

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1975

"I just don't need it for the time being, so I'll leave it for now!"

The old Demon Dragon snorted.

"If that's the case, then it can't completely be considered senior's item. Today, the two of us discovered it, so we should also have a share!" Li gongzi said.

"That's right! Anyone who sees it will have a share!" Tang Hao agreed.

"You two little kids, you've got some guts to haggle with me!" The old Demon Dragon said angrily.

He had wanted to make a move to drive these two away, but on second thought, he changed his mind.

These two juniors had already discovered this place. Even if they were driven away this time, they could still come back next time. It would be really troublesome if he came back again!

Moreover, if this girl told the elders in the sect that they were here to retrieve the treasure, then he would be helpless.

He furrowed his brows and pondered.

As he thought about it, his eyes suddenly lit up as he thought of a brilliant idea.

"Cough! You two juniors, listen up. Since you've already come here, you can't return empty-handed. I'll allow you to dig, but you only have fifteen minutes. How much you can dig will depend on your ability."

"You also have to swear that you will never come here again to steal the ore vein!"

The old demonic Dragon said.

"This ..."

Li gongzi was stunned and hesitated, "only 15 minutes?"

Tang Hao furrowed his brows. The situation was tricky.

It was completely impossible to dig out the fetus 'mother in 15 minutes. Moreover, they couldn't take away many ores in this short period of time.

Just now, he realized that the age of this mine vein might be longer than he had expected. The deeper he went, the harder it became. Even if he used true fire, it was difficult to go deep.

However, they seemed to have no other choice but to agree. This old demonic Dragon was a seven tribulation old demon. The two of them were not his match at all.

If it wasn't for li gongzi's special identity, the old demonic Dragon would have already made a move.

“Then 15 minutes it is!”

Li gongzi pondered for a moment, nodded, and replied.

“Good! Then it’s settled!” The old Demon Dragon hurriedly said with a happy expression.

Based on the abilities of these two children, how many ores could they take away in fifteen minutes? as for the origin core, it was even more impossible. Even he couldn’t do it, so these two children couldn’t.

“Let’s start now!”

He waved his hand and said very forthrightly, “take as much as you want. Take as much as you can. I’ll see what tricks you two little kids have up your sleeves!”

“Then let’s start!”

Tang Hao and Li gongzi looked at each other, nodded slightly, and attacked again.

Young master Li opened his mouth and spat out a red divine light, which turned into a red ancient sword. The style was ancient and looked ordinary, but the aura was extremely amazing, and there was a red divine fire around it.

As soon as the sword was drawn, the sea water within a radius of 10000 feet was evaporated.

“A Supreme artifact!”

The old demonic Dragon exclaimed in a low voice, his eyes burning with a hot light.

“As expected of young master Vermillion Bird Tian!”

He secretly praised her, but he didn’t dare to have any other thoughts.

This was the sword of Vermillion Bird heaven. Even if he had ten times the courage, he would not dare to snatch it.

When he saw the ancient sword heading toward the origin core in the center of the mine, he grinned and laughed.

“Even if it’s a Supreme artifact and the divine flame of the Vermilion Bird, it won’t work. This girl’s cultivation is still a little low. If she was at the seventh tribulation, it might really be possible.” He said to himself.

“Let’s see, what kind of ability does this guy have?”

He turned to look at Tang Hao.

He was a little unconcerned. This guy had already said that he was a rogue cultivator, so he was not from thirty-three heavens. His abilities could not be that strong.

At that moment, a divine light flashed above Tang Hao's head. His two clones rushed out, each holding a monarch weapon, and rushed toward the center of the mine.

"This is ..."

The old Demon dragon's eyes widened as he exclaimed.

These two were his clones?

What exactly was this clone made of? how could its aura be so powerful?

And those two were actually Emperor artifacts!

"You're still called a rogue cultivator?"

The old demonic dragon cursed in his heart and was a little angry.

He had two powerful clones and two Emperor weapons. When did rogue cultivators become so powerful?

Clang clang clang!

Immediately after, the sound of metal clashing rose and fell.

Tang Hao and Li gongzi worked together and tried to attack, cut, and even refine with true fire to get close to the embryo.

However, the deeper they went, the harder the ore became. When they were about a thousand feet away from the mother, the two began to struggle. They could only move a foot forward after thousands of strikes, and their speed was getting slower and slower.

"Hahaha! Don't waste your energy, you two. Even this Lord can't get it, let alone you two!"

Seeing this, the old demonic Dragon laughed.

"Don't even think about it, mother. Hurry up and get some ordinary ores, or it'll be too late. "

"Brother Tang, what should we do?"

Li gongzi turned around and looked at Tang Hao.

Tang Hao's brows furrowed. This ore was really too hard. Once they reached the center, this ice sea divine metal was definitely not just ten thousand years old, but possibly twenty thousand years old. With the two of them's methods and strength, it would probably be very difficult to obtain.

“Is there really no other way?”

Tang Hao was still unwilling to give up.

“There’s only half an hour left. If you don’t hurry up, you won’t be able to get anything!” The old Demon Dragon laughed complacently.

“Brother Tang, why don’t we take the ordinary ores first?” Li gongzi said.

“The ancestor of technique’s divine eye is useless. I’m afraid it won’t work either, the time is too short ...”

Tang Hao’s mind raced as he considered all the methods he had.

“Oh right, how could I have forgotten? I still have a treasure!”

Tang Hao’s eyes suddenly lit up.

“Brother Li, don’t panic. I still have one thing that I can try!” Tang Hao said.

“Oh? What kind of treasure is it?”

Li gongzi was stunned and asked in surprise.

She had even used her Supreme artifact and still could not break it. What other more powerful treasures could brother Tang have?

She had heard that he had a bow, but it was at most of the same level as her sword, so it was still useless.

“Yo! Kid, you still don’t want to admit defeat!” When the old demonic Dragon heard this, he laughed, “what treasures do you have? quickly take them out! Let me see what kind of peerless treasure it is!”

There was a hint of ridicule in his tone.

“I have a blade!”

Tang Hao raised his hand. A knife appeared in his palm. It was a thick butcher’s knife.

“This ... This is ...”

Li gongzi’s beautiful eyes were wide open. She looked at the knife in Tang Hao’s hand in disbelief.

The old demonic Dragon was also stunned as he looked at the blade in a daze.

Then, he laughed so hard that his body swayed.

“Hahaha! Just this broken blade? I thought it was some kind of treasure! So it’s just a broken blade. Kid, are you serious?” He sneered presumptuously, “are you sure this is a treasure knife and not some pig slaughtering knife?”

Li Gongzi’s face twitched, and he was speechless.

This saber’s appearance was really hard to describe in a few words!

Tang Hao did not say a word. He dashed to the center of the mine and swung his blade at the thick mine.

Kacha!

The hard ore vein cracked open.

The old Demon Dragon’s laughter also stopped.

The expression on his face instantly froze. Then, his eyes slowly widened, and his eyeballs almost popped out.
