

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1948

“Three thearchs have been swallowed, and even a six-star Thearch has returned in defeat!”

“That human saint’s primordial spirit is unbelievably strong!”

News kept coming from the front line, causing the heavenly Devil World to be in an uproar.

Shock and anger spread among the otherworldly demons.

“This is a disgrace to our celestial demon race!”

“I must kill him and devour his primordial spirit!”

More and more heavenly demons rushed from all directions to the front line, including five-star and six-star heavenly demon emperors.

There were more and more sky demons around the tunnel. The five-star and six-star sky demon emperors had all gathered together to discuss how to deal with the damn human Saint.

“The Thunder tribulation has ended and his primordial spirit is about to advance to the sixth tribulation. A single six-star is definitely not his match. More than a dozen of them need to work together.”

“Let’s wait a little longer. The more people we have, the more confident we will be. ”

They discussed as they waited.

As every minute and second passed, a large number of otherworldly demons surged over. Some of them were five-star and six-star thearchs, and they joined their ranks.

After a heated discussion, they had come up with a plan. When they had more people, they would charge out and kill that detestable human Saint.

However, at this moment, a golden light suddenly flashed at the entrance of the passage, and a golden figure stepped out.

“What’s that?”

All four sides of the passage suddenly fell silent.

All the otherworldly demons stopped their discussion and looked at the Golden figure with a dumbfounded expression.

“It’s him! It’s that bastard!”

“He’s coming!”

Countless heavenly demons cried out in shock. They were all in disbelief that this guy dared to enter their Heavenly Devil World with his primordial spirit!

“Hahaha! We haven’t even gone to find him and he’s already here!”

“How dare you enter the heavenly Devil World as a primordial spirit? this is the first time I’ve seen such a foolish human!”

The group of heavenly demonic emperors burst into laughter.

Entering the heavenly Devil World as a primordial spirit was something that even the ancient Almighty experts did not dare to do.

“Human Saint, you’re seeking death!” They shouted.

Tang Hao stood in the air and looked around coldly. “It’s not the first time I’ve been to the heavenly Devil World. What’s there to be afraid of?”

“Hmph! You still dare to be so arrogant? today, we’ll devour you!”

The group of heavenly demonic emperors shouted.

“Is that so? I’d like to see who’s going to swallow who today!”

“Hmph!” Tang Hao snorted coldly. His body suddenly rose and turned into an ancient sorcerer God that was ten thousand feet tall. He roared and pounced on the otherworldly demon Army with a monstrous ancient sorcery Qi.

He stretched out his huge palm and grabbed thousands of otherworldly demons. Then, he threw them out and swallowed them all.

The moment these otherworldly demons entered his stomach, they were completely refined and fused into his primordial spirit.

To Tang Hao, All Souls were nutrients that he could devour to strengthen his primordial spirit.

Compared to the ghosts, these otherworldly demons were better nutrients.

Other people were afraid of skyscraping Devils, but Tang Hao was the exact opposite. When he saw skyscraping Devils, he was only happy.

In his eyes, the heavenly Devil World was a treasure bowl filled with treasures.

He let loose and devoured wantonly, grabbing and shoving otherworldly demons into his mouth. From time to time, he would open his mouth and suck in the otherworldly demons that were like a huge River.

There were too many otherworldly demons here, in the hundreds of millions. Although most of them did not have high cultivation levels, most of them were at the commander or commander level, Tang Hao did not mind at all. He devoured all of them.

“Heavens! It’s too brutal!”

“Is this guy really a human? How can he be more terrifying than us sky demons?”

“Hurry up and run!”

Seeing this scene, the group of heaven demons were scared half to death. They had never seen such a brutal guy.

They shrieked in fear and fled in all directions.

“Stop!”

“Stop him!”

The group of six-star heavenly demonic emperors shouted angrily and rushed out. Their souls expanded and turned into Giants, blocking the Sorcerer God.

But at this moment, the Sorcerer God suddenly exploded and turned into a Giant Buddha. He struck forward with his palm.

In an instant, the light of Buddha shone brightly.

Ah!

A series of screams rang out.

The low-level otherworldly demons in the distance all screamed.

Just this Buddha’s light alone could burn their souls and make them suffer.

Bang! Bang!

A deafening explosion.

A six-star heavenly demon Emperor clashed with the Buddha’s Palm and retreated with a muffled groan.

However, more heavenly demonic emperors came from all directions.

The Buddha’s eyes were wide open in anger. As his lips moved, he spat out words of truth.

In an instant, the Buddhist light on his body shone brightly, and his aura rose greatly.

Bang Bang Bang!

He waved his palms and struck out countless palm strikes in all directions like lightning, forcing the heavenly demonic emperors who were pouncing on him to retreat.

“Get over here!”

The Buddha shouted and rushed forward, slapping the heavenly demonic Emperor in front of him. He staggered and then stretched out his palm. The palm suddenly expanded and turned into a Buddha’s hand that covered the sky, pressing down.

“Ah!”

With a scream, the heavenly demonic Emperor was pinched in an instant, and his thousand-foot body was squeezed to a thousand-foot size.

Then, the Buddha opened his mouth and swallowed it.

In his stomach, countless runes appeared and turned into a furnace, beginning to refine the heavenly demonic Emperor.

The heavenly demon Emperor’s body kept shrinking, while Tang Hao’s body gradually grew. In a short while, he had completely absorbed the essence of the six-star heavenly demon Emperor and turned it into his own power.

His figure became even bigger, and his aura also increased by several times.

A six-star heavenly demon Emperor was equivalent to the primordial spirit of a six-tribulation expert. It was a Super Tonic for the primordial spirit!

“Hiss!”

Seeing this, the rest of the heavenly demon emperors all gasped.

This guy ... Was too terrifying!

A six-star Thearch had actually been devoured and refined so easily.

“Another one!”

“Die!” Tang Hao shouted and pounced on another celestial demon Emperor.

He struck out with both palms, causing the heavenly demonic Emperor to stagger. Then, he stretched out his palm and grabbed the heavenly demonic Emperor’s arm. He pulled it with force and broke it before throwing it into his mouth.

The heavenly demonic Emperor screamed in fear and tried to escape.

Tang Hao did not allow him to escape. He grabbed his other arm and tore it off. He tore off the celestial demon Emperor's body bit by bit and devoured it.

"Oh my God!"

"This is too terrifying!"

When the otherworldly demons saw this, they were so frightened that they almost fainted.

The heavenly demonic emperors were also terrified.

"This person ... Is too terrifying!"

"We're not his match, let's go!"

Seeing the Buddha's aura rise again, they were even more terrified.

This guy was extremely strange. He could devour their heavenly fiend clan to strengthen his primordial spirit. If they continued fighting like this, this guy would only become stronger and more terrifying.

They made a prompt decision and turned to run.

"Hmph! You want to leave?"

Tang Hao grunted coldly and chased after them. These were all great tonics. How could he let them escape?

He was going to devour all the otherworldly demons here, and none of them could escape!
