

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1993

Tang Hao took a deep breath and suppressed his excitement.

“Did they find it?”

Li gongzi shook his head, “no, they are still looking for it. On the body, they not only found the Kasaya, but also the Buddha cultivator’s personal belongings, and there was a token among them.”

“What token?”

“The identity token of a heavenly Buddha Academy disciple!” Li gongzi said word by word.

Tang Hao was surprised at first, but he quickly realized what was going on. If the Buddhist cultivator from a thousand years ago had found a lost Kasaya by chance, he would not have the identity token of a disciple of the heavenly Buddha court.

This was because the owner of this Kasaya was a Supreme Being of Buddhism.

Since he had the identity token of a disciple of the heavenly Buddha courtyard, he either had some sort of relationship with the heavenly Buddha courtyard or had been to the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard.

Therefore, the hundred clan Alliance had become suspicious and began to use this to search for the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard.

As long as they investigated the Buddhist cultivator’s identity and his whereabouts a thousand years ago, they would definitely be able to find some clues.

“That token is also a treasure. It has the effect of calming one’s mind and helping one to comprehend Dharma. That’s why the Buddhist cultivator brought it with him.” Li gongzi said, “now, they are busy tracking down this person’s identity and tracking down his whereabouts.”

“However, it happened more than a thousand years ago. It’s not easy to investigate, so there are no results yet.”

“Indeed, it’s been so long, it’s hard to find out.” Tang Hao nodded.

“By the way, brother li, how did you know that they came to find you?” Tang Hao asked after a pause.

“No, they didn’t. They wouldn’t dare to come to thirty-three heavens for such a thing.” Li gongzi shook his head and said, “however, I have a spy among them, and his level is quite high, so I can get this information.”

“I see!” Tang Hao understood.

With li gongzi’s identity, this was indeed not difficult.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows. He had a lot of questions.

“The heavenly Buddhist court was one of the three holy grounds of Buddhism in the ancient times. It was famous in the ancient times. Even if it’s because it’s been a long time, there should be some ancient books that have been passed down!”

“Whether it’s your thirty-three heavens or those clans, they have all existed since ancient times. It’s impossible for there to be no records!”

Tang Hao was confused.

In his opinion, the location of such a famous ancient ruin should be fixed. At most, there would be a small world, but he couldn’t find the entrance.

In the starry sky of the lower realm, the location of many ancient ruins was unknown, because there were faults in the records. But in Pangu world, there was obviously no such problem.

“Also, how did the heavenly Buddha courtyard and the other two great Holy Lands, dipamkara temple and Rulai Buddhist sect, disappear? If the heavenly Buddha courtyard was destroyed by someone, I’m afraid there’s nothing left in the ruins.”

Tang Hao said.

Li Gongzi hesitated for a moment. “Actually, I know why the three Holy Lands disappeared and how the ancient Buddhism declined. It’s because the ancestors of my Vermillion Bird heaven were also involved in this matter.”

“Oh?”

Tang Hao’s expression changed when he heard that. “You’re saying that the rumors about the war between the immortals and the Buddhas are true?”

“That’s right!” Young master Li nodded and said, “In the ancient books of my Vermillion Bird heaven, this battle between Immortals and Buddhas was mentioned. However, the ancient books did not mention much about the situation of this battle. I only know that at that time, the three Holy Lands of Buddhism did have a war with many orthodoxies in the 33 heavens. As for why it happened, I am not sure.”

“It was this battle that caused Buddhism to decline! The remnants of the three sacred grounds of Buddhism, the dipamkara temple and the Tathagata divine sect, abandoned their mountain gates and escaped into the void. They disappeared, and the heavenly Buddha courtyard was breached.”

“However, our 33 heavens’ Alliance Army didn’t gain any advantage either. The remnants of the heavenly Buddha Academy activated the formation and came to a mutual destruction. Our 33 heavens’ Alliance Army also suffered heavy casualties.”

“Didn’t we break through?” Tang Hao asked.

Young master Li smiled bitterly. "It was broken, but you don't know. Because of that formation, the void collapsed. The ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard were also swallowed by the void crack and can't be found anymore."

"Why does this situation seem so familiar?"

Tang Hao mumbled.

This was not the first time he had seen such a situation. Back then, the ancient Kunwu ruins and the 19th continent that had disappeared in Qiyuan were similar situations.

"Back then, the Alliance Army also took away many treasures from the heavenly Buddha courtyard, but they didn't have time to take many of them. Therefore, I'm sure that there are still many treasures inside!" Li gongzi said, "the problem now is how to find the passage and enter the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard."

"Do you know the identity of that Buddhist cultivator?" Tang Hao asked.

"I know! His Buddhist name is ku Xin and he is an elder of a Buddhist faction called the kuyun temple. This kuyun temple is not a big faction and is only a small one. The hundred clan Alliance has already rushed over to investigate the kuyun temple. They want to find out monk ku Xin's whereabouts from a thousand years ago."

Li gongzi said.

"So we're just going to wait?" "Should we go and check it out too?" Tang Hao asked.

Li gongzi smiled and said, "it's boring to just wait. Of course, we're going to check it out. We'll get closer to them. When they have a breakthrough, we can also react at the first moment. We won't let them get ahead of us."

"Good! Let's not delay any further, we'll set off now!"

Tang Hao took out a communication talisman and threw it toward the creation peak.

He didn't know how long this trip would take, so he had to inform master Zao Hua first.

"Let's go!"

Li gongzi flicked his sleeve, and the boat flew out. It instantly expanded and stopped in front of the two.

She jumped onto the treasured boat. After she sat down, she began to activate it. The treasured boat turned into a stream of light and quickly left into the distance.

Kuyun temple was located in a corner of the spiritual wilderness. It was very unremarkable among the many forces in the spiritual wilderness. Because it was a Buddhist, it only had a few third tribulation cultivators. It could only be considered a small, remote force, just like the thousand spirit sect of the demon Star Mountain.

The distance between the northern wilderness and the spiritual wilderness was very far, but with the speed of this eight-tribulation Emperor weapon boat, it only took less than a day to arrive.

In the end, the boat stopped in the void outside the mountain range where the kuyun temple was.

Young master Li looked forward and said, "brother Tang, their people have left. They have found some clues. According to monk kuxin's whereabouts a thousand years ago, they have determined dozens of suspicious places."

"Now, they've split into several teams and are searching for them one by one."

"They're pretty efficient. " "Can you get a list of all the suspicious locations?" Tang Hao mumbled.

"This is easy! This name list was given by the withered cloud temple. Let's go down and get another one. Let's go and look for it too. Maybe we'll be lucky and find it first!"

Li gongzi smiled, and the boat sank and landed on the kuyun temple.
