

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1920

"I see!" Tang Hao said.

He was slightly surprised. In the blink of an eye, only a few years had passed, and Kun Lun had developed to such a level. This was truly out of his expectations.

"It seems that the Taoist priest and the others have done a good job!" Tang Hao said with a smile.

"Hey! You young man, what are you mumbling about? go back and study hard so that you can get in next year!" The old man shouted.

Tang Hao returned the book and waved his hand. "Uncle, I'll pass. I'm too old!"

"Hey! You're pretty self-aware!"

The old man said.

Tang Hao smiled but did not reply. He glanced at the group of boys and girls behind him and said, "These kids have pretty good aptitudes!"

"You don't need to say that!" The old man shouted.

"How about this! It's fate that we've met. I'll give you an opportunity. This token is for you! I hope that after you enter the academy, you will study hard and improve every day!"

As Tang Hao spoke, he looked at the group of boys and girls. He waved his hand, and a wooden tablet flew out.

The old man was startled and almost laughed out loud. "Young man, you're quite arrogant. What fate? you're pretending to be a senior!"

"What kind of stupid token is this? It's useless!"

The old man looked at the token flying towards him with even more disdain. From this guy's tone, it was as if they would be able to enter Kun Lun Academy smoothly with this token. What kind of joke was this? Kun Lun wasn't opened by his family. He couldn't enter just because he said so!

As he thought of this, the token flew over and was caught in his hand.

When he looked at it, he was stunned. This was not a token, but a broken wooden token. However, there was a big "Hao" character engraved on it.

He wanted to sneer, but when his eyes fell on the word 'Hao', he could not look away.

This word seemed to have magic, attracting his gaze.

"This word ... It's extraordinary!"

He immediately realized it.

This wooden token might be a piece of trash, but this word was definitely written by a powerful person.

“This is ...?”

He raised his head and was about to ask about the origin of this token, but when he looked, the boy’s figure was nowhere to be seen.

“Eh? Where is he?”

He said in surprise.

He was stunned for a while. He looked down at the token in his hand and his expression became serious.

He realized that the young man just now was not an ordinary person. He was afraid that he was an old monster!

“Hao! Don’t tell me ... It could be him?”

Looking at the word ‘Hao’, the old man suddenly had a bold idea.

“Woof! How was this possible? What sort of person is he? how could I just so happen to run into him? in addition, he hasn’t appeared in many years. It’s said that he went to the 33 heavens, so how could he possibly appear here?”

Very quickly, he smiled and rejected the idea.

He did not dare to believe that such a shocking figure would appear in front of him and even chat with him.

“No matter what, this token should belong to that Big Shot, haha! I’m rich now! Let’s go, let’s hurry and find Kun Lun’s people!”

Then, he held the token in his hands and was ecstatic.

Meanwhile, Tang Hao had already torn open the void and arrived near heaven’s equal mountain range.

He didn’t disturb anyone. He entered the mountain and walked around.

It seemed that the heaven-equal courtyard had not changed much.

“Which fellow Daoist has arrived!!

When he released a trace of his aura, someone noticed it. A figure rushed over and appeared in front of Tang Hao. It was the old Daoist Qingzhu.

“Senior Qing Zhu, long time no see!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands and smiled.

“You’re ... Tang kid?”

Daoist Qingzhu was stunned and could not believe his eyes.

“It’s me! I’m back!” Tang Hao said.

“Is it really you? Why did you come back? How come I can’t see your cultivation level at all? you’re ... At the 3rd tribulation? It wasn’t? No way! Don’t tell me it’s the fourth tribulation?” Daoist Qingzhu walked up to him excitedly. He circled Tang Hao and sized him up.

“Fifth tribulation! It’s perfect!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“I ... F * ck!”

Daoist Qingzhu was dumbfounded.

“You little rascal ... You really scared me to death!” After a while, he came back to his senses and said with a bitter smile.

“Let’s go, let’s go. I’ll take you to that old man Qi Tian. He’s still in seclusion and is about to break through to the second tribulation. He’ll definitely be very happy to hear that you’re back!”

“Hahaha! Not bad, kid! I thought that you would be bullied when you went to the thirty-three heavens. I didn’t expect that you would have completed five tribulations so quickly. You must be doing well!”

“How’s the situation over there? Are there a lot of powerful people?”

Along the way, Daoist Qingzhu kept nagging.

“The heavenly Academy hasn’t changed much over the years, but your Kunlun Sect is really amazing. It’s been flourishing and developing from the nine gates star field. In just a few years, it’s spread all over the Donglin astral, and your Kunlun people are everywhere.”

“I’ve seen those Taoist masters, and they’re all talented! They’re very smart, and their strength isn’t bad either. A few of them have already advanced to the sage realm!”

“So fast?”

Tang Hao was a little surprised. When he left, the Taoist priest and the others were still at the late-stage immortal realm. Even though they all had the minor creation divine body, it was not easy for them to reach the sage realm.

“Yeah! I’m also a bit surprised. How can it be so easy to advance to the sage realm?” Daoist Qingzhu asked in bewilderment.

Tang Hao chatted with the headmaster for a long time before he left Donglin. He left many things behind.

He left planet Dong Ling and headed straight for the nine gates Galaxy.

After a few years of development, the Kunlun Sect had spread all over the Dong Lin astral, but their base camp was still in the nine gates Starfield.

As he approached the nine gate star field, on the giant gate star, on a towering mountain, a stone sculpture suddenly trembled. Ka-la! The stone sculpture cracked open, revealing a golden figure.

His eyes were like a torch, piercing into the sky, crossing the vast Galaxy, and seeing the shooting star that was rapidly approaching.

“He ... He’s back!”

He stood up and muttered.

Soon, the Dao Bell rang in the mountain range, shaking the sky.

“What’s going on?”

“It’s the peak! The Guardian is awake!”

Countless figures rushed up from all directions of the mountain range. All of their gazes were fixed on the peak of the mountain.

That was where he, the protector of Kun Lun, was stationed.

“He’s back!”

Just as everyone was at a loss, a shocking piece of news spread, causing the entire Mountain Gate to be in an uproar.

“Fellow Daoist, you’re finally back!”

When Tang Hao descended from the starry sky, before he could even enter planet jumen, a ray of golden light flashed past. A figure that looked exactly like him appeared in front of him. The only difference was that the figure was completely golden.

“I’m back!”

Tang Hao nodded, then glanced at him. “Not bad, the fourth tribulation!”

“I can’t even compare to you, fellow Daoist!” The clone laughed.

“Here! I prepared this for you!” Tang Hao waved his hand, and a ring flew out. It was filled with the treasures he had prepared for the clone.

“Not bad!”

The clone took the ring and opened it with a smile.

Then, he raised his hand and grabbed. Rays of light flew out and attached to his body, turning into a golden armor. Then, a long spear flew out and landed in his hand.

“This spear isn’t as convenient as an iron rod, but it’s not bad either. I like it!”

The clone laughed and quickly refined the two treasures.

“A bird gun for a cannon!” He played with it for a moment and said in great joy.

Then, he opened his mouth and inhaled. Countless rays of light flew out from the ring and he swallowed them all. They were all medicinal pills prepared by Tang Hao. Many of them were refined from the blood and flesh of the auspicious beast. They were Supreme-grade nourishing pills.

After the elixir entered his stomach, the clone’s body burst out with a shocking brilliance. His aura began to rise sharply, quickly rising from the early stage of the fourth tribulation to the middle stage, and then to the late stage.

In just a short while, he had reached the peak of the fourth tribulation.

Then, he broke through to the fifth tribulation without any obstacles.

For the magical heaven and earth origin embryo, there were no cultivation obstacles at all. As long as there were enough resources, it would not be a problem to become a saint or a Supreme Being in one step.

It rose all the way to the late stage of the fifth tribulation before it stopped.

“Is there any more?”

The clone was still unsatisfied.

“No more!” Tang Hao said with a bitter smile.

“What a pity! Just a little bit more and I’ll be like you, perfect!” The clone said regretfully.

“No rush! This time, you’re coming with me!” Tang Hao said.

His main purpose in coming here was to obtain this clone, which was his strongest technique. No supreme weapon could compare to this clone.

“Good! I’m also tired of staying here, so it’s a good time to go to the upper realm and make an attempt. Together, we’ll turn the world upside down!”

The doppelganger waved his spear and laughed.

“Let’s go! I’ll go down and take a look!”

Tang Hao lowered his body and plunged downward.

The origin core avatar nodded. His body flickered, and he transformed into a beam of golden light that entered Tang Hao’s body.
