

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1910

“It’s that Tang guy!”

“He’s here!”

There was an uproar.

When they saw Liu heihu obediently hand over the treasure and leave, they were a little surprised.

This Black Tiger was usually very arrogant and was not afraid of anything. Why was it that when he saw this surnamed Tang, he was like a mouse seeing a cat, completely timid?

Although there were many people with the surname Tang, they might not be able to keep him here!

Then, they frowned.

It didn’t matter whose hands the treasure ended up in, but it couldn’t fall into the hands of this Tang guy.

In this way, the 6th tribulation cultivators could not attack.

Back then, old demon Xue had said that no 6th tribulation or 7th tribulation saints were allowed to attack this kid. They didn’t dare to disobey.

“What a pity!”

Many of the 6th tribulation experts shook their heads and sighed.

Since the treasure was already in the hands of this brat, they could only give up.

Many of the ancient beasts had also concealed their aura. They had all heard about this kid and knew that it was obviously unwise for the famous old demon blood to make an enemy of a venerable sovereign for an auspicious beast.

“Hahaha! The kid has finally appeared!”

“Little devil, you’ve come just in time! We’ve been waiting for you for a long time!”

The elders of the large clans were overjoyed.

They had been waiting for this kid for far too long!

Ever since the disastrous defeat at chaotic World Mountain, they had spared no effort in training their own monstrous talents in order to wash away their past humiliation and kill this hateful brat!

At the same time, they were full of confidence. With their tens of thousands of years of accumulation, how could they not deal with a kid from the lower realm?

How could this be possible?

For the past half a year, their evildoers had been consuming godly medicine every day and cultivating their own Supreme cultivation techniques. Everything was the best. As for this brat, how much could he improve by staying in that broken-down gate of fortune?

Their monster was going to win this battle!

“What’s wrong? Have you all been waiting for me for a long time?”

Tang Hao said coldly as he put away the teapot and looked around.

“Little demon, don’t be so arrogant. Do you think that no one can do anything to you because you have the old demon blood’s support?”

Angry rebukes were heard from all directions.

Then, many geniuses couldn’t help but jump out from their own camp.

“Tang kid, come and die!”

They clamored one after another, their attitudes arrogant.

“Tang brat, I, Jiang jingchen, am here. How can you be so presumptuous today!”

The number one genius of the Jiang family appeared on the warship. He was wearing golden armor and looked like an ancient God of War.

In the other direction, on the Yao clan’s ship, the number one genius of the Yao clan also appeared. He was also shining with divine light and looked mighty and mighty.

“Tang kid, I lost to you with My Immortal mansion last time. Let’s fight again today. I want to prove to the world that the true dragon Palace of my Yao clan will not lose to your immortal mansion!”

The Yao clan genius shouted.

Last time on chaotic World Mountain, he had used his immortal abode, which was also the legacy of his Yao clan, the true dragon Palace, to fight against the immortal abode surnamed Tang. However, he had suffered a crushing defeat, and even the true dragon Palace had been destroyed.

This wasn’t just a humiliation to him, it was also a humiliation to the Yao clan!

He had to get back at them.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao said coldly.

Then, more and more geniuses showed up. Not only the top geniuses of the Jiang clan and the Yao clan, but also geniuses of other clans. In a short time, more than 100 geniuses showed up, scattered all over the place.

“Hey! This is going to be interesting!”

“So many monsters. I wonder who will be able to get it!”

Everyone started discussing.

Their tone was quite relaxed. This time, this kid was bound to lose. The only question was who he would lose to.

“Tsk tsk! They’re all pretty good! Looks like they’ve spent quite a bit!”

Tang Hao turned around and scanned his surroundings.

After the battle on chaotic World Mountain, the cultivation of these geniuses had all improved greatly. Previously, only the top geniuses of the Jiang clan and Yao clan were at the fifth tribulation, while the rest were at the fourth tribulation. But now, all of them were at the fifth tribulation.

As for geniuses like the Jiang clan and the Yao clan, their cultivation levels had even skyrocketed to the late stage.

In just half a year, from the early stage to the late stage of the fifth tribulation, these clans had put in a lot of effort.

However, he was not afraid at all.

No matter how much these geniuses improved, they couldn’t compare to him. They were only at the late stage, but he had already reached the perfection stage and was far ahead of them.

“Your equipment is pretty good too!”

Tang Hao’s eyes brightened when he saw them.

Not only did these geniuses have a great improvement in their cultivation base, but even their equipment had also improved a lot. Each of them was equipped with treasures, and they were all armed to the teeth. Moreover, they were all top-grade treasures.

For example, the geniuses of the Jiang clan and the Yao clan not only had armors that were 8th tribulation Emperor weapons, but they also had several treasures on them, all of which emitted the aura of Emperor weapons.

The other geniuses all had one or two Emperor artifacts.

On Pangu continent, Emperor weapons were extremely rare, and even a clan only had a few of them. Only a super clan like the Jiang clan could have a few, and now, they had probably taken all of them out and piled them up on their geniuses.

As for the Supreme weapon, Tang Hao did not see it.

This kind of treasure was extremely rare and only a few of these clans had it. They would not use it easily.

And even if they used it, Tang Hao was not the least bit afraid, because he had two of them.

“Don’t be so arrogant, Tang kid!”

“Little Tang, this day next year will be your death anniversary!”

The geniuses were enraged when they saw Tang Hao’s relaxed expression. They felt like they had been provoked, so they began to curse.

“Since you want to kill me, then come! Who’s going first!”

Tang Hao flicked his sleeves and calmly looked around.

In an instant, the four sides fell silent.

“I’ll do it!”

“Let me do it!”

Then, a group of geniuses rushed out.

Whoever could defeat this devil surnamed Tang would be able to shake Pangu and become a hero of Pangu continent. No one could resist the temptation.

“Argh! Wait a minute!”

“Wait!” Tang Hao suddenly raised his hand and shouted.

“Eh? What’s wrong? Are you scared, Tang kid?”

“Hahaha! Little Tang, you’re afraid too?”

The group of evildoers were stunned at first, then they burst into laughter.

The crowd burst into laughter.

Everyone thought that this kid was afraid!

That’s true! How could this kid not be afraid of so many monsters?

“Afraid? You’ve misunderstood. I’m just a little busy and in a hurry! It’s too troublesome to come one by one. How about ... All of you come at me together!”

Tang Hao grinned.

As soon as he finished speaking, the four sides fell silent. Everyone was a little stunned.

They couldn’t believe that this kid still dared to be so arrogant at this time. This was no longer the time when he was in the chaotic World Mountain. At that time, this kid had just formed his immortal mansion, and all the monstrous geniuses had used their immortal mansions to fight against him, which was why he could kill so many people.

Now that the strength of these monsters had increased greatly, this kid still dared to be so arrogant?

This was probably asking for death!

“Since he’s looking for death, why don’t we fulfill his wish!”

“That’s right! Let’s work together to kill this demon!”

The group of demons laughed in anger.

“Attack!” They shouted in unison and activated their celestial core power. All kinds of tribulation weapons and celestial abodes rose into the sky and blasted toward the sea below.

“You want to kill me? Hmph! You guys are still too early!”

“Die!” Tang Hao shouted coldly. He lifted his foot and took a step forward. In an instant, an extremely powerful aura burst out. It turned into raging waves that swept out wildly.

The surface of the sea under his feet exploded, setting off boundless waves.

In the sky, the wind and clouds also changed.

At this moment, his aura of a peak 5th tribulation expert was released without any reservation.
