

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1929

The lake was quiet.

Everyone was focused on comprehending the Dao.

In the corner of the Dao Lake, a white-robed elder opened his eyes, a dazed look on his face.

His mind was still immersed in the cycle of reincarnation.

After a long while, he heaved a long sigh and came back to his senses.

“I’ve been sitting here for more than two months. I’ve reincarnated for ten thousand lifetimes and have gained many new insights. Not bad!”

He calculated and nodded in satisfaction.

Reincarnating ten thousand times in two months, this efficiency was quite high.

“Let’s change the location first!”

Then, he stood up and prepared to change his position for enlightenment.

“Eh? Where is that fellow from the Qin clan?”

When he stood up, he noticed that the place where the Qin clan’s elder was originally sitting was now empty.

“They’ve changed their seats!”

He didn’t care too much about it.

He rolled up his sleeves and walked toward the center of the lake, preparing to find a good place to sit down and continue his enlightenment.

“Good fellow! He had already comprehended a Dao pattern. Although it was a little faint, once the Dao pattern appeared, he was not far from large success. But it’s true, he’s been sitting there for decades, it’s about time!”

“This guy’s Dao pattern seems to be more obvious. I remember that he has been here for over 40 years. It’s not easy!”

As he walked, his gaze swept across the figures on the lake.

“If I were to comprehend for a few decades, I should be able to comprehend Dao patterns like them! Once I master the reincarnation Dao, my strength will increase by several folds. At that time, my status in the clan will rise by a few more ranks.”

He pondered and felt very happy.

A sixth tribulation that had mastered the Supreme great Dao was completely different from an ordinary sixth tribulation.

The former was more powerful and more respected by the others.

There were quite a few 6th tribulation cultivators in the Crow Tribe. With his current strength, he was only ranked in the middle. However, once he comprehended the reincarnation great Dao, his status would soar and he would enter the upper reaches, becoming the true core of the Crow Tribe.

“Eh? Isn’t that that fellow from the Qin clan?”

As he pondered, he suddenly caught a glimpse of a familiar figure from the corner of his eye. Not far away, the figure was sitting cross-legged and in the midst of enlightenment.

“So you’ve run here!”

He muttered.

He didn’t pay much attention to it and was about to turn around. However, in the next moment, he was stunned. His eyes instantly froze, and then his eyes widened, revealing a strong look of disbelief.

“Are my eyes playing tricks on me?”

In a daze, he raised his hand and rubbed his eyes hard, suspecting that he was seeing things!

However, when he looked at it again, he was stunned.

He was not wrong!

Everything in front of him was real.

Around the body of the Qin clan’s elder, there were circles of Dao patterns appearing. Also, they weren’t the very faint ones. They were the extremely conspicuous ones. They were golden and bright, as if they were corporeal.

Each of the Dao patterns exuded an astonishing reincarnation aura.

This also meant that he was already close to the great completion!

But how was that possible?

He remembered clearly that this guy had only been here for two months. What could he have comprehended in two months?

Even if this guy’s Dao pattern had just appeared two months ago and he had cultivated to the small success realm, it was only two months, and it was far from enough to reach the large success realm!

It would take at least a few years to go from small success to great success!

Moreover, he had noticed that when this guy had just started to comprehend the Dao, there wasn't a single Dao pattern on his body. However, after only two months, not only did he have Dao patterns, but he was also about to attain major accomplishment.

This speed was simply impossible!

However, the reincarnation Dao pattern on this guy's body was not fake.

This fellow from the Qin clan really only spent two months to comprehend the great Dao of Samsara to a stage close to large success.

This speed was terrifying!

"This guy ... Is a complete monster!"

The Raven elder groaned, his scalp tingling.

In two months, his reincarnation doctrine was close to completion!

This speed was too shocking, and it was completely unheard of.

One must know that he had heard that the fastest person to comprehend the reincarnation doctrine here would take at least ten years. However, this fellow had only been here for two months.

If he had not seen it with his own eyes, he would not have believed it.

"The Qin clan ... When did such a monster appear?"

He stared at the figure, his heart in turmoil.

For a moment, he completely forgot that he still had to comprehend the Dao. He just stood there and looked at it.

The more he looked, the more shocked he was.

In just a short while, the reincarnation aura on this guy's body had an obvious change. It grew a lot, and the Dao patterns around his body were increasing at a speed that was visible to the naked eye, spreading in all directions.

"This speed ..."

He couldn't help but draw in a cold breath, his heart incomparably shocked.

"Fellow Daoist Wu!"

After an unknown amount of time, a xiuzhe at the side stood up. When he saw him, he cupped his hands and called out.

“Daoist Wu, what’s wrong?”

He asked again after seeing the crow elder’s expression.

“There’s ... There’s a pervert!”

The Crow Tribe elder swallowed hard and said in a hoarse voice.

“Perverted?” The cultivator laughed, thinking that elder Wu was joking. However, when he turned around and followed the crow elder’s gaze, he was stunned.

“Good fellow! It’s about to reach great success! No, who was this guy? How come I’ve never seen him before?”

“He’s ... A newcomer!”

“New? When did he arrive? Why is it about to reach great success?”

“Two ... Two months ago!” He said.

“Two months? Hahaha! Are you kidding me? how is that possible?”

“It’s true. Two months ago, this guy didn’t even reach the initial success stage. Moreover, he’s only at the fifth tribulation. This is the first great Dao he has comprehended!” The crow elder said solemnly.

“This ...”

The xiuzhe was dumbfounded. His mouth was wide open and he was shocked speechless.

Then, he widened his eyes and looked at the figure in horror.

The two of them just stood there and watched.

“At this rate, I’ll be able to achieve great success in a few days!”

“I think at most five or six days!”

They were also guessing that it would take a few more days for this person to achieve phenomenal success.

Very quickly, another xiuzhe noticed the situation here. They asked casually and were shocked to the point of being tongue-tied.

“Where did this monster come from?”

“Qin clan? Where did the Qin clan get such a freak! From what I know, there’s no such fellow among the five tribulations of the Qin clan!”

Apart from shock, they were even more confused.

A few of them came from the spiritual wilderness and were very familiar with the Qin clan. However, they had never heard of such a character among the 5th tribulation elders of the Qin clan!

The commotion quickly spread. The originally calm reincarnation Lake became lively. More and more cultivators were alarmed. Many of them had sat there for more than ten years and had not moved for decades.

Now, they were all shocked by such a monster!
