

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1937

Bang Bang!

After exchanging a few more punches, young master Taixu's figure flashed and he used the force to retreat. His opponent's physical body was strong and was on par with his. He had to pull away and win with his spells.

"Have a taste of the mantras of the great void heaven!"

He shouted and pointed forward.

In an instant, a giant golden finger appeared, shining with a dazzling divine light. Countless complicated and mysterious symbols curled around it.

"That's the great void divine finger! The absolute art of the great void heaven!"

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

The great void divine finger was well-known among Pangu. In the hands of a half step to the 6th tribulation like young master Taixu, it was even more powerful.

As he pointed his finger out, the void seemed to be unable to withstand it and was about to shatter.

"What technique? I'll break it with one punch!"

Tang Hao was not afraid. He roared and threw a punch.

With this punch, true fire gushed out and turned into a Dragon of fire, which wrapped around his arm.

BOOM!

A deafening explosion.

The punch landed on the giant golden finger.

The giant finger paused and then exploded.

Tang Hao continued to charge toward young master Taixu with his remaining power.

Young master Taixu's expression changed slightly. He pointed his finger again, and another great void divine finger appeared.

Then, he struck out with his palm again. A huge Golden Palm print appeared and pressed down with the power to cover the sky.

He kept attacking, and in an instant, he had used more than ten different techniques. Giant fingers and palms pressed down on Tang Hao from all directions like the handprints of a God.

Then, as his spiritual will changed, monstrous flames, water waves, and wind were continuously produced.

The fire was not an ordinary Dao fire, but a true fire.

The great void Heavenly Fire that was passed down from the ancient times!

The water was not ordinary water. It was the famous Spirit Water.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

His eyes flickered and countless golden sword lights rushed out of his eyes. They turned into a Golden Dragon and bit down.

In a short while, he used dozens of different Taoist skills. He bombarded Tang Hao with all kinds of attacks.

Every single Dao technique was top-notch and extremely powerful.

Cultivators of the same level might find it hard to even receive one.

Tang Hao spread his fingers and thrust a palm toward the sky.

In an instant, a pitch-black palm that covered the sky appeared and met the attack.

Then, with his fastest speed, he struck out a dozen times. A dozen giant palms that covered the sky appeared one after another and collided with the light that poured down.

“All of you, break!”

“Die!” Tang Hao screamed. The vertical eye on his forehead opened and shot out a beam of destructive divine light.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The divine arts and Dao techniques of the two of them continued to clash, causing balls of bright light to explode. The loud sounds shook the heavens and earth, shaking everyone’s minds.

Everyone held their breath as they watched the battle between the two geniuses nervously.

The intense and dazzling battle on the stage made them a little intoxicated, and their minds were extremely excited.

“In terms of divine arts and spells, the two of them are almost equal!”

In the sky, the faces of all the seven tribulations cultivators were extremely serious.

The direction of this battle had completely exceeded their expectations.

According to their judgment, there should have been no suspense in this battle. In at most 15 minutes, the kid surnamed Tang would be defeated and might even be killed by young master Taixu.

However, from the very beginning, an accident had occurred.

A 6th tribulation heaven and earth origin core avatar shocked everyone.

Then, the two of them fought with their physical bodies, and they were evenly matched.

One had the God spirit bone, while the other had refined seven Saint bones with a secret technique. Both of their bodies were extremely powerful.

Now, the battle of divine arts, paths, and skills was actually evenly matched.

This was even more shocking than when they fought with their bodies.

That was because young master Taixu had the divine eye of the source of the Dao and had also inherited the true teachings of the great void sect. In terms of mantras and abhijnas, he should be stronger than that kid.

“That kid ... Might have a creation divine body!”

“That should be it. I heard that when he joined the creation gate, he took out the recipe for the creation divine pill. He must have obtained a creation divine pill!”

“The creation divine body can increase the power of his spells by several times. This also explains why he can compete with young master Taixu in terms of spells.”

The Group of Seven tribulations discussed.

In the fighting ring, the two of them exchanged blows for a while before stopping.

Tang Hao stood there with his hands behind his back, looking calm and composed.

Young master Taixu’s expression turned ugly.

He had thought that he could win easily. But now, the battle had reached such a stage. To him and the great void heaven, this was undoubtedly a humiliation.

“I admit that I underestimated you before!” Young master Taixu said, “however, you are still not my match!”

After he finished speaking, golden patterns spread out from his body and turned into mysterious and complicated Dao patterns.

Dao patterns continued to spread, and more and more of them occupied half the stage.

A golden divine wheel gradually appeared above his head.

When the divine wheel appeared, the void around them froze. The flowing air and the flying dust all stopped.

Around him, everything had stopped. Only the Dao pattern was still moving and spreading out.

“That ‘s...The immortal time wheel!”

“The strongest abhijna of the great void heaven, the Dao Law of Time, has appeared!”

All the cultivators ‘expressions changed.

Among all the Supreme great DAOs, the great Dao of time was an extremely powerful existence. It was extremely difficult to comprehend, and among the many forces in Pangu world, only the great void heaven had the inheritance of this great Dao.

“This battle is about to end!”

“Once the Dao law is out, what will that kid use to fight! Even if he uses a supreme weapon, it’s useless. He has a supreme weapon, and so does young master Taixu. In a battle between top geniuses, a supreme weapon is of no use. ”

All the seven tribulations said.

If it was a life-and-death battle between ordinary cultivators, treasures were very important, and all means had to be used. However, it was a public battle between these monsters, so it was different. For them, tribulation weapons were all external objects.

Moreover, both of them had Supreme weapons, so it didn’t matter if they used them or not.

If he were to use his supreme weapon, young master Taixu might still have the upper hand. After all, he had many treasures in the great void heaven, and he had more Supreme weapons, which made him stronger.

Without the use of a supreme weapon, this was the decisive blow.

In the face of such a powerful technique like the Dao Law of Time, that brat surnamed Tang simply had no means of resisting. He was bound to lose!

Everyone realized this as well. They all held their breaths, their hearts in their throats.

“Die! Die!”

Sir God Wu Ling clenched his fist and mumbled.

He couldn’t wait for the kid to be unable to resist and be killed by the divine Wheel of Time.

Of course, he also knew that the possibility of this happening was very small. After all, that kid still had the Supreme armor. No matter how bad it was, he could still escape with his life.

Right now, young master Taixu no longer had an overwhelming advantage over that kid. At this level, it would be very difficult to kill an opponent without an overwhelming advantage.

But one thing was for sure, that kid was going to lose!

At this moment, hundreds of millions of eyes in the void all around were focused on the white-robed figure standing on the stage.

To their surprise, there was no trace of panic on this young man's face. There was not even a trace of solemnness. He was still so relaxed.

He ... Could it be that he still had a trump card?

Many people had the same thought.

However, what kind of trump card could he have?

A supreme weapon? that was obviously impossible. If he used a supreme weapon, young master Taixu would use it as well. He would not be able to gain any advantage.

Just as everyone was in shock, a clear voice came from the fighting ring.

"The Dao Law of Time? It's not bad. I wonder if it's stronger than my Dao law of reincarnation!"

When everyone heard this, they were all stunned.

Dao law ... Of reincarnation?

When did he achieve great Dao and comprehend Dao laws?

And it was a Supreme great Dao like the reincarnation great Dao?

"Impossible!"

"It must be fake!"

Everyone couldn't help but exclaim.

He had clearly advanced to the peak of the fifth tribulation not long ago. How could he have comprehended a Dao law?

"The Dao law of reincarnation? Whoosh!"

Young master Taixu was taken aback at first, but then he broke into laughter.

Everyone knew that it was very difficult to comprehend a Dao law, and it would easily take hundreds of years. Even someone as monstrous as him, who had a pair of daosource divine eyes, had spent several years to comprehend the great Dao of time.

They were both great DAOs of supremacy, but even if this fellow could comprehend a Dao law, it would still take years of effort.

It had only been a few months since he had completed the 5th tribulation and it had not even been a year since he advanced to the 5th tribulation.

Under such circumstances, how could he possibly comprehend a Dao law?

If this wasn't a joke, then what was?!

However, after a few laughs, he stopped abruptly, and his face instantly froze.

The cultivators of the four sides were like him, their smiles frozen and their faces dazed.

Under everyone's dumbfounded gaze, golden patterns appeared on the young man in white's body. They continued to spread out and occupied half of the fighting ring. An ancient river as bright as the Milky Way appeared above his head.

The surroundings suddenly fell silent.

There was not even the slightest sound of wind in this vast world. It was so quiet that it was somewhat terrifying.
