

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1901

The crowd was in an uproar.

No one would have thought that the so-called hidden alchemy faction was actually the gate of fortune!

The truth was too shocking!

Before this, they had all thought that the gate of fortune would not be able to hold on for much longer under the combined attacks of the various races. The so-called self-farming and self-sufficient was just a joke.

However, he did not expect the gate of fortune to really do it.

Not only were they self-sufficient, but they had also grown more than that. The number of spiritual herbs they grew was enough to mess up the entire Northern wilderness market.

“How could it be like this!”

Everyone from the Yao clan and the elders from the various clans of the desolate north had ashen expressions.

Their ban order had become a joke!

“It must be that stinky brat!”

Yao Cheng clenched his fists tightly, the veins on his forehead popping.

It wasn't that he didn't know about the gate of fortune. In the past, it was quite powerful. However, it had been failing over the years. Many alchemy books had been lost. They didn't have the ability to do all this. It could only be that kid.

That kid was a peerless monster, and he even had two Supreme artifacts. He must have many alchemy secret techniques on him, so it was not surprising that he could do it.

“Hmph! So it's the gate of fortune!”

The expressions of the burning Spirit Valley and the other forces were the ugliest.

Because of the gate of fortune, they had suffered great losses.

There were also many factions that had their own ideas. The medicine and pills from the gate of fortune were extremely cheap. They were half the market price. With the same amount of money, they could buy twice the amount of goods from the gate of fortune.

They had wanted to find this mysterious faction and buy from them, but they had been unable to find any. Now that they had found one, they naturally couldn't miss it.

However, the current situation with the gate of fortune was a little troublesome, so they did not dare to express their thoughts directly.

However, their attitudes had changed. All of them had warm smiles on their faces as they gathered around Zao huaizi and started praising him.

“Where? Where!”

“Everyone, you’re overpraising me!”

Zao huaizi stroked his long beard and laughed heartily.

When he heard these compliments and saw the ugly expressions on the faces of the Yao clan members, he felt a sense of exaltation.

Back then, when the ban order was issued, his creation sect was in an extremely sorry state. Everyone in the world was criticizing them, and no one thought highly of them.

However, the gate of fortune had managed to carve out a path with its own strength, despite being suppressed by so many factions.

“Creation sect master, your creation alchemy path is indeed an ancient inheritance. It has a long history. If you don’t mind, we can have a good exchange.”

“Your sect’s pills are also very special and exquisite. I would like to learn a thing or two from you!”

Quite a few alchemists also gathered around, extremely enthusiastic.

“So that’s how it is, it really is him!”

The medicine God mountain’s three old men looked enlightened.

That mysterious alchemy force was not only famous in the beihuang region, but also in the entire alchemy world. They had heard of it in the ancient wilderness, and had even obtained a few pills to study.

Whether it was the pill formula or the technique, it was all in the style of that Grandmaster Hao.

However, they didn’t suspect anything at the time. Back then, Grandmaster Hao had set off a trend in alchemy and influenced many alchemists. These pills might have been influenced by that trend.

However, now that they knew that the pill had been refined by the gate of fortune, and that Tang Hao happened to be here, they could confirm that Tang Hao was Grandmaster Hao, who had once shaken the world of alchemy.

“Hahaha! I’ve finally found this kid!”

“He’s worthy of his name! To be able to make such a big move, this medicinal field ... Is really amazing!”

“Let’s go! Let’s go and find that kid!”

The three old men laughed happily.

“Al! Sect master creation, where is that kid?”

“Right! Where was he? Don’t worry, we’re all on the same side, we’re very close to him!”

The three old men laughed heartily as they walked toward Zao Huazi.

Upon hearing this, the people around him were a little confused. Even Zao Huazi was a little puzzled.

One of his own?

Who’s on the same side as the medicine God mountain?

“That kid used to stay with the drug God. Although it wasn’t long, he’s one of us!”

“Have you all forgotten the master Hao who once shook the world of alchemy and was all over the place?”

The three old men laughed.

“Master Hao?”

“No way! That kid called Tang Hao is Grandmaster Hao?”

The alchemists were in disbelief.

Grandmaster Hao’s reputation was absolutely resounding in the world of alchemy. If he hadn’t disappeared long ago, he would’ve been famous all over Pangu by now.

They had all guessed that master Hao was the successor of the hidden alchemy Dao, but they had never expected him to be a monster from the lower realm.

“I’ve heard that the man surnamed Tang is very young. He’s only in his fifties, but he’s already so accomplished. It’s truly terrifying!”

“Have you heard that master Hao once suppressed the Holy Son of the Yao clan and destroyed the pill God Palace of the medicine God mountain? this means that he has the potential to become an alchemy God!”

The group of alchemists discussed, their expressions excited and emotional.

They’d heard that this Tang fellow was very talented in alchemy, but they’d never thought that he’d be this talented.

The qualification to become an alchemy God!

What a terrifying aptitude!

Given time, he would be an alchemy God!

It had been a long time since a God of alchemy had been born on Pangu continent!

“It’s him?”

In the Yao clan’s group, Yao ting was stunned. He was in disbelief.

Then, his face darkened and became extremely gloomy.

“Why is it this kid again?”

The veins on Yao Cheng’s forehead bulged, his anger unstoppable.

The debt of the pill God Palace was put on that kid again. There was another grudge between them.

“Since it’s him, then the alchemy God token must be on him!”

“Hahaha! The heavens are really helping me, I was just worrying about having no place to find that divine alchemy token, but I didn’t expect it to deliver itself to my door! After Kong Xuan kills him, the alchemy secret technique and the divine alchemy token will all belong to our Yao clan.”

Yao Cheng hatefully muttered, a Savage expression on his face.

“There’s such a thing?”

On the other hand, Zao Huazi was a little stunned. He had never heard Tang Xiu mention this before.

“Hahaha! Then he really was one of them! But it’s a pity that he’s been in closed-door cultivation for the past few days and can’t come out!” He said.

“I see!”

The three old men were disappointed.

The group of alchemists also sighed in disappointment. They all wanted to see Grandmaster Hao’s demeanor.

“However, there’s no need to worry. He’ll be out in a few days. If you want to see him, then stay for a few more days.” Creation master said, “by the way, he also left something for you.”

“Oh? What’s that?”

Everyone was curious.

“It’s an alchemy book. He personally wrote it. He made up many copies, and took a portion to gift to all of you!”

With a wave of his sleeve, countless rays of light flew out. They were all Jade slips.

“Alchemy books?”

All the alchemists were startled, and they all revealed suspicious expressions.

Master Hao was quite capable, but he was still young. The alchemy books he had written were probably of a limited standard and not as good as those of the senior alchemists.

“There’s no harm in taking a look!”

They all took the Jade slips and opened them with the attitude of casually looking through them.

After a casual glance, their originally casual expressions became serious.

“This ... Was really made up by master Hao?”

Many alchemists were in disbelief.

“Naturally!” The beggar nodded and said.

The more the alchemists watched, the more excited they became.

After they finished reading, they impatiently asked Zao Huazi for the rest of the story.

“Everyone, these alchemy books are supposed to be the secrets of our creation sect. However, Alchemist Tang is very broad-minded. That’s why he took out a portion of them for everyone to read.”
Said Zao Huazi.

The alchemists were disappointed.

“What a pity!”

In the crowd, pill Saint Hui also sighed.

He also felt that it was a pity. The Jade slip in his hand only had about one-tenth of the volume of an ancient book. There were not many words, but it was such a small part that it shocked him greatly.

The level of this alchemy book was so high that it probably far surpassed his.

He couldn’t believe that this was really the work of a young man.

He was very curious and was eager to see the latter part.

“However, if you really want to see it, there’s a way! Alchemist Tang said that alchemy techniques are meant to be shared. In our fortune sect, everyone can read these alchemy books, regardless of their status.”

“If you are willing, you can join the creation gate. You can have an empty title or be a guest elder. Anything is fine!”

“As long as you are willing, all the alchemy books in the sect are open to you. You are also qualified to use this medicinal field.”

Said Zao Huazi.

As soon as he finished speaking, there was an uproar.

Many alchemists were tempted, and many of them were Saints. The elders of the Yao clan and the bei Huang region had ugly expressions.

The gate of fortune was clearly recruiting people. As long as these alchemists entered the gate of fortune, even if they had the status of guest elders, it would still be impressive.

There were many alchemy Saints here. As long as three to five of them were willing, they would have to think twice before making things difficult for the gate of fortune in the future.

“Alchemist Tang said that no matter what level you are, as long as you are an Alchemist, you can join our creation alchemy path. All of his secret techniques and experience are open to you. Here, regardless of your level or cultivation, everyone is equal and has the same opportunity!”

Zao huaizi shouted again.

As soon as these words came out, the four sides were in an uproar.

The group of alchemists was stunned. Everyone is equal. This was the first time they had heard such a slogan. It was too shocking.

“I’m only a rank-8! Can I?”

Someone in the crowd shouted.

“Yes! Regardless of grade, even if you are first grade, that is fine!” Said Zao Huazi.

“That’s great! I’m willing to join the creation sect!”

“I’m also willing!”

The crowd quickly boiled over, and many alchemists squeezed out of the crowd and rushed over.

The members of the Yao clan were shocked. Although there were no martial Saints among them, they had the advantage in numbers. With so many alchemists joining the creation sect, the power of the creation alchemy Dao would be greatly enhanced.

“I’ll join! It’s not a bad idea to be a guest elder!”

After a moment of silence, pill Saint Hui spoke.

As soon as he spoke, there was another uproar.

Pill Saint Hui’s status wasn’t ordinary. He was a leading figure in the pill world of the desolate north. His weight was too heavy. Even if he only had the status of a guest elder, he was still very intimidating.

“Hahaha! The three of us will naturally join in! It’s very convenient to be a guest elder!”

The three elders of the medicine God mountain laughed.

As soon as these four alchemy Saints stepped forward, people followed them. A few more alchemy Saints stepped forward, and the enthusiasm of the other alchemy Masters grew. More and more alchemy Masters expressed their willingness to join the creation sect.
