garden was actually protected by several top-notch arrays.

“Creation sect master, I’ve really broadened my horizons this time!” Yao Cheng walked behind Zao Hua Zi and said sarcastically, “my Yao clan also has a medicinal field, and it is the best in the world. However, it doesn’t have a treasure like yours!”

“It is! A broken field, a few broken spirit herbs, who would have any ideas about you!”

“This is called taking off your pants and farting, what an unnecessary move!”

A chorus of voices echoed behind him.

The crowd laughed as they followed Zao Huazi into the valley.

However, as soon as they stepped into the medicine garden, the laughter at the front of the group suddenly stopped. Everyone’s faces stiffened, and their smiles suddenly froze.

Then, their eyes widened, and they grew bigger and bigger until they were as big as copper bells.

Their mouths also unconsciously opened, as if they had seen a ghost.

“This ... This is ...”

Yao Cheng’s eyes also widened, and he looked in front of him in shock.

In front of him, there was a vast medicinal field, one mu next to another, boundless. Each mu of medicinal field was filled with so dense that it was almost tangible.

Between these medicinal fields, there were streams that separated these medicinal fields.

In these streams, what flowed was not ordinary water, but rolling medicinal liquid that exuded an astonishing vitality.

The soil in the herb fields was even more extraordinary. It was all blooming with a hazy multicolored light, just like celestial soil.

What shocked him even more was the spiritual herbs planted in the herb fields.

Not only was there a wide variety, from the lowest to the middle, high, there was everything. Many of them were even rare species that were almost extinct.

No matter what grade it was, all the spirit herbs were full of vitality.

“This ... How is this possible?”

Yao Cheng involuntarily muttered, his face dazed.

His mind was in a daze, and he felt like he was in a dream.

He had expected the hundreds of thousands of mu of medicine fields in the gate of fortune to be barren and in bad condition. However, the situation in front of him was the complete opposite.

If this medicinal field was said to be the medicinal soil of the immortal land, he would not doubt it at all.

This herb field was undoubtedly the best. It was comparable to the best herb field in the Yao clan. Furthermore, there were many more of them, dozens of times more than the Yao clan. Furthermore, the variety and quantity of the spiritual herbs were staggering.

This medicinal field far exceeded his Yao clan 's!

However, how did such a medicinal field appear in the creation sect?

What was even more incredible was that these medicinal fields were all built in just two months!

How was it possible to create such a deity ground in just two months?

Where did the gate of fortune get such a technique?

“Oh my God ...”

The people behind him were also dumbstruck when they entered the herb garden.

The group of people stood at the entrance of the herb garden with their mouths wide open, staring at the vast herb field in front of them.

“Is this for real?”

“Heavens! What did I just see? it’s unbelievable!”

When they came back to their senses, the crowd was in an uproar.

Everyone exclaimed in shock, their eyes filled with extreme disbelief.

The alchemists in particular couldn’t believe their eyes. They quickly stepped forward, some of them crouched on the ground and studied the soil, while others went straight for the rare spirit herbs to check.

“I’ve never seen such spiritual earth!”

“The golden light Lotus is an extremely precious item. If it was planted, less than one in ten would survive. Why are there so many of them here?”

The more they watched, the more incredulous they felt.

Soon, they were excited, and even fanatical.

It was definitely a secret technique!

It was the secret technique of Dao ancestor creation that had created this miracle!

“This is impossible!”

Yao Cheng grabbed a handful of spirit soil and examined it, his expression extremely serious.

He had never seen this soil before, which meant that it was a new secret skill.

However, he had never heard that the gate of fortune had such a secret technique!

“Everyone, how is the medicine field of my creation sect?”

Zao huaizi looked around and stroked his beard. He smiled smugly.

The crowd fell silent, their faces turning red.

Just now, they had ruthlessly laughed at the gate of fortune, laughing at their ruined land. However, in the end, they had been slapped in the face.

“There are so many top-notch herb fields ... Could it be that the mysterious faction is the creation sect?”

Suddenly, someone exclaimed.

As soon as these words came out, everyone was stunned, and then their faces changed.

They had also realized that the mysterious alchemy faction that had suddenly appeared might really be the gate of fortune.

With the scale and quality of this herbal field, it was absolutely capable of growing so many spiritual herbs. Moreover, the timing was right. It was only after this herbal field was opened that the cheap spiritual herbs appeared and entered the market.

It turned out that the mysterious alchemy faction that they had been searching for was the creation gate that they had been ignoring and even mocking!
