

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1908

In the sky above the ocean, countless spiritual lights intertwined.

All kinds of treasures and spells collided with each other and exploded into brilliant light.

Tens of millions of xiuzhe were engaged in a chaotic battle.

There were also many ancient beasts mixed in.

Everyone, as well as the giant beasts, rushed towards the center. Their target was the auspicious beast that was trapped in the formation.

For human cultivators, the flesh and blood of the auspicious beast could increase cultivation and was comparable to divine medicine. For giant beasts, not only could it increase cultivation, it could also strengthen their bloodline and have the possibility of being reborn.

The great clans had joined forces to set up layers of great formations, but in the face of so many opponents, they were destroyed in a short time. The two sides engaged in close combat.

“Get lost!”

“With the Jiang family here, who dares to cross the line?”

The Almightyies of these large clans all made their moves. They either took out their tribulation artifacts or directly used their immortal abodes to attack with the power of Thunder.

All of them were 6th tribulation experts. Their auras were shocking and shook the wind and clouds.

Screams rose and fell. Xiuzhe spat out blood and fell. Some didn't even have time to scream before they were killed.

“Hurry up! The outside can't hold it anymore!”

Within the cage of flames, several elders moved like lightning and pounced towards the auspicious beast.

Each of them displayed their divine abilities. One of them waved his sleeve and a golden light flew out towards the auspicious beast. It was a rope that was shining with golden light and was surrounded by symbols.

Each of them reached out a hand, and a giant Golden Palm appeared and grabbed at the man.

Another person took out a black net and covered the front.

The last six-tribulation Saint opened his mouth and spewed out a beam of red divine light. It slashed forward with a shocking murderous aura.

After struggling for a long time, the auspicious beast's breath had weakened by more than half. The Golden divine light around it had also reduced a lot, revealing a vague figure. Its body was not big, about three feet tall. Compared to those giant beasts, it was pitifully small.

Its appearance was quite strange. It looked like a deer and a Qilin, with a horn on its head.

"It's Tianlu!"

The elders recognized him.

That Tian Lu gave a sharp hiss. His figure turned into a flash of lightning, dodging the attack.

"Hmph! Where are you running to!"

The four old men shouted and gave chase.

Although that Tian Lu's presence was much weaker, his speed was still very fast. It was difficult to kill him in a short time. With this delay, the xiuzhe outside broke through the defense and charged in. They began to attack the fire cage.

BOOM!

With a loud noise, a giant beast appeared in the sea. With a swing of its tail, it set off a huge wave that hit the cage.

In the sky, there were also several giant birds pouncing down, attacking the cage.

In just a short while, the cage was completely broken.

At this moment, the xiuzhe that had been waiting for a long time all attacked. Each of them used their own abilities and charged towards the Tianlu.

It was another chaotic battle.

At this moment, those who dared to join the fight were all 6th tribulation saints and ancient beasts. They all fought with all their strength, causing the sky to collapse and the earth to crack. Even the void rippled as if it was about to shatter.

Under the pursuit of so many xiuzhe, that Tian Lu was finally wounded. It wailed and charged into the sea.

"Little friend Tang! Shouldn't we make a move?"

Tang Hao and the others were waiting in the air.

They had arrived a long time ago and had been hiding in the scroll of the world, in the void.

Seeing that Tian Lu was fleeing with injuries, Yun qingzi and the others couldn't hold back any longer.

"Wait a little longer!"

Tang Hao thought for a moment, then shook his head.

The war had just broken out not long ago, and these 6th tribulation cultivators still had strength to spare. Moreover, he was sure that he was not the only one who had relied on treasures to hide in the four directions. There must be other forces.

"Good! Then we'll wait!"

Yun qingzi and the others nodded.

At this time, outside, just as that Tian Lu was about to rush into the sea, an unforeseen event suddenly occurred in the sea. A ten thousand Zhang *(3.33m per Zhang) large whale rushed out of the sea, opened its huge mouth, and was about to swallow that Tian Lu whole.

"Bastard, How dare you!"

With a loud roar, a bolt of purple lightning suddenly flashed in the sky, cutting through the sky and striking down.

It was a sword light, sharp and unparalleled, as if it could cut the sky and split the earth.

Before the sword arrived, the sword Qi alone had already split the surface of the sea.

In the face of this sword, the giant whale did not dare to take it head-on. It lowered its body and fled back into the sea.

"It's Zishan Zhenren!"

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

Everyone's faces were filled with respect, even the six-tribulation saints.

"He's also here!"

"This Zishan Zhenren is a legend of the way of the sword. He's also the most powerful expert among the 6th tribulation."

Yun qingzi and the others introduced them to Tang Hao.

"This sword ... Is powerful!"

"Amazing!" Tang Hao exclaimed.

The power of this sword was indeed amazing.

“However, it’s still a little difficult for him to snatch the heavenly fortune!” Tang Hao smiled.

As soon as he finished speaking, the void in the sea beside him suddenly rippled, and a crack appeared. On the other side, a divine mountain could be vaguely seen.

Then, a palm burning with golden flames reached out from the other end and slapped at the sword light that was falling from the sky.

“It’s the people of the ancient ape sacred mountain!”

“It’s the sun-swallowing fire ape!”

All the cultivators exclaimed in shock.

Clang!

A deafening explosion.

The huge Golden Palm slapped the purple sword light away.

Then, from the other end of the spatial crack, a giant ape emerged. With a sharp hiss, it grabbed at the Tianlu with a palm.

“Hmph!”

An angry snort exploded in the air.

The sword light rose again and came like thunder.

A man and a beast immediately engaged in an intense battle.

At this time, seeing that this man and beast were fighting intensely, many people from all sides took the risk to rush in, wanting to snatch that Tianlu.

“It’s not time yet!”

Tang Hao’s eyes shone as he looked around. He shook his head.

He could see that there were still many people hiding in the surroundings who had yet to make a move.

Under the pursuit of so many xiuzhe, that Tian Lu had fled for a while before he was injured again and his speed dropped again.

“Hahaha! This treasure ... Is mine!”

Accompanied by a loud laugh, a crack appeared in the air. A black shadow scuttled out and pounced at Tian Lu.

He raised his hand, and a divine light shot out. It was a pot, and the mouth of the pot gave off a suction force, which sucked Tian Lu in.

He was overjoyed. He kept the teapot and was about to leave.

“You want to leave?”

At this moment, a cold snort exploded.

An old man tore open the void and attacked.

At the same time, in all four directions, several figures appeared. Their auras were extremely vigorous. Like Reverend Zishan and the sun-swallowing fire ape, they were all top 6th tribulation powerhouses.

They moved at the same time and attacked the xiuzhe holding the pot.

“F * ck!”

The xiuzhe cursed, his face pale from fear.

He hurriedly blocked it and was sent flying, spitting out blood.

“I don’t want it anymore!”

He screamed, threw the pot away, and ran away.

This thing was too hot to handle. If he really took it away, these bastards would chase him to the ends of the earth.

In an instant, everyone’s eyes were focused on the pot.

Tianlu was inside!

Snatching this pot would mean obtaining the treasure.

Everyone’s breathing quickened, and their eyes turned red.

They rushed out madly and pounced on the pot.

“Hahaha! I got it! This treasure belongs to the night race!”

The night race’s Almighty being was the fastest. He tore open the void and grabbed the pot first.

He laughed out loud and was extremely happy.

“This belongs to the night clan. Whoever dares to snatch it, the night clan will not rest until he is dead.”
Then, he looked around and shouted sternly.

In an instant, many xiuzhe stopped and showed hesitation.

The night race was really a little troublesome.

In terms of overall strength, the night race was not as powerful as the Jiang clan or the stone clan. However, the night race was especially good at assassination. They appeared and disappeared unpredictably and were extremely terrifying. They could not be easily provoked.

Seeing this, the night clan’s Almighty couldn’t help but let out a light snort and laugh proudly.

His night clan’s prestige was extremely deep, and these people would not dare to provoke him easily.

“This treasure, my night race will kindly accept it!”

He laughed and was about to tear open the void to leave.

However, at this moment, something happened. A black-clothed figure appeared behind him, holding a huge Wolf-tooth iron club.

“Kindly accept your sister!”

With a soft snort, the terrifyingly thick Wolf Fang iron staff came crashing down. With a clang, it hit the back of the night race Almighty’s head.
