

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1906

The eastern sea was one of the four Seas.

This region was vast and boundless, even more so than a wasteland. No one knew how big this East Sea was, because the deeper one went, the more dangerous it was. Even the 6th and 7th tribulations could not cross this sea.

In this ocean, islands were scattered all over the place, and countless xiuzhe were active.

At the same time, it was also a paradise for ferocious beasts, where countless bloodlines of the primordial era lived.

The deeper you go, the more powerful the beasts are. It is said that in the deepest part, there is the existence of an ancient Overlord, who is comparable to an eighth tribulation or even a ninth tribulation.

Because of the dangers in the depths of the ocean, few xiuzhe usually dared to go deep. Most xiuzhe were active in the coastal waters. However, these days, flying spiritual lights could be seen from time to time in the depths of Dong Hai.

Furthermore, as time passed, more and more spiritual lights appeared.

The sea region suddenly became lively.

The island closest to this place had also become lively. At every moment, countless spiritual lights poured in from all directions and landed on the island.

These were all cultivators who had rushed over from all directions. Most of them had stopped here for a while to inquire about some news before leaving and heading to the deeper parts of the sea.

“That animal ... I don’t know where it went! He hasn’t appeared for more than a day!”

“I heard that it might be hiding in the deepest part of the sea. That beast was born with the ability to repel water, so it can come and go freely in the sea!”

Here, everyone was discussing the same topic, that was the auspicious beast!

A few days ago, the news of an auspicious beast appearing in the eastern sea had spread everywhere, attracting countless xiuzhe.

The various forces of the desolate continent and many wandering cultivators swarmed over.

An ancient auspicious beast was a rare divine object. Its blood and flesh were spiritual essence comparable to divine medicine. Just a small piece was comparable to a divine medicine. An entire auspicious beast was equivalent to hundreds of divine medicines.

In ancient times, once an auspicious beast was born, it would cause people to chase after it crazily.

This time was no exception.

Thousands of clans from the four Seas and eight wastelands had all moved out and gathered in the eastern sea to fight for this auspicious beast.

“Jiang clan, Shi clan ... These super clans are all here!”

“They are all led by sixth tribulation, and some have more than one. They are all determined to get that auspicious beast!”

“Exactly! That was a divine beast! It’s equivalent to a few hundred divine herbs. It’s too precious and every force wants to get their hands on it, especially forces like the Liu Clan. If they want to revive, they need this auspicious beast.”

Every time a large clan arrived, it would cause a heated discussion.

“I heard that they all brought young people, including the Jiang clan, the ye clan, the Liu Clan, and so on! They must be aiming at that Tang guy, trying to avenge their past humiliation!”

Everyone started talking about the young people again.

This time, what everyone was concerned about was not only the auspicious beast, but also the battle between the younger generation and the kid surnamed Tang.

Back on chaotic World Mountain, he, Pangu, and many other young geniuses had attacked that kid surnamed Tang together, but they had been defeated miserably, which had caused a sensation.

They had also heard that in order to deal with that brat, the various races had put in a lot of effort to cultivate their own geniuses in order to avenge their humiliation.

All the clans had brought their young people here this time. They must be here for that kid surnamed Tang.

Now that the news had spread all over the world, there was no reason for that kid not to come.

“This Tang guy is quite capable! He doesn’t look like he’s from the lower realm at all. He suppressed so many of our Pangu clan’s monstrous talents with his own strength, and even dared to compete with young master Taixu. This strength and courage are truly astonishing!”

“Yup! Recently, that surnamed Tang has also stirred up a storm in the alchemy world. He was originally a second-rate good fortune sect, but he forcibly turned it into the Holy Land of the alchemy world. Now, all the alchemists are madly worshiping Him as if they’ve been possessed. They keep calling him Grandmaster Tang, great alchemy Saint Tang, and they’re just short of setting up a statue for him and making him a Saint!”

Everyone felt a little emotional at the mention of that Tang fellow.

This man with the surname Tang was clearly from a lower realm, but he was even more monstrous than the geniuses on Pangu continent.

Ever since he came to Pangu, he had never stopped, shocking the world again and again.

First, he managed to escape from the encirclement of all the races in the world, which shocked the entire Pangu continent. Then, he provoked the eldest young master of the great void heaven, which caused another uproar.

After he joined the gate of fortune, the world thought that he would stop for a while. However, they did not expect that in just over half a year, this brat had done another earth-shattering thing, causing the entire alchemy world to go crazy.

“This kid’s cultivation is amazing, he’s very calculative, and his luck is even better. Even his alchemy skills are amazing. Tell me, is there any justice in this world?”

Everyone was a little puzzled. How could such a powerful figure appear in a mere lower realm?

Back then, the old demon blood was only a little more ruthless and brutal. He was not as abnormal as this kid.

“However, this time, this kid is going to be defeated! Those clans have put in a lot of effort, regardless of the price, and the strength of those monstrous talents have greatly improved. However, that kid has found a second-rate broken force and is still busy with the matters of the pill realm. How can he improve?”

“That’s right. I’ve heard that the kid has always been in the gate of fortune and has not gone out much. What kind of opportunities could he have had? I think his strength should still be at the same level.”

Many xiuzhe guessed.

They were all very confident.

Even though that kid was a monster, his background was still much weaker. He could not be compared to the monsters of Pangu’s various races. The gate of fortune he had found was a declining second-rate power, which could not help him at all.

In this way, the improvement of his strength would not be able to compare with those monstrous geniuses of the clan. He would definitely be surpassed.

Such a statement was also acknowledged by most people.

“The people from the gate of fortune have not appeared yet?”

“Is that kid here yet?”

Every day, there would be people asking around.

The gate of Fortune's movements attracted everyone's attention.

"Hmph! He's just a barbarian from the lower world. How can he be compared with the monstrous talent of our Jiang family? our Jiang family was a giant family in the ancient times with a profound Foundation that even surpassed Pangu. It's too easy for us to deal with an ant from the lower world!"

"Where's that Tang guy? The genius of the Ji clan wants to kill him as a sacrifice to the heavens, to avenge the geniuses of our clan who died!"

Those people from the big families were also talking arrogantly, as if they didn't put that kid in their eyes at all.

After a few days, there were still no signs of the gate of fortune, and mocking laughter rang out.

"That kid must be scared! I don't dare to come!"

"Hahaha! A coward!"

The cultivators of the various races all laughed.

At that moment, at a corner of the sea, a ripple suddenly appeared in the void. A scroll appeared. Then, another large warship sailed out from the scroll. On the ship were Tang Hao and the other elders of the gate of fortune.
