

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1912

“My gun ... What are you doing?” he asked.

Jiang jingchen was both anxious and angry.

“Little Tang, what are you doing?!”

The Jiang clan’s mighty figure was also getting anxious.

That was an Emperor weapon, left behind by an ancestor of the Jiang clan. Even the Jiang clan did not have many of such treasures.

“What do you mean by your gun? from now on, this is mine!”

Tang Hao rolled his eyes. He swiped the gun and wiped the mark off the gun, then put it into his pocket.

He had two Emperor weapons, one spear and one spear. He was not lacking in them, but the gate of fortune was!

He had refined so many creation divine pills and trained a group of demons. No matter what, he had to be armed. Today, these demons had brought so many treasures. If he didn’t grab a few, he would be letting himself down.

“You ... You little bastard!”

“Wayaya! I’m going to kill you!”

The Jiang family’s elders shouted in anger.

They gritted their teeth. They wanted nothing more than to destroy this little Rascal’s soul and spirit. However, they held back. If they attacked now, they would give the old demon Xue an excuse to deal with the Jiang family.

“You little rascal, just you wait!”

“I’ll leave this spear with you for now. The Jiang family will get it back sooner or later!”

They began to clamor, but their expressions were somewhat disdainful.

This time, the Jiang clan had suffered a great loss.

Tang Hao ignored them. He turned around and rushed to his next target. He attacked with all his might. The divine spear of heaven reverse in his hand shot out like a dragon. The immortal abode above his head crashed down. All kinds of flames of the way and spells were activated at the same time.

Under the crushing pressure of absolute strength, that monster only lasted for a few breaths of time before he was defeated and sent flying.

“This battle armor ... Is mine!”

Tang Hao removed the armor and put it into his pocket.

“You little brat, you dare!”

Angry curses could be heard from the side.

On a large ship, a few old men were blowing at their beards and glaring at each other. It was a good thing they didn't faint from anger.

“This kid ... Is too ruthless!”

“It's completely overwhelming!”

Seeing this, all the cultivators around were shocked.

This guy's strength had completely crushed all the geniuses. What shocked them even more was this guy's boldness. He even dared to snatch the Emperor weapons of the various great clans.

“He's really a little devil. He's lawless!”

Everyone sighed.

“What are you waiting for? let's attack together and kill this demon!”

Someone among the many geniuses roared.

Then, the group of geniuses attacked at the same time and attacked the figure.

“Good!”

Tang Hao was not afraid at all. Instead, he was excited. The immortal essence in his body surged and surged toward the spear in his hand.

Weng Weng Weng!

The divine spear of heaven reverse trembled violently and exploded with divine light. A Dragon's Roar was heard.

“Go!”

He shouted and threw the divine spear in his hand.

Whoosh!

The divine spear turned into a beam of light and pierced through the sky.

Wherever it went, balls of divine light and tribulation weapons were blasted away.

This spear was invincible!

With a few muffled groans, a few of the geniuses trembled and their faces turned pale.

“Again!”

“Go!” Tang Hao shouted. The great flame spear appeared in his hand. He threw it out again.

Pfft! Pfft!

A few more geniuses were sent flying by him.

With the immortal mansion above his head, he stepped forward and smashed the immortal mansion from time to time, blasting away the evildoers. From time to time, he raised his hand and drew in divine light, which were all the treasures on the evildoers.

The surrounding seas were deathly silent.

All the cultivators were silent, their expressions ugly.

He, the monstrous Pangu genius, was defeated once again. Hundreds of geniuses couldn't even stop him! It was truly humiliating!

“This kid's spirit is shocking, and he has an invincible aura!”

“The human race has produced such a character!”

The ancient beasts were also shocked.

They had all heard of how powerful this young man was, but they had never seen him with their own eyes. Many of them had thought that the rumors were exaggerated, but now that they had seen him, they knew that the rumors were true.

What surprised them even more was that this child was born in the lower realm. To be able to walk step by step to his current realm with such a background, this child deserved the title of an unrivaled hero.

“Is there anyone else?”

After sending the last person flying, Tang Hao stood in the air with the immortal abode above his head. His eyes were like cold lightning as he scanned his surroundings.

For a time, the surroundings were deathly silent, and no one responded.

Those evildoers who were swept by him all retreated with fear on their faces.

“I’m afraid no one in the various races can suppress him. The only ones who can suppress him are those few heavenly monsters!”

“This kid is already at the 5th tribulation. I think in at most 10 years, he will cross the 6th tribulation and be on par with us!”

The group of 6th tribulation experts discussed in low voices.

There was a touch of emotion in their words.

Many of them had a grudge against this young man, but they had to admit that he was indeed powerful.

“Since there’s no one else, I won’t keep you company! Let’s go!”

Tang Hao flicked his sleeve, turned around, and flew toward the gate of Fortune’s group. Then, they boarded the warship together, tore open the void, and left.

After they left, the crowd burst into an uproar.

No one would have thought that the hunting of the auspicious beast would end up like this.

They could already foresee that once the news spread, the entire Pangu continent would be shaken again.

“Hmph! This kid ... Is quite impressive!”

“I didn’t expect that his cultivation base would have such a huge improvement!”

On a large ship in the crowd, the Yao clan elders had extremely gloomy expressions.

“Alright! We’ll let this kid be cool for a while. The more cool he is now, the worse he’ll fall in the future!”

“That’s right, the more impressive this kid is and the more treasures he has, the better it will be. At that time, it will all benefit us! When we get his alchemy God token, our ancestor will become an alchemy God. Our Yao clan will become the number one force in alchemy and one of the top forces in Pangu. ”

They snorted coldly before steering the ship away.

As these xiuzhe left, what happened in the East Ocean quickly spread everywhere and caused another sensation.

“It’s that Tang guy again!”

“Why is it him again?”

Everyone was shocked.

He thought that only a few top-notch families would be able to snatch the auspicious beast, but he didn't expect that it would be taken by that kid surnamed Tang in the end.

Moreover, the man surnamed Tang had once again fought against many monstrous talents and won with overwhelming strength, which was also unexpected to the world.

Because of this news, all the places in the eight desolate regions were in an uproar.

In the mountain range of fortune, a crack appeared in the void, and Tang Hao and the others emerged.

Tang Hao went to see Zao huaizi as soon as he landed.

He took out a few of the treasures he had seized and gave them to the creation boy, asking him to distribute them to those evildoers who had been transformed into creation bodies. Then, he returned to the cave dwelling and began to deal with the auspicious beast.

The auspicious beast had died in the pot a long time ago, which saved Tang Hao some effort. He dismembered the beast's body. He did not dare to waste a drop of blood or a single hair. Nothing on the auspicious beast was useless.

He would use the flesh and blood and inner core to make elixirs for sister Xiangyi to advance to the 5th tribulation. As for the bones and horns, he would keep them for himself. If he were to use them to make formations or weapons in the future, he would need them.
