

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1992

In the void above the mountain range of fortune.

Tang Hao was clad in a Kasaya as he stood in the air. His body glowed with Buddhist light, and a huge Buddha appeared behind him.

He took a deep breath, clenched his right fist, and punched the void in front of him.

With this punch, rings of dazzling Buddhist light burst out. In this Buddhist light, one could see many strange scenes. Countless hungry ghosts manifested. These hungry ghosts were ugly and ferocious.

A ghastly ghostly aura shot up into the sky.

“This is ... The path of the Hungry Ghost!”

Tang Hao mumbled as he retracted his fist force.

Then, he punched out again. This time, it was hell. Some were filled with flames, while others were filled with ice ...

“This is the path of hell!”

Tang Hao punched again and again, and the phenomenon was different each time.

These were the so-called six paths of Buddhism. They were the path of hungry Ghoul, the path of beast, the path of hell, the path of human, the path of Asura, and the path of heaven.

Tang Hao was familiar with the six paths of reincarnation.

The six sacred Buddhas used this as an idea to combine all kinds of martial arts of Buddhism to create this six divine fists.

“I’ve heard the Mirage sea mention the six sacred Buddhas before. They were once famous experts in the West Sea astral. They should be the same as the heaven reverse Emperor, soul Emperor, and ancestor of technique. They should all be at the seventh or eighth tribulation.”

“The six divine fists he created is indeed powerful. With the enhancement of the Kasaya, the power it can unleash is unparalleled.”

“Right now, it’s only a single punch. If I can cultivate it to the highest level and combine the six moves into one, reaching the realm of six paths as one, the power will be even stronger!”

Tang Hao said to himself.

In just a few days, he had already mastered the six paths of divine fist. He was only one move away from mastering the six paths return to one.

He was also quite satisfied with the power of this fist technique.

After a short break, he continued to practice.

In the sky, there were shocking rays of Buddhist light that would burst out from time to time. The rumbling sounds were like thunder, rolling out and resounding through the earth.

Two days had passed, and Tang Hao did not rest. He was getting more and more skilled. His mastery of the fist technique had reached the realm of great accomplishment.

He took a deep breath and threw another punch.

This punch was different from the previous ones. On his fist, six rings of Buddhist light bloomed. The path of Hungry Ghost, the path of animals, the path of hell ... The six paths of reincarnation were all revealed within.

This punch combined the previous six punches, and its power was five to six times that of a single punch.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

The void couldn't withstand such a powerful force. Black cracks began to appear and spread forward along with the fist force.

"Hu!"

After a while, Tang Hao retracted his fist and heaved a sigh of relief.

The six paths divine fist technique was finally completed!

He lowered his body and was about to return to the mountain range of fortune. At this moment, a round of applause came from the void. Following that, a gentle and familiar voice came down.

"Brother Tang, congratulations!"

"It's you?"

Tang Hao looked up and saw a beam of red light in the sky. It was a Red Bird, and a graceful figure stood on its back.

She landed gracefully, her clothes fluttering in the wind. Her beautiful face was breathtakingly beautiful.

"How long have you been watching?"

Tang Hao stopped and said to her.

"Not long, only half a day!"

Li gongzi landed, collected the bird, and smiled. That pair of bright and beautiful eyes curved slightly, like a crescent moon. It was especially beautiful.

Tang Hao was surprised.

She had been looking at him for a long time, but he still hadn't noticed.

"It seems that I was too focused on practicing the fist technique, so I neglected it. However, it could also be that she was too far away, so I didn't sense her."

Tang Hao said to himself.

"Brother Li, why did you come?" Tang Hao said seriously.

This young master Li had come to the gate of fortune before, but that was only an avatar. This one in front of him was clearly his main body.

"Why? can't I come to you if there's nothing?"

Li gongzi pursed his lips and smiled, his expression was a little charming.

"This ... You can't say that! However, this is the first time your main body has come to the gate of fortune, right?" Tang Hao said, scratching his head.

"That's true!" Li gongzi nodded.

Then, her beautiful eyes fell on Tang Hao's Kasaya, and her eyes glowed with a strange light. "Is this the legendary Kasaya of the Supreme Buddha? I really didn't expect that you'd have another supreme weapon so soon after we parted!"

There was a hint of envy in her tone.

Even though she was the eldest young master of Vermillion Bird heaven, she only had one supreme weapon on her. Tang Hao, on the other hand, had several Supreme weapons even though he did not have any background. The bow and the armor he had previously had already made her envious.

Now, there was one more.

A person with three Supreme artifacts was truly shocking.

"You know about it?" Tang Hao said.

"Of course, it's such a sensational news! You don't know this, but ever since you wreaked havoc in Emperor Pan City, everyone in the thirty-three heavens has been paying special attention to your news. Once you make a move, the news will spread throughout the thirty-three heavens. "

"Of course, I was also the first to know about your glorious deeds!"

“Tsk tsk! I really couldn’t tell that you’re so smart. So many people set up a trap to ambush you, but you played them all and even snatched Hanhan away. They’d hate you to death!”

Li gongzi said.

She couldn’t help but laugh as she spoke. She felt that the people of the Yao clan and Jiang clan were somewhat pitiful.

“What glorious deeds? brother Li, You must be joking!”

Tang Hao laughed.

“Alright, let’s get down to business. The reason I came to see you today is actually related to that group of people.” Li gongzi said seriously.

“Oh?” “What’s the matter?” Tang Hao was surprised. “Is it related to them?”

“This matter is related to your Kasaya. Everything started with your Kasaya.” Li gongzi said.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows. He was even more confused.

“You probably don’t know, but they are currently searching for the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard!” Young master Li said, “according to the news I heard, when they found the Buddhist cultivator’s body in the demon burial abyss, they found something else besides this Kasaya.”

“This discovery is also related to the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard! The heavenly Buddha Academy is one of the three sacred grounds of Buddhism in the ancient times. Its Foundation is so deep that it doesn’t lose to any orthodoxy in the thirty-three heavens. Think about it, how many treasures are there in its ruins?”

Tang Hao’s expression changed when he heard that.

As one of the sacred grounds of Buddhism, no one knew how many treasures were hidden in the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard. Tribulation weapons, pills, Scriptures ... Even if only a portion of the treasures of the heavenly Buddha courtyard remained, it would still be a huge treasure today.

Most importantly, there might be the moonlight Treasure King Scripture and other Buddhist martial arts Scriptures in the ruins. That was the most attractive thing to Tang Hao.
