

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1940

In the blink of an eye, half a month had passed.

The waves caused by the battle at the ancient deity plateau had yet to calm down.

In all parts of Pangu, people were still talking about it.

“After half a step to the sixth tribulation, it’s the Tribulation of Dao. Ordinary saints need a few years to prepare, but he’s so monstrous. I think he’ll have to cross the Tribulation soon!”

“It’s hard to predict what will happen once he passes the Tribulation!”

“That’s right! No matter how monstrous he is, he is still a member of the younger generation. Among the 6th tribulation, there are many old monsters who are more powerful than him. Once he advances to the 6th tribulation, these old monsters will have nothing to worry about!”

“I heard that many old monsters have taken action recently. Many sixth tribulation old monsters who have disappeared for many years have also appeared. Obviously, they are here for that kid!”

“Hey! There’s nothing we can do about it. That kid has too many treasures on him. Two Supreme artifacts and so many Emperor artifacts. Who wouldn’t be envious? those clans are also grinding their blades, waiting for that kid to advance to the 6th tribulation.”

The world began to discuss when that brat surnamed Tang would undergo his tribulation.

Now, that kid was half a step to the 6th tribulation realm and had reached the peak of the 5th tribulation realm. With two Supreme weapons in his hands, he had shocked Pangu for a while with the remaining power after defeating young master Taixu.

No matter if it was the younger generation or the old monsters of the five tribulations, none of them were his match.

In the 5th tribulation, he was invincible.

Because of the protection of old demon Xue, no one in the sixth tribulation dared to attack him. Therefore, even if the boy had enemies all over the world, he was not in any danger of dying.

However, the situation would be completely different once he advanced to the 6th tribulation.

Those old monsters of the 6th tribulation would not be able to hold back and attack.

The 6th tribulation was completely different from the 5th tribulation. The 5th tribulation had a peak. At most, one could comprehend Dao laws, which were half a step to the 6th tribulation. However, at the 6th tribulation, after one’s cultivation reached perfection, one could comprehend even more Dao laws to improve their cultivation.

The more Dao laws one comprehended, the more powerful one would be.

The lifespans of 6th tribulations were extremely long. Many of them had lived for thousands of years and had comprehended countless Dao laws.

In this realm, it could be said that there were crouching tigers and hidden dragons.

That brat had just advanced, so he was definitely not a match for these old monsters.

And because of the treasures on his body, this kid was a hot commodity in the eyes of many old monsters. They had long been eyeing him covetously.

The same wind could be heard all over Pangu.

Many of them were itinerant cultivators and old monsters, as well as those from great clans.

The great void heaven, on the other hand, did not react at all. Ever since the battle at the ancient deity plateau, it had remained silent.

But everyone felt that the great void heaven would definitely not let this matter rest. Young master Taixu would definitely make a comeback and wipe away the humiliation of the ancient deity plateau.

While the undercurrents in the outside world were raging, the gate of fortune was unusually calm.

Tang Hao finally came out of seclusion after more than ten days.

In the battle of the ancient deity plateau, he had expended a lot of his celestial core power and also burned a lot of his blood essence. At the end of the battle, he was like a lamp without oil.

If young master Taixu still had some tricks up his sleeve, he would have been the one to lose if he had held on for a little longer.

In the past half a month, he had been recuperating and recovering.

After taking a large number of elixirs, he had finally recovered to a good extent.

“That young master Taixu is a little difficult to deal with!”

He mumbled to himself, feeling a little lucky.

At the crucial moment, the Nirvana Sutra had played a huge role.

“It was a wise choice to exchange for this Taoist Scripture!” Tang Hao grinned.

On his path of cultivation, this “Nirvana Sutra” had helped him several times. If he had not exchanged for this Daoist Sutra in the great void realm, he would definitely not have been able to reach where he was today.

“I’ll refine some more medicinal pills and consume them. I’ll probably be able to recover completely!”

Tang Hao checked his body's condition and relaxed.

"I wonder what's the situation outside?"

He mumbled to himself and closed his eyes. Soon, countless pieces of information were gathered in his mind through his avatars. They flashed before his eyes like snowflakes.

In just a quarter of an hour, he had read all the news from the outside world during this period of time and understood it in his heart.

"This Dao tribulation has to be overcome, and it has to be done as soon as possible!"

Young master Taixu was not dead, and their current strength was very similar. If he overcame his tribulation late, he would fall behind young master Taixu, which was very dangerous. He had to improve his strength as soon as possible and surpass his opponent.

Moreover, he couldn't stop here just because he was afraid of those old monsters.

On the contrary, he had to pass the Tribulation as quickly as possible to increase his cultivation and shorten the gap between him and those old monsters.

At that time, if they dared to come, he would kill one if one came. If two came, he would kill a pair. Only then could he intimidate all the cultivators in the world.

"To pass the Tribulation of Dao, one has to withstand 81 bolts of lightning, which is more terrifying than the Tribulation of the Holy realm. Ordinary saints don't dare to pass the Tribulation easily. But I have the Supreme armor, and my body and primordial spirit are stronger than ordinary fifth tribulation saints. It won't be difficult for me to pass the Tribulation!"

"However, I still have to wait for my condition to fully recover before I can pass the Tribulation!"

"I also need to prepare some pills in case of any accidents during the Tribulation!"

Tang Hao thought for a while and came up with a plan.

He summoned his pill cauldron and began to refine pills.

In the blink of an eye, another ten days had passed.

Tang Hao had finally recovered. He stepped out of the cave and flew to the top of the peak.

"Today, I'm going to undergo the Tribulation!"

Master fortune flew out of the hall and was shocked when he heard this. "Why the hurry? You're crossing today?"

"That's right! I'll cross it today, the faster the better!"

Tang Hao said.

“This ...” After hesitating for a while, master creation revealed a worried look. “The situation is not good. There are eyes everywhere in the creation gate. They are watching. You can’t hide from them if you want to transcend the Tribulation.”

“I know!” Tang Hao said, “that’s why I have to be quick! I’ll cross it today!”

“Then ... Are you confident?”

Said Zao Huazi hesitantly.

Tang Hao nodded.

“Where do we cross?”

Zao Huazi asked again.

“It should be near the mountain range of fortune!” Tang Hao said.

“Alright!”

After hesitating for a long time, Zao huazi finally nodded his head.

“There’s no time to waste, let’s start!”

Then, Tang Hao’s figure flashed and he appeared in a corner of the mountain range of fortune.

He stepped into the void, and with a flash of light above his head, the immortal abode rushed into the sky. It expanded in the wind and turned into a huge Palace in the sky.

Golden Dao patterns appeared on every brick and tile of this gods ‘Palace, exuding a strong reincarnation aura.

Above the palace, there was a resplendent ancient river that was faintly visible.

Tang Hao took a deep breath and activated the power of the Dao law. When he activated the power of the Dao law to the extreme, the wind and clouds in the sky began to change. Strong winds rose and dark clouds rolled. The entire world instantly turned into night.

In the rolling dark clouds, golden lightning began to flash.

Little by little, the number of lightning bolts increased and gradually covered the entire sky.

A vast heavenly might gradually spread out and enveloped the entire area.
