

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1949

The heavenly Devil World was in chaos.

Countless wisps of smoke were scattered everywhere. They were all otherworldly demons that were fleeing in all directions.

They were all panicking, as if they had been scared out of their wits.

Among these fleeing heavenly demons, there were all kinds of ranks. Commander, commander, King, and even the strongest heavenly demon Emperor was among them.

Behind them, there was a huge Buddha chasing them.

The Buddha was tens of thousands of feet tall, and his body shone with Buddha light. He stretched out his huge Buddha Hand and scooped up the group of heavenly demons. He grabbed one and threw it into his mouth, swallowing it alive.

“Hurry up and run!”

“That human isn’t human at all. He’s even more terrifying than the ancient fiendcelestials!”

Those heaven demons turned around and looked. They were all so frightened that they shivered and ran even harder.

The otherworldly demons who were rushing over from afar were all stunned when they saw this scene.

They were puzzled. So many otherworldly demons had rushed to the front line, and many of them were six-star Imperial Venerables. Why couldn’t they deal with a human Saint? why did they suffer such a huge defeat?

When they saw the Golden Buddha, they were stunned.

“Mother of God!”

They shivered and turned to run.

The Golden Buddha’s aura was too terrifying!

His actions were even more brutal, as if the ancient demon God had reincarnated!

“How did such a fiend appear in the human race!”

“Damn it, which bastard opened the passage! If I find him, I’ll definitely kill him!”

The heavenly demonic emperors were both sullen and depressed.

In the beginning, they were very happy, thinking that they had encountered something good. They all rushed over excitedly, ready to try this once-in-a-thousand-years delicacy!

However, who would have thought that this wasn't a F * cking delicacy, but poison!

"A delicacy that only appears once in a thousand years? F * ck, who said that? he's clearly a once-in-a-thousand-years fiend!"

They gritted their teeth and cursed with hatred.

As they watched heavenly demons being devoured one after another, the aura of the Buddha became more and more terrifying, and they lost all thoughts of resisting.

In order to deal with this guy, a seven-star Imperial venerable would be needed. However, in the entire Heavenly Devil World, there were not many seven-star Imperial Venerables. Moreover, the heavenly Devil World was very large. Even if a seven-star Imperial venerable received the news, it would take a long time to come.

As these heavenly Devils fled in all directions, panic spread throughout the heavenly Devil World.

Tang Hao kept chasing the otherworldly demons. From time to time, he would send out small thoughts that transformed into small Buddhas that rushed in all directions to devour the low-level otherworldly demons.

"We're running out of time!"

Tang Hao did some calculations. There was not much time left until the heavenly Tribulation's remaining power dissipated.

He had to return to Pangu world before the power of the heavenly Tribulation dissipated.

"I can't make this trip in vain, I have to get more!"

Tang Hao's mind flickered. He sent out another portion of his thoughts, which turned into a huge furnace.

"All of you, come into the furnace!"

He held the furnace with both hands and waved it at the fleeing Army of otherworldly demons. All of a sudden, a powerful suction force appeared and sucked all the otherworldly demons over, putting them into the furnace.

He released even more thoughts to capture otherworldly demons.

He also took a look at the six-star heavenly demonic emperors. He caught them one by one and put them into the furnace.

He didn't have time. He had to catch as many as possible and then refine them later.

In a short while, he had captured countless heavenly demons. Not to mention the low-level ones, there were countless of them. As for the slightly higher level heavenly demon generals and heavenly demon kings, there were a total of a million of them.

As for the heavenly demonic emperors, there were at least three to four hundred of them in all ranks.

“It’s almost time!”

Tang Hao’s thoughts turned into a furnace lid. He sealed the furnace and charged back.

“How should we deal with so many otherworldly demons? All of them?”

Tang Hao was lost in thought on the way.

He had swallowed a lot just now, and his primordial spirit had suddenly expanded a lot. If he swallowed more, he was afraid that his primordial spirit would become unstable. These otherworldly demons were also good things. They were good at charm and illusion techniques, so they should be more useful.

“Why don’t I cultivate an eye technique!”

Tang Hao had an idea.

It was definitely possible to cultivate these sky demons into his eyes and turn them into a pupil technique.

Tang Hao had seen similar methods before.

But now, he had hundreds of heavenly demonic emperors and millions of heavenly demons in his hands. Once he succeeded in refining them, he would definitely be able to form a pair of Supreme divine eyes!

“Good idea!”

Tang Hao did as he was told. With a thought, flames rose from the furnace and began to refine the otherworldly demons.

The first step was to weaken the power of these otherworldly demons and erase their consciousness. Then, he would inject his own thoughts into them and take complete control of them. At that time, he would take these otherworldly demons into his eyes and form a pair of otherworldly demon eyes!

At this time, in the outside world, the pillar of light began to slowly dissipate.

Tang Hao’s physical body was gradually revealed. He had already completed the transformation and advanced to the sixth tribulation.

The origin core avatar held the battle spear and guarded at the side.

Everyone’s eyes were not on the body, but on the passage.

It had been a while since the kid's primordial spirit entered the heavenly Devil World.

Entering the heavenly Devil World as a primordial spirit, what was that kid trying to do? Wasn't he afraid of being devoured by the Army of otherworldly demons?

In the heavenly Devil World, there were countless heavenly Devils. No matter how strong his primordial spirit was, he could not defeat so many heavenly Devils!

"Don't tell me he died inside!"

Many saints sneered.

They couldn't wait for the kid to die inside and have his primordial spirit devoured by those otherworldly demons. That way, they would have one less big problem and could easily divide up so many treasures.

In the ripples in the void, many saints were secretly preparing. They were waiting for the remaining power of heaven and earth to dissipate before they attacked.

"He's back!"

Just as the remaining power of heaven and earth was about to completely dissipate, a golden light flashed in the passage, and a golden figure rushed out and entered the body.

The crowd was disappointed.

"Hmph! So what if he's back!"

"This kid is already at the 6th tribulation! We can all make a move now! Today, I'll let him know the power of my Yuchi race!"

In all directions, figures stepped out from the ripples in the void. There were people from various clans and major forces, as well as many independent cultivators. At this time, they did not avoid it.

"Brat, if you want to live, hand over the treasure!"

"I only want the treasure, not my life!"

Many people spoke out and threatened.

Tang Hao stood where he was with his eyes closed, as if he could not hear anything around him. The clone turned into a golden light and returned to his body.

"What is this kid doing?"

"You're doing this on purpose! They're clearly looking down on us!"

The Saints were all annoyed.

“Let me do it. He killed an elder of my Yuchi race and has an irreconcilable hatred with my race. Today, I will kill him and avenge my race’s elder!”

From the Yuchi race’s camp, an old man stepped forward.

He was dressed in a gray robe. His face was thin, and his body was as thin as a stick. He looked a little weak, but the aura on his body was extremely strong. As he took a step forward, traces of Dao patterns appeared around his body.

One, two ...

Different Dao patterns appeared one after another.

In the end, three different Dao patterns appeared around him.

This also meant that he had comprehended three great DAOs and comprehended three Dao laws.
