

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1911

“What ... What is this?”

“This aura ...”

Everyone’s body trembled as if they were struck by lightning.

Their eyes were wide open, and their faces were filled with shock and disbelief.

This aura was clearly that of a peak fifth tribulation!

But how was that possible?

This kid advanced to the 5th tribulation just over half a year ago. In just over half a year’s time, how could he possibly cultivate from the initial stage to the completion stage?

Even super clans like the Jiang clan and the Shi clan had not been able to train their geniuses to perfection in such a short period of time. How could this kid do it by himself?

The gate of fortune?

Forget it! If the gate of fortune had such capabilities, it would not have declined so much!

For a moment, everyone was filled with shock and doubt.

As for the group of geniuses, they were even more shocked and shocked.

During the battle of chaotic World Mountain, many of them had been in the lead in terms of cultivation, but now, they had been overtaken by this guy.

How could this fellow’s cultivation speed be so fast?

Could it be that this fellow had obtained another opportunity?

Thinking of this, all the geniuses had the urge to vomit blood.

This guy’s luck was a little too good! The last time he was in the chaotic World Mountain, he had a narrow escape and advanced to the fifth tribulation by a fortuitous encounter, turning the tide of the battle. In the past six months, he had another fortuitous encounter and his cultivation base had surpassed theirs.

“Motherf * cker!”

Many demons were so angry that they cursed.

“This ... This is not fair!”

Jiang jingchen's face had turned black.

He had thought that he would win for sure, but he had never expected that this guy's cultivation would rise even faster than his, the number one genius of the Jiang family. He was only in the late stage, but his opponent had already reached the consummate level, which was much higher than him.

His cultivation was ahead, and in terms of divine arts and tribulation weapons, his opponent was no weaker than him. He didn't have the confidence to win this battle!

"A fortuitous encounter?"

Tang Hao chuckled disdainfully when he heard the commotion.

The reason why he could improve so quickly was not because of fortuitous encounters, but because of his alchemy skills and the information he dug out from black sky old Devil's memory after devouring him.

All of this was obtained through his own strength.

"Now, let me see how much you've improved in the past half a year."

"Hmph!" Tang Hao grunted and attacked.

A golden light flashed above his head, and an ancient palace appeared. It expanded instantly, and the divine light on it shone brightly. The illusionary images of ancient godly spirits and divine beasts appeared, emitting a monstrous divine might that smashed toward the Yao clan's demon.

"Hmph! So what if you've reached perfection? I'm not afraid of you!"

The Yao clan monster snorted in anger. A divine light flashed above his head and a Palace appeared. It was shining with golden light and Dragons were circling in the palace.

Last time, there were only a dozen true dragons, but now there were more than twenty, which was double the number.

The true dragon Palace's power also increased.

"Bang!"

A deafening explosion.

Under everyone's gaze, the two immortal abodes collided and exploded with boundless light. The true Dragon's Shadow and the God's shadow above them also began to fight and let out earth-shaking roars.

"Another confrontation!"

Everyone's hearts were in their throats and they were extremely nervous.

One of the two immortal abodes was the famous true dragon Palace, which had dominated Pangu for more than ten thousand years and was recognized as one of the strongest immortal abodes. The other was a brand new immortal abode that seemed to have been created by that kid.

In the last battle, the true dragon Palace had suffered a crushing defeat. What would the result be this time?

In everyone's hearts, they were naturally inclined to the true dragon Palace, because it was an old and powerful immortal mansion. They couldn't believe that the immortal mansion created by that kid could surpass an old and powerful immortal mansion!

However, the final result was once again beyond their expectations.

In their horrified eyes, the true dragon Palace collapsed again. First, the bricks and tiles were sent flying. Then, the dragon pillars fell apart under the impact of the opponent's immortal mansion.

This was a complete suppression!

In front of the gods Palace, the Yao clan's true dragon Palace was crushed like tofu.

"No!"

The Yao clan monster's Tiger Eyes widened and he roared.

In the next moment, his entire body trembled, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

The immortal mansion was the foundation of a cultivator. It was too important. Once it was damaged, it would hurt the foundation of the cultivator.

"Stop!"

The Yao clan mighty figure on the side couldn't take it anymore. He hurried to help.

Last time, a corner of the immortal mansion had been broken, and it had already taken them a lot of effort to repair it. If it was completely broken, the number one demon of the Yao clan would be crippled.

"How can this guy's immortal mansion be so fierce?"

All the cultivators in the surroundings were shocked and suspicious. The power of this immortal mansion was really beyond their expectations.

"This immortal abode is extremely wondrous, and it's not inferior to the Yao clan's true dragon Hall. Moreover, that kid first refined a nine-Dragon coffin, and then he obtained a piece of fate true gold, so he probably refined it as well. I'm afraid only the eldest young master of the heavens can compete with the toughness of this immortal abode among his peers."

A major power said.

His tone was filled with emotion.

It was already very rare for a celestial cave to be able to fuse one divine material into it, but this kid actually refined two divine materials into it. He was really a bit abnormal!

Moreover, this kid was only at the 5th tribulation. When he reached the 6th tribulation, the 7th tribulation ... The immortal mansion would become even more powerful. At that time, it would not be impossible for the power of the immortal mansion to be on par with a supreme weapon.

“Hmph! It was nothing more than this! You haven’t improved at all!”

Tang Hao snorted coldly. He raised his hand and called back immortal mansion.

Then, he turned his eyes to the genius of the Jiang clan. With a thought, he smashed the immortal mansion toward him.

Jiang jingchen’s expression changed drastically as he looked at the immortal mansion with a hint of fear in his eyes.

He didn’t dare to take out the immortal mansion to fight the opponent head-on. Instead, he took out a battle spear and activated the godly armor on his body to meet the immortal mansion that was coming down on him.

Clang!

The sound of metal clashing rang out.

The immortal mansion shook and was stopped by his spear.

However, the next moment, a figure appeared in front of him. The figure was wearing a white robe and holding a golden spear in his hand. A Dragon Soul coiled around the spear and let out an earth-shaking roar.

Stab!

The spear light was like lightning, tearing through the air.

Jiang jingchen was shocked and raised his spear to block.

Clang!

There was a loud explosion.

Then, a muffled groan was heard. The Jiang family’s genius trembled and was sent flying backward.

Before he could stop, his opponent attacked again. The Spear’s light was like a storm, madly covering him, hitting him so hard that he fell back and couldn’t help but spit blood.

Clang!

Another hit.

He spat out a mouthful of blood and was sent flying.

“This gun is not bad, you’ll waste it!”

Tang Hao closed in on him. He struck out with the great black sky hand and sent him flying again. Then, he raised his hand and grabbed the spear, putting it into his pocket.
