

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1947

“How could this be? It’s useless!”

“The defense of his mind is too strong! It couldn’t be torn apart at all! This guy is even more difficult to deal with than those old bald donkeys who practice Buddhism!”

A moment later, the otherworldly demons were shocked.

The determination of this guy in front of them was completely beyond their expectations. They had gathered the power of more than a dozen five-star heavenly demon emperors and cast the heavenly demonic illusion together, but they still couldn’t break his mental defense!

“Run! The Tribulation lightning is coming!”

Seeing that the next lightning tribulation was about to fall, they stopped the illusion and rushed toward the passage.

At that moment, Tang Hao suddenly opened his eyes. His primordial spirit burst out and turned into the witch God. He grabbed one of the celestial demon emperors.

The heavenly demonic Emperor turned around to look, and his face turned pale.

His figure dispersed and turned into smoke, rushing toward the passage.

However, at this moment, the God of sorcerer opened his mouth and sucked in the smoke. He swallowed it.

“Hurry up! Hurry up and run!”

“This guy’s primordial spirit is too strong!”

The rest of the heavenly demonic emperors were scared out of their wits.

They shrieked and scuttled into the passageway in a hurry.

“I failed again!”

All the cultivators were dumbfounded.

More than a dozen heavenly demonic emperors failed in the end!

“Damn, is this guy’s primordial spirit made of iron?” Ye Jiuxuan and the other evildoers could not figure it out.

Seeing the Tribulation lightning strike down one after another, the lightning tribulation was about to pass, they became more and more anxious.

“This is the second and last one. He has also passed it safely!”

When the eightieth bolt of lightning struck, the atmosphere in the surroundings became somewhat silent.

There was only one left!

But with that kid’s strength, he could completely withstand it. His immortal mansion was powerful, and he had refined two Supreme divine materials and two Supreme weapons, one of which was the Supreme armor, which had an extremely amazing defense.

In addition to the large amount of medicinal pills he had prepared on him, it was certain that he would be able to survive the last lightning tribulation.

If those otherworldly demons didn’t do their best, the lightning tribulation would really end.

At this moment, another stream of smoke gushed out from the passage. It was elegant and graceful, and it turned into a handsome man.

“Is this the guy?”

The skyfiend glared at Tang Hao coldly.

“This primordial spirit ... Is really quite powerful. No wonder it could swallow three of our heavenly Fiend race’s emperors in a row!” He snorted coldly and said, “however, they are only five-star Imperial Venerables. I am a six-star Imperial venerable. It will be easy to take you down!”

“That’s ... A six-star heavenly demon Emperor?”

“No matter how strong that kid’s primordial spirit is, he won’t be able to stop a six-star! He’s dead!”

A thread of hope appeared in the hearts of the xiuzhe.

“That’s great!”

Ye Jiuxuan and the others were also overjoyed.

“Six-star!”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows as he looked at the celestial demon Emperor.

A six-star heavenly demon Emperor was equivalent to a six-tribulation expert.

“Things have become a little troublesome!”

Tang Hao wasn’t sure. The illusion of a six-star celestial demon Emperor was definitely dozens of times stronger than those of five-star celestial demons. He might not be able to block it.

Tang Hao raised his head to look at the sea of lightning in the sky, and a bold idea came to his mind.

Since he couldn't defend, he might as well take the initiative to attack. As long as he could drag it out until the lightning tribulation fell, he would win!

He immediately took action. His primordial spirit soared into the sky and turned into the witch God, striking out with his palm.

The heavenly demonic Emperor was stunned and caught off guard.

He had never expected that this guy would actually dare to take the initiative to attack.

"You have guts!"

He shouted, and his body expanded, turning into a giant as well. He struck out with his palm.

Bang! Bang!

The two great soul bodies exchanged a regretful blow.

Tang Hao grunted and backed away.

Although his primordial spirit was strong, he was not at the 6th tribulation and could not fight against a 6th tribulation otherworldly demon.

"You're overestimating yourself if you want to fight with me!"

The heavenly demonic Emperor sneered.

In his opinion, this guy was really stupid. He dared to project his primordial spirit in front of him. Wasn't this sending his primordial spirit to him?

His body expanded again, and he opened his mouth wide, pouncing toward the witch God, wanting to swallow him.

"Hmph!"

At that moment, Tang Hao clapped his palms together and his immortal soul body suddenly exploded. In a dazzling golden light, a huge Buddha appeared. The Buddha's light on his body shone brightly and illuminated the sky.

"This is ..."

The heavenly demonic Emperor was shocked.

"This is the Dharma! How do you know the Dharma?" He shouted in shock.

The celestial fiend clan was most afraid of those old Buddhist monks.

Tang Hao did not say a word. He just slapped his palm forward. At the same time, another beam of golden light rushed out from the top of his head. He held the divine spear of heaven reverse and rushed toward the celestial demonic Emperor.

“What is this?”

The heavenly demonic Emperor was stunned when he sensed the powerful aura of the clone.

This looks like a clone, but isn't this guy only at the 5th tribulation? how could he have a 6th tribulation clone?

“F * ck!”

He shrieked and retreated.

At this time, Rolling Thunder came from the sky. The last lightning tribulation was finally born.

The heavenly demonic Emperor looked up and revealed a vexed expression.

“Damn human, just you wait! Today, the celestial demon clan will fight you to the death!”

He spat out these words fiercely, then turned around and rushed into the heavenly Devil World.

Of course, he wouldn't let this matter rest, but he couldn't deal with this guy by himself, because this guy was about to pass the Tribulation and his primordial spirit would advance to the 6th tribulation and become even more powerful.

He had to find more helpers, six-star or even seven-star, to deal with this guy.

“Al!”

At this moment, a series of vexed cries rang out from all around the mountain range of fortune.

Today, they had so many people here and used all their means, but they still couldn't stop this kid from crossing the Tribulation!

“Damn it!”

Ye Jiuxuan clenched his fists tightly, his face ashen.

Beside him, the rest of the evildoers did not look any better!

BOOM!

The Tribulation lightning in the sky finally fell.

Tang Hao swallowed a handful of pills. The immortal abode above his head rose into the sky. He donned the Supreme armor and faced the Tribulation lightning.

The immortal abode was the first to bear the brunt of the Tribulation lightning. Under the bombardment of the Tribulation lightning, the entire immortal abode shook violently, and its bricks and tiles shattered one by one.

Bang! Bang!

The pillar of the winged rain-Dragon in the hall exploded.

Then, it was the Golden-winged ROC's turn.

One by one, the pillars exploded.

However, at the same time, the power of the lightning tribulation was constantly decreasing.

Just as the immortal abode was about to explode, Tang Hao put it away and drew his red bow. He kept bombarding the Tribulation lightning to weaken its power.

After a dozen arrows, the power of the lightning tribulation was reduced by half.

With the power of the Supreme armor, Tang Hao managed to withstand the last bolt of tribulation lightning.

After the tribulation lightning dissipated, the sea of lightning in the sky also began to disperse.

A beam of light fell from the sky and enveloped Tang Hao.

This was the purest immortal Qi in the world. It rushed into Tang Hao's body crazily, transforming his physical body and expanding his sea of Dao in his dantian. In the sea of Dao, the immortal mansion also disintegrated and began to be rebuilt.

At the same time, Tang Hao's primordial spirit also continued to expand. It broke through the shackles of the fifth tribulation and headed toward the sixth tribulation.

"He's succeeded!"

Seeing this, the cultivators all had complicated feelings.

The Dao tribulation today was a wonder that had never been seen on Pangu continent for ten thousand years.

They all fell silent and waited quietly. When the might of heaven and earth dissipated, they would deal with this kid.

But after a while, they saw a golden figure suddenly step out of the huge pillar of light. They looked at it and were stunned.

Isn't that the kid's primordial spirit?

That aura was completely at the 6th tribulation!

His primordial spirit was faster than his physical body and had advanced to the 6th tribulation stage.

"What is he doing?"

The next scene shocked them even more.

That primordial spirit actually rushed straight towards the passage to the heavenly Devil World and entered it.
