

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1970

North Sea.

Somewhere on the surface of the sea, ripples appeared in the void, and a figure stepped out.

It was a young man with black hair and white clothes.

He stood in the void and looked around. He fixed his eyes on one place and muttered, "It's this way!"

Then, he turned into a stream of light and flew away.

The North Sea was one of the four Seas. It was located in the North of the desolate north. It was vast and boundless. One could not see the end of it at a glance.

The sea was filled with ferocious beasts and it was extremely dangerous. Moreover, the deeper one went, the more dangerous it would be.

These dangers didn't only come from the fierce beasts in the sea, but also from various extreme environments, as well as various formations and restrictions left behind from ancient times. Ordinary cultivators only dared to move near the coast. Only third and fourth tribulation saints dared to go a little deeper.

Tang Hao finally stopped after a long while.

"The ten-thousand-year-old ice sea divine iron ore is right below this!"

He looked down and muttered to himself.

Back then, The White Tiger heavenly Saint had found the ice sea divine iron ore a hundred thousand feet below this sea.

Then, he frowned slightly.

Just as The White Tiger heavenly Saint had said, this place was famous for being a dangerous place in the North Sea.

Below, there was a high-level immortal Meridian with abundant immortal Qi, which attracted many ferocious beasts. It became one of the famous habitats of ferocious beasts in the North Sea. There were even seventh tribulation beasts here, let alone fifth and sixth tribulation ones.

This ocean had the name of the ocean of death even among xiuzhe.

Back then, The White Tiger heavenly Saint had been lucky to be able to escape.

"Even if it's dangerous, we still have to try!"

Tang Hao said with determination.

An entire ten-thousand-year-old ice sea divine iron ore was simply too precious.

He took a deep breath and was about to jump into the sea. However, at this moment, he suddenly stopped and turned around. He looked at the void. Between his eyebrows, the vertical mark cracked open and the ancestor of technique's divine eye appeared.

"Fellow Daoist! It's time to come out!"

Tang Hao said coldly.

When he was on his way, he had noticed that something was wrong. It was as if someone was spying on him in the dark, but he had found nothing after several attempts.

This time, the same feeling appeared again.

Once or twice could be said to be an illusion, but if it appeared again and again, it was definitely not. There was indeed someone spying on him in the dark and following him.

"Which clan are you from? Yao clan? The Yuchi race? Or perhaps, it's from the thirty-three heavens?"

Countless possibilities flashed through Tang Hao's mind.

He had too many enemies, and he could not be sure who they were.

At the same time, he circulated the celestial core power in his body and was ready to attack.

"I didn't expect you to have such sharp senses!"

A low and gentle voice came from the void.

"Female?"

Tang Hao was surprised.

The next moment, ripples appeared in the void, and a red figure appeared.

It was a woman, dressed in scarlet red clothes that wrapped around her graceful figure, revealing her soul-stirring curves. As her skirt fluttered, a pair of smooth and beautiful legs were faintly visible, slender and straight.

Her face was even more beautiful. Her facial features were so exquisite that they were flawless. Her Phoenix eyes were slightly squinted, and there was a magic that could capture one's soul.

She stood there, her black hair flying in the wind. She was so beautiful that she looked like a goddess from the nine Heavens.

Tang Hao looked up and was shocked. The woman in front of him was unfamiliar.

However, after a closer look, he was shocked as he recognized it.

“It’s you!”

He blurted out, a look of shock on his face.

The woman in front of him was the eldest young master of Suzaku heaven. He had seen her at the creation ceremony. Although it was only a clone, the two of them had the same temperament and dress.

“That’s right! It’s me!”

The woman pursed her lips and smiled.

Her voice was soft and magnetic.

“So it’s the eldest young master of Vermillion Bird heaven. I’ve been disrespectful!” Tang Hao cupped his hands and said in a clear voice, “I just don’t know why you’re following me, young master Vermillion Bird. Could it be ... That you’re here for the matter of Emperor Pan City?”

“Naturally not!”

The woman shook her head.

Her beautiful eyes were fixed on Tang Hao. The corners of her mouth lifted slightly, and there was an inexplicable smile.

“You’re not? Then why are you following me?”

Tang Hao said.

The woman did not say anything. She only sized Tang Hao up. After a while, she chuckled. “You’re an interesting person!”

Tang Hao was even more confused when he heard that.

“Look at you. You’re from the lower realm, but you’re such a monster. Even the great void sect’s successor was defeated by you. Your battle shook the entire Pangu continent. Tell me, how can I not be curious?” She said with a smile.

“Also, your style is very interesting. You’re completely different from the geniuses I’ve seen.”

As she spoke, her tone revealed a trace of emotion.

Back at the creation ceremony, it was the first time she had seen this man. At that time, she did not think much of him. After all, he had only defeated an avatar. It was not a big deal.

Later on, when he defeated young master Taixu on the ancient deity plateau, she was greatly surprised.

She had never expected that a fellow from the lower realm could actually defeat a young master like her.

When she saw him again in the panhuang city, she was even more curious.

In her eyes, this man was so different from the rest of the evildoers she had seen. This made her very interested in him, so she followed him.

She was once again shocked by this tracking.

In just half a month's time, when this guy came out of the barren mountain, his cultivation had skyrocketed and directly rushed to the middle stage, while he had just advanced to the 6th tribulation.

Such a cultivation speed was truly terrifying!

She was the eldest young master of Vermillion Bird heaven and had the support of an entire orthodoxy behind her. That was why her cultivation had improved so quickly. However, this fellow could be considered to be alone, yet he could still achieve such a shocking speed. She could not help but be shocked.

Her interest in him had also grown.

"Young master, are you complimenting me?"

Tang Hao said with a bitter smile.

"Of course!" She smiled and said, "Oh right, my name is Li. You can call me young master Li!"

"Li gongzi!" Tang Hao cupped his hands and said, "if there's nothing else, I'll take my leave. I still have some matters to attend to!"

With that, he turned around to leave.

"Wait a moment!" Young master Li called out, "this place is not safe. It's a little dangerous for you to go down alone. Why don't ... We work together!"

"Cooperation?" Tang Hao was surprised. "Li gongzi, you're mistaken. I was just passing by!"

"Oh? Was that so? Didn't you come here to look for treasures?"

Young master Li smiled with interest, "you alone is not enough. If we join forces, we can definitely go down and explore. If we find any treasures, we can split them equally. What do you think, brother Tang?"

"This ..."

Tang Hao hesitated.

This young master Li, it was still unknown whether he was an enemy or a friend, so he could not be trusted. But what she said was right, with his current strength, it was not enough to guarantee that he would be able to get that ice sea divine iron ore.

However, if the two of them joined forces, they would have a great chance of winning.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao thought for a moment, then nodded and agreed.
