

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1907

On the sea, dark clouds covered the sun and huge waves surged.

The warship landed on the sea.

Tang Hao reached out and put the scroll away.

“This is the eastern sea!”

Yun qingzi said, pointing forward.

“Let’s Scout out the situation first!” Tang Hao flicked his sleeve, and beams of light flew out. They were all his clones.

These incarnations scattered across the ocean to help him investigate the situation here.

Very quickly, news came from all over.

Tang Hao gained a basic understanding of the situation there.

“So many old acquaintances!”

Tang Hao’s brows twitched. The appearance of the auspicious beast this time had gathered all the clans in the world. It was no less than the situation when he was hunted down. Moreover, many of them were familiar faces.

The Jiang clan’s geniuses, ye jiuxuan, Liu heihu, and all the other familiar faces had all come.

Tang Hao naturally knew that he was their target.

However, he didn’t care much about it. He was more concerned about the auspicious beast.

It had been eight or nine days since the auspicious beast was born, but it had only appeared a few times. This beast’s movement technique was like thunder and was extremely fast. It also had the ability to repel water, so it could move freely in the sea. Everyone had surrounded it several times, but they had not succeeded.

So much so that no one could clearly see what kind of auspicious beast it was.

“That beast is unbelievably fast and especially cunning. It knows illusionary techniques and can bewitch people!”

“It’s too fast. I only saw a beam of light and it disappeared in the blink of an eye!”

When the xiuzhe thought about it, the only impression they had was a ray of light.

“This animal ... Is not easy to catch!” After understanding the situation, Yun qingzi’s expression turned serious.”However, it’s precisely because of this that we have a chance!”

“That’s right. The harder it is to catch that beast, the greater our chance. ” Tang Hao nodded.”There’s no rush. We’ll wait until the beast is born. It won’t be too late for us to make a move then when the major factions are more or less done fighting.”

“Hahaha! With this treasure, we can be like the Mantis stalking the cicada, unaware of the Oriole behind!”

“This treasure is truly a great treasure for sneak attacks, killing people, and snatching their treasures!”

The group of elders looked at the universe map in Tang Hao’s hand and could not help but praise it.

Although this treasure was only at the seventh tribulation and did not have much power, it had many wonderful uses and was a rare treasure.

“Let’s go!”

Tang Hao smiled. He opened the scroll of the world again and led the group into it.

Then, The Map of Heaven and earth shrank and disappeared into the void.

In the next few days, the sea became more and more lively. More xiuzhe came from all directions. The originally empty sea became a bit crowded.

Not just the xiuzhe, there were also many ancient beasts that had gathered. They were all here for the auspicious beast.

From time to time, there would be huge dark clouds in the sky. They were all giant birds, and their bodies were thousands of feet long. When they spread their wings, they looked like they were hanging from the sky. Their cries were like thunder, shaking the world.

The nine-headed Eagle, the sky-splitting Sparrow, the blue Luan ...

Giant prehistoric birds appeared one after another.

From time to time, there would be news about which unlucky people had encountered these giant birds and were swallowed in one bite.

In the ocean, there were also giant beasts gathering. There were giant turtles, giant whales, and even giant apes crossing the sea.

Pangu continent was rich in immortal energy, far more so than the starry sky of the lower realm. The size and strength of these primordial beasts were naturally far greater than those of the lower realm.

When normal xiuzhe encountered these ancient beasts, they would have to retreat. Even those large clans didn’t dare to provoke them.

On this ocean, hundreds of millions of xiuzhe and many ancient beasts were searching for the auspicious beast day and night.

From time to time, there would be news that the auspicious beast's whereabouts had been discovered, causing many cultivators to swarm in.

However, by the time everyone rushed over, the auspicious beast had already escaped.

This repeated a few times, causing the cultivators to be exhausted.

On this day, another piece of news came, saying that the whereabouts of the auspicious beast had been found.

"Hurry up! He heard that it was different this time. Many of the clan's Almighty experts had joined forces and set up a formation to trap that beast! If we're late, then we'll have nothing!"

"We must make it in time. As long as we can grab a piece of meat, it will be worth it!"

All the cultivators swarmed forward. All the xiuzhe that received the news rushed to the place where the auspicious beast had appeared.

At this moment, in a part of the vast sea, there was a sea of fire.

Purple, gold, black ...

Flames of various colors surged and turned into a huge cage that hung over the sea.

And within this cage, there was a golden light that was charging left and right, trying to break out of the shackles of this cage.

"Trap it!"

"We can't let it escape this time!"

From all four directions, a series of shouts rang out.

One figure after another stood in the air, controlling the flames to strengthen the cage and trap the golden light within.

They were all 6th tribulation saints.

However, even with so many 6th tribulation cultivators working together, it was difficult to trap the golden light inside. They had to grit their teeth and keep activating their celestial core power to wear down the power of the auspicious beast.

And around this Sea region, large ships lay horizontally in a circle, protecting this Sea region.

These were all large clans. Dozens of large clans joined forces and trapped the auspicious beast together.

While trapping the auspicious beast, they also had to be on guard against other clans.

As time passed, more and more light appeared on the horizon. When they arrived, they all stopped and chose to wait.

After all, everyone wanted to fish in troubled waters and didn't want to be the first to start a conflict with these large clans.

Moreover, the auspicious beast was only trapped and not killed.

While waiting, they all secretly boosted their celestial core power and were ready to attack. Everyone knew that once the auspicious beast was exhausted and was about to be taken away, the battle would break out.

Dozens of large families working together was indeed a powerful force, but they could not stop all the cultivators in the world.

Very quickly, in the sky above, huge dark clouds surged. They were all huge birds. They hovered in the sky, eyeing them covetously.

In the sea, there were also giant beasts Breaking the Waves.

There were also powerful primordial spirits that appeared in the clouds.

Everyone, all the beasts, were waiting, waiting for the auspicious beast to be exhausted.

Just like this, after a full 10 – 10 hours, finally, the auspicious beast began to be unable to hold on and showed signs of exhaustion.

“Now, hurry! Take care of this bastard!”

An old man roared as he suddenly lowered his body and charged into the flame cage.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

A few more elders around them moved and rushed into the cage.

“Hmph! You wish!”

“Leave the auspicious beast behind!”

There was an explosion of shouts from all directions.

The cultivators waiting in all directions immediately attacked.

At the same time, deafening roars were heard. The giant beasts could not help but attack. The giant birds in the sky swooped down one after another, while the giant beasts in the sea set off huge waves that slammed into the flame cage.

In an instant, a chaotic battle erupted.
