

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1974

“Brother Li, we hit the jackpot!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

In a gold-iron vein, the chances of giving birth to a fetus mother were very small. Only a small piece could be born out of tens of thousands of gold-iron veins.

The ice sea divine iron mine in front of them obviously had a very long history. In addition, this place was the location of a high-grade immortal vein, and the immortal Qi was especially abundant. This was why this huge ten-thousand-year fetus mother was born.

“The value of this entire mine vein might not even be comparable to the value of this embryo!” Li gongzi praised, “this is also the first time I’ve seen such a big piece of the fetus mother.”

Brother Li, since we’ve agreed to split all the treasures in half, let’s split this fetus mother equally.” Tang Hao said.

“Alright!” Li gongzi nodded. “Half each!”

Tang Hao immediately took action. He drew out a golden sword and attacked the mine vein below.

This place was filled with danger and seventh tribulation ancient fierce beasts, so they had to move quickly.

Master Li also made his move. With a wave of his sleeve, a red light flew out. It was a flying sword, and it blasted toward the mine.

The flying sword buzzed and released a shocking sword Qi, cutting the rock layer below and revealing the mine vein.

In an instant, a dazzling divine light shot into the sky and illuminated the entire sea area.

The entire mine vein was like a giant dragon lying on the bottom of the sea. A shocking cold air overflowed as if it was going to freeze the entire sea.

Clang clang clang!

Then, there was the sound of metal clashing.

It was the sound of the flying sword hitting the mine vein.

These were all ten-thousand-year-old ice sea godly metal. They were top-grade materials for forging weapons, and were extremely hard. It was very difficult to cut them open. Moreover, the two of them were aiming at the center of the mine. The godly metal there was of an even higher age, and was even harder.

“This thing is quite hard!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. With a thought, the golden sword was set ablaze.

With the power of the true fire, the flying sword became sharper and sharper. It tore open the surface of the mine and headed toward the fetus mother in the deepest part.

Master Li shouted, and flames also gushed out. Her flames were red, different from Tang Hao’s blood-red flames, but in terms of aura, they were stronger than Tang Hao’s true fire.

“The divine flame of the Vermilion Bird!”

Tang Hao looked at it again. He was envious.

This was one of the most precious treasures of the Vermilion Bird heaven, the Supreme true flame of the divine beast Vermilion Bird. It was also one of the few true flames in the world.

Normally, there was no difference in strength between the true flames because they were all top-grade flames. However, Tang Hao’s flame was special. He had used a secret technique to refine it with many types of Dao flames.

This was equivalent to an acquired flame, so it was naturally inferior to a connate true flame like the Vermilion Bird divine flame.

“Brother Tang, your Red Lotus true fire is not bad either!”

Li Gongzi glanced over and smiled.

“Hey! It’s far from good!” Tang Hao said awkwardly.

Next, he used all his immortal essence and controlled the flying sword to enter the center of the mine.

Young master Li also used all his strength.

This mine vein was too large, and it was completely impossible to collect it all at once. This place was too dangerous, and they didn’t have much time. For safety reasons, they could only take the most valuable fetus mother first.

As long as the mother was in his hands, it didn’t matter whether he took the mine or not.

“Soon!”

The two of them attacked with all their might and quickly approached the mother in the deepest part.

At this moment, a roar came from not far away.

“Which little thief dares to steal this Lord’s treasure!”

Then, the seawater beside them suddenly rolled up and turned into a huge Whirlpool. A pitch-black, ferocious giant claw emerged from the whirlpool and grabbed at the two of them with a monstrous evil Qi.

“It’s a seven tribulation old demon!”

Tang Hao’s expression changed drastically when he sensed the aura.

This was an old demon, completely different from those fierce beasts.

Generally speaking, ferocious beasts would not take on human form, especially those of the primordial bloodline. They were disdainful of taking on human form. However, some ferocious beasts liked to take on human form, and these were the demons.

“Quickly retreat!”

Li gongzi shouted and retreated.

Tang Hao retreated backward and dodged the attack.

“Woof! It’s the little girl from Vermillion Bird heaven!”

The Giant Claw did not chase after him. Instead, it dispersed. Then, a black light emerged from the vortex and turned into an old man in a black robe.

His old face was dry and thin, and his dark eyes flickered with a terrifying light as he glanced at the two of them.

He looked at li gongzi and laughed.

“It’s senior demonic Dragon!”

Young master Li had no fear on his face. Instead, he cupped his hands and bowed.

Although she was only at the sixth tribulation, she was still the eldest young master of the Vermillion Bird heaven. She had a high status and represented the Vermillion Bird heaven when she was out. Therefore, in terms of status, she was not inferior to a seventh tribulation expert.

“You actually know me!”

The old demon laughed.

“That’s natural! In the North Sea, who doesn’t know of senior demonic Dragon’s reputation? even in our thirty-three heavens, many people have heard of senior’s mighty name!” Li gongzi said.

“Hahaha! Is that so?”

The old monster laughed a few times, as if he enjoyed it.

“You’re not bad, girl! Eh? Who is this guy?”

The old monster’s eyes shifted to Tang Hao.

He sized it up and frowned, revealing a suspicious look.

This kid ... Was a little strange. He had a cultivation base of the middle stage of the sixth tribulation. Moreover, he could walk with the little girl of the Vermillion Bird heaven, so he must be at the same level. However, he was very unfamiliar and there was no special symbol on his body that could represent his identity.

Didn’t the eldest young masters of the various heavens usually wear their sect’s token when they were outside? why didn’t this fellow wear it?

“You are ... Which day’s young master?”

He said hesitantly.

“Senior, I’m not some young master of the heavens. I’m just a wandering cultivator!” Tang Hao cupped his hands.

“A rogue cultivator?”

The old demonic Dragon was stunned.

Then, he widened his eyes and carefully sized up Tang Hao.

How could a wandering cultivator be with a girl from Vermillion Bird heaven? This was truly unbelievable!

“Forget it! I don’t care who he is!”

After a while, he mumbled, raised his voice, and shouted, “Listen up, this is my territory. The mine below is also my property. Don’t even think about touching it.”

“If it was someone else, I would have swallowed them whole. But for the sake of the sky of Vermillion Bird, I’ll spare you. Get lost!”

Young master Li frowned and said, “senior, I remember that your cave is not in this Sea area. Then, how could this mine be yours?”

“Hmph! I’ll do as I say, do I need you two juniors to care?”

The old Demon Dragon snorted angrily.

“Senior, you can’t say that. This is an ownerless land, and this ore vein hasn’t been taken away by anyone. It’s perfectly fine here, so how can it be considered senior ‘s? if it was senior’ s, why didn’t you take it away long ago? why would you leave it here now?”

Li gongzi said.

“You ... You little girl!”

The old demonic Dragon was a little annoyed.

This stinky girl really touched a sore spot. He had discovered this mine vein long ago and was also interested in the fetus mother. However, he had tried many times but could not dig it out. The core of the mine vein was too hard. Even if he was a seven tribulation expert, he could not dig it out.

He had no choice but to give up and leave a wisp of his soul here to guard the mine.

If someone were to mine, he would receive the news.

Therefore, when the two of them attacked, he, who was thousands of miles away, was the first to know. He tore open the void and descended.
