

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1941

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The rumbling Thunder shook the earth.

In the pitch-black sky, golden lightning flashed. Each bolt was extremely thick, like a giant Golden Dragon. They shuttled between the clouds, exuding a terrifying pressure.

Everything within hundreds of thousands of miles was enveloped by this pressure.

On the ground, countless cultivators raised their heads and looked at the sky with fear.

“That’s ... Lightning tribulation! Another Saint is going through tribulation!”

They cried out in alarm.

It wasn’t rare for a Saint to pass a tribulation, and they were used to it. However, this tribulation was extraordinary. Its momentum was much more terrifying than ordinary lightning tribulations.

“This aura ... It’s Dao tribulation!”

“That direction seems to be the gate of fortune. Could it be ... That the demon is undergoing his tribulation?”

Many saints rushed into the sky and looked at the center of the Thunder tribulation with surprise.

The Dao tribulation was in the direction of the gate of fortune again. It was obvious that the demon surnamed Tang was going through his tribulation!

“That was fast!”

“Why is he transcending his tribulation now?!”

They were even more shocked.

The undercurrents in the entire Pangu world were surging around that kid, and countless eyes were watching him. How could he dare to cross the Tribulation now?

“It’s the gate of fortune! That’s right! That brat had transcended his tribulation! Hurry, hurry up and send out the news!”

“Hahaha! The day I’ve been waiting for has finally come!”

Around the gate of fortune, many people were overjoyed.

They had been hiding here for a long time, keeping an eye on the gate of fortune, waiting for this day to come.

Soon, news was sent out from their hands and back to their respective forces at the fastest speed.

Not long after, ripples appeared in the void near the mountain range of fortune. One could vaguely see figures inside. They did not show their faces. They hid in the void ripples and watched in the dark.

“I guessed it right. This kid will definitely cross the Tribulation as soon as possible. We didn’t wait here for so long in vain!”

“This kid ... Is too hateful! He’s ruined our clan’s plans time and time again, and even the divine Lotus body that our clan has painstakingly cultivated was almost destroyed by him. This child’s sins are too numerous to be recorded!”

“This kid is too monstrous. He must be killed. Once he grows up, he’ll definitely be the greatest enemy of our clan for the ages!”

A voice filled with killing intent came from the ripples in the void.

This group of people was the Yao clan’s Saints.

“This kid does deserve to die! We can’t let him grow. Even if we have to risk being exposed, we have to kill him today. ”

A middle-aged man stood in front of this group of people. He was dressed in green clothes and his appearance was a little ordinary. Moreover, he was different from the others. There was no Lotus imprint that was unique to the Yao clan between his brows.

There was no aura on his body, but the elders of the Yao family behind him were very respectful to him.

“According to what I know, many other large clans are also planning to do the same. During this period of time, I have also sensed that there are many people hiding in the void all around. Today, our Yao clan will not be the only one who will disrupt the situation.”

“As long as we are careful, no one will discover our identity. Even if that old demon blood wants to find trouble, he will not be able to find the Yao clan.”

The green-robed man said.

“Patriarch is right!”

The elders of the Yao family agreed.

“This kid is too anxious and too conceited. He actually dared to choose this time and place to undergo the Tribulation. Our Yao clan has ten thousand ways to make him die under the lightning tribulation. ”

The green-robed man glanced at the sky outside. The corners of his mouth twitched, and a hint of coldness appeared.

Normally, when a cultivator underwent a tribulation, once the lightning tribulation started, outsiders would not be able to get close. As long as one entered the area covered by the lightning tribulation, no matter how high one's cultivation was, they would be affected by the lightning tribulation and bombarded by the heavenly lightning.

Moreover, the higher one's cultivation was, the more terrifying the Tribulation lightning would be.

Therefore, very few people dared to interfere with others' tribulations.

However, this did not mean that there was no way. It was just a little troublesome, and a certain price had to be paid.

Each of the great clans had tens of thousands of years of Foundation, so they naturally did not lack such means.

Today, in order to kill this brat, even if the Yao clan had to pay a great price, it would still be worth it.

At this moment, in the void around the mountain range of fortune, a ripple appeared. A small Golden Pagoda appeared.

In the tower, there were many figures.

They looked up at the sky, their faces cold and full of killing intent.

"This kid really doesn't know how to pick a time. Let's see how he's going to survive today!"

"He dared to kill my clan's elder. This brat deserves to die! Today, I'll let him die under the Tribulation lightning, his body and soul destroyed!"

They stared at the figure standing in the void and said hatefully.

Behind them lay a few pitch-black iron coffins covered in golden talismans. Wisps of black smoke seeped out of the coffins, exuding an extremely evil Qi.

"Thump thump!"

From time to time, the iron coffin would shake, as if there was a living creature struggling inside.

"He's going to undergo his tribulation!"

"The lightning tribulation ... Is about to begin!"

Immediately after, ripples appeared in the void from time to time, and waves of people appeared. They were all hiding in various spatial treasures or directly hidden in the void, watching in the dark, like tigers watching their prey.

There were people from various races and major forces, as well as many independent cultivators.

They were all waiting, waiting for the lightning tribulation to descend.

“This guy ... Finally couldn’t hold back his tribulation!”

“Hmph! Let’s see how he’ll die today. There are people everywhere, waiting for him to cross the Tribulation!”

Just as the lightning tribulation was about to descend, another ripple appeared in the void. A pitch-black Flag wrapped around several figures and hid in the void.

They raised their eyes, looked around, and laughed coldly.

With a sweep, they could discover countless hidden auras in the void.

“This guy deserves it! He’s clearly a barbarian from the lower realm, yet he stole our limelight. This is too unpleasant!”

“If he doesn’t die, we’ll never be able to rise up again. We’ll always have to live in his shadow!”

There was a hint of jealousy and hatred on their faces.

Every one of them used to be a top genius whose name could shake the world. No matter where they went, they were the focus of people’s discussion. However, ever since this fellow surnamed Tang appeared, they had lost their original positions.

Now, the world had almost forgotten about these monsters. They only knew how to talk about this fellow surnamed Tang.

During the battle of the ancient deity plateau, this Tang guy had been in the limelight and was regarded as the number one of the younger generation, which made them even more envious.

“I must kill this guy today! Brother ye, do you have full confidence in your method?”

One of them said as he looked at a young Man in Black.

This young man was the evildoer of the night clan, ye jiuxuan.

The person who spoke was a demon from the Yao clan.

“Hey! Don’t worry, this is a great killing weapon that I’ve carefully prepared. As long as I make a move, that guy will die without a doubt!” Ye jiuxuan laughed coldly, and a smug look appeared on his face.

Clearly, he was extremely confident in his own methods.

“However, from what I can see, with so many people here, and the night race’s people here as well, I’m afraid it’s not my turn to make a move.” Then, he smiled again.

“I think so too! I’ve also prepared something, but I don’t think it’ll be needed. There are so many people here, we won’t get a chance at all. We just have to wait to grab the treasure!” The Yao clan genius said.

“With so many people, it’s not easy to snatch the treasures. When the time comes, we’ll all attack together and snatch as much as we can!” Ye Jiuxuan said.

The group of geniuses discussed for a while, then retracted their aura and hid in the void, waiting.
