

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1966

“We’ve finally arrived!”

“The people from the yin-yang sky arrived a little earlier than us. I hope that demon can hold on a little longer and doesn’t die early!”

Another group of people landed in the sky above the city.

They were all dressed in red treasured clothing with Vermilion Bird patterns on them. They were the reinforcements from Vermilion Bird heaven.

They looked a little anxious. They were the second to arrive, and the Yin Yang sky in front was the fastest. They had already arrived for a while, and they might have already captured the devil.

They looked around and immediately discovered the human mountain. They were immediately left speechless.

“Al! Look at that person, isn’t that him?”

Then, they saw a white-robed figure beside the human mountain.

This person was too eye-catching. Everyone else had hidden far away, and he was the only one here.

It was obvious that he was the devil!

“Hahaha! That’s great! That bunch of trash from the Yin Yang sky still can’t take him down!” The leading Saint was ecstatic.

But then, he frowned and looked puzzled. “Oh right, where are the people from the Yin Yang sky? Where did he go?”

He turned around and looked around, but he didn’t see anyone from yin-yang sky.

“Forget it, who cares! It’s more important to take down this demon first!”

He didn’t care anymore. He called out to his fellow disciples behind him and was about to charge forward to kill this demon.

However, the group of people from Vermillion Bird heaven had not charged far before they stopped, and their faces revealed a dazed expression.

Right in front of their eyes, The Devil in White walked to the corner of the street, grabbed a leg, and lifted an unconscious Saint. He dragged him along the street until he reached the human mountain.

The unconscious Saint was completely naked. He had been stripped.

Moreover, this guy looked a little familiar.

“That ... Is it ...?”

“It ... It seems like ...”

The people from Vermillion Bird sky looked at each other, dumbfounded.

The naked Saint was obviously from the Yin Yang sky.

“This ... How is this possible?”

They couldn't believe it. The people sent by the Yin Yang sky weren't weak. Furthermore, they had just arrived not long ago. How did they all get annihilated?

“Hiss! Hiss! Hiss!”

They sucked in a breath of cold air. When they looked at the white-robed figure again, they no longer looked down on him, only fear.

It was obvious that this guy's strength had far exceeded their expectations.

“This guy ... Is not an ordinary person!”

They were extremely solemn.

“Don't panic! You see, there are so many people here, which means that this person has experienced many battles. He is definitely not at his peak, and may even be an arrow at the end of its flight. If we attack now, we can definitely take him down!”

The leading Saint said.

“That makes sense!”

The others thought about it and nodded.

“Hahaha! Those yin-yang sky idiots would never have thought that the first one to arrive would be the one to suffer instead. It's just nice for us!”

They were even more delighted.

“Hurry up! Go! Take him down!”

The leading Saint roared and took the lead to rush out.

“That's the reinforcements from Vermillion Bird heaven!”

“We're saved!”

The crowd cheered, and hope was reignited in their hearts.

However, it didn't take long for the flame of hope that had just been ignited to be extinguished.

Just like the previous group of people, this group of people from Vermillion Bird heaven also fell. None of them escaped. They were all knocked out, stripped, and thrown onto the mountain.

That human mountain was even taller!

"Heavens! How could it be like this?"

Everyone was in even more despair!

"Eh? Where's the person who came earlier?"

At this time, in the sky above panhuang city, another group of people arrived. They were from the purple sky sect.

Their reactions were exactly the same as the group of people from Vermillion Bird heaven. They quickly discovered what had happened to the two groups in front of them and were also a little shocked. However, after some consideration, they still made their move.

Of course, their end was the same. They were all stripped and thrown onto that small mountain.

"Eh? Where is he?"

"This guy is the devil? How is he still alive?"

Soon after, the fourth group arrived.

They would end up the same.

The fifth team, the sixth team ...

The reinforcements from the various orthodoxies arrived one after another. They landed in high spirits, but in the end, they all fell and contributed to the human mountain.

When the ninth group of people landed, they looked at the tall mountain of people and the familiar faces, and they fell silent.

"Fellow Daoist! Sorry for the disturbance!"

They cupped their hands, smiled, turned around, and left, pretending to be calm.

After running for a distance, he started to run.

"F * ck! Where did this devil come from! Yin Yang heaven, Vermillion Bird heaven ... They were all defeated! This guy ... Is too F * cking scary!"

“This guy ... He’s not human at all! Just now, I met his eyes, and with just one look, my whole body turned cold as if I had entered an ice cellar. It was too terrifying!”

They couldn’t help but curse.

“Al! Aren’t they from the East Pole? Why are they running?”

Several groups of people had arrived in the sky. When they saw this group of people running for their lives, they were all dumbfounded.

“Run! That guy isn’t an ordinary devil, he’s a fiend!”

The people of the East Pole shouted.

“Hahaha! Fiend? You’re the ones who can’t do it! Watch us!”

These people didn’t believe him and laughed out loud.

It was just a guy who came down, how powerful could he be!

They laughed as they descended and entered the panhuang city. However, they came out not long after. They were all running for their lives. Their faces were deathly pale, as if they had seen a ghost.

“F * ck! Where did that guy come from?”

“He’s really a fiend! I’ve lived for almost a thousand years, and I’ve never seen such a deranged guy!”

They roared as they ran.

From time to time, they would turn back to look, afraid that The Fiend would catch up.

They didn’t want to end up like the others, stripped naked and piled on top of a mountain of people. That would be too miserable, even worse than killing them!

“Hurry up! We can go back and ask for help. This devil is too fierce, we are not his match at all. We need a late 6th tribulation or even a 7th tribulation elder to subdue him!”

They shouted and rushed into the sky.

“What? With your strength, can’t you do anything to that demon? What realm is that devil at?”

“Early 6th tribulation? You must be joking!”

When they returned to their respective sects, the elders who were waiting for the news were shocked.

They had never thought that this demon would be so powerful and so brutal.

“I wonder where this guy came from, it’s really strange!”

“This man is quite capable, and he even dares to cause trouble in panhuang city. I think he must have some background. It seems that I have to go personally to meet this demon and find out what his background is!”

These elders of the seventh tribulation couldn’t help but go to Emperor Pan City in person.
