

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1995

“Dongyao mountain, no!”

“You can cross off the crying Crane Mountain!”

Tang Hao and Li gongzi searched the places on the list one by one.

At the same time, they received news from the hundred clan Alliance from time to time, but they also found nothing. They would also cross out the places they had searched.

Three days later, half of the locations on the list had been searched.

“Next, let’s go here! Qilin’s Finger Mountain!”

Li gongzi chose one of the remaining 20 or so locations.

She furrowed her brows and said thoughtfully, “I feel that this Qilin’s toe mountain is very suspicious!” I’ve rearranged these locations according to the time. This Qilin’s Finger Mountain is the place monk kuxin went to after he entered the Saint realm. ”

“According to the biography, he didn’t go out for a long time after he returned from the Qilin’s Finger Mountain. It says that he was in seclusion to cultivate the Dharma!”

“It’s normal for xiuzhe to go into seclusion, but I vaguely feel that this time is not normal. ”

Tang Hao fell into deep thought when he heard that.

Li gongzi continued, “I always thought that ku Xin must be at the second or third tribulation level to be able to enter the remains. That’s why I always chose the latter locations. But now that I think about it, this might not be the case.”

“If that’s the case,” Tang Hao muttered, “then it’s been more than a hundred years since he entered the ruins and his Kasaya was exposed. He’s really well-hidden.”

“Ku Xin is not an ordinary person, he can definitely do it.” Li gongzi said.

“Then let’s take a look at this place first!” Tang Hao said.

“Let’s hope that we’ll be able to gain something this time!” Li gongzi muttered.

They had already searched through half of the place. If there was still nothing left in the remaining places, then they would be at their wit’s end.

After all, that was a thousand years ago, and there were only a few confirmed locations. If the list did not include any of the locations, it was possible that monk ku Xin had just happened to pass by a random place, discovered the crack, and entered the remains.

This way, they had no way of finding him.

Of course, there was another possibility. Monk ku Xin had never entered the place on his own. It was possible that someone else had entered the place before and took out the treasure, which happened to be in his possession.

“Let’s look around first!”

Tang Hao’s expression was serious.

He wasn’t sure if he could find it.

The next moment, the treasured boat trembled and sped away.

Soon, they arrived at the Qilin Finger Mountain.

The two of them once again used their spiritual pupils to search.

“There’s a crack!”

Soon, they found a spatial Rift in a corner of the mountain range.

Tang Hao used the same trick again. He summoned a large number of split souls and poured them into the crack.

“This side ... There’s none!”

“This is a dead end!”

He sat down cross-legged and used these split souls to search every void fork.

“Eh? Where is this place?”

When he connected his consciousness with one of the soul Fragments, he was stunned. The soul fragment had just passed through another crack in the void and entered another crack.

Suddenly, a blinding golden light appeared before his eyes.

Tang Hao was very familiar with the golden light. It was the light of Buddha!

“There it is!”

He exclaimed in a low voice, a little excited.

Then, he swept toward the golden light. After getting closer, he could see it even more clearly. It was a Pearl, extremely large, and it emitted an astonishing Buddhist light. This Pearl was embedded in a Pagoda.

He looked left and right, and around the towering Pagoda, he saw towers and temples.

There was no end to it at all.

These towers and temples were all in ruins. They weren't corroded by time, but rather, they had experienced a fierce battle.

"This Must Be the Place!"

Tang Hao was getting more and more excited.

He scanned his surroundings and soon found the symbol of the heavenly Buddha courtyard on a temple.

"I found it!"

On the treasured boat, Tang Hao opened his eyes and said happily.

"Really?"

Li gongzi was stunned and still found it a little unbelievable.

"It can't be wrong! It's the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard. I can see their symbol!" Tang Hao said. He even described the general situation inside.

"Then there's no mistake!" Li gongzi said happily. Because of her excitement, her pretty face was a little red.

"Let's hurry in! You lead the way and use the boat to enter. This boat can not only fly into the sky, it can also fly through the cracks in the void."

Li gongzi urged, a little impatient.

"Alright!"

"Yes," Tang Hao replied and called back the other souls. Then, he guided the boat through the cracks and finally arrived at the void where the ruins were.

The ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard quietly floated in this deathly silent void. This ruins was very large, like a continent, and it was covered with Buddhist buildings.

At a glance, there were ruins everywhere, and there were even corpses.

"It's indeed the heavenly Buddha courtyard!" Li gongzi put away the boat and landed. Her eyes swept over these bones, and she showed a bit of emotion. Because among these bones, there were not only monks from the heavenly Buddha courtyard, but also cultivators from the thirty-three heavens.

Among them were the ancestors of the Vermillion Bird heaven.

“The battle back then was extremely brutal. Although the 33 heavens were strong, not all orthodoxies took part. Moreover, Buddhism was not weak either. At that time, Buddhism was prosperous and could be compared to our immortal Dao.”

“At that time, there were still Supreme-beings, and the Supreme-beings of both sides also fought a fierce battle. The battle was tragic.”

“Look, that’s the ancestor of the East Pole, that’s the ancestor of The White Tiger, and that’s the ancestor of my Suzaku!”

Li gongzi swept over and pointed at the bones.

“Brother Tang, you don’t mind letting me have all these bones and treasures, right? I want to take them back to the 33 heavens and return their orthodoxies. I’m going to take these seniors back and bury them in my Vermillion Bird heaven. ”

“Alright!”

Tang Hao nodded.

He had seen the corpses and treasures of these people. They were nothing special. At most, they were eight tribulation weapons, and there might even be Emperor weapons. It was nothing to him. He would just treat it as a favor to young master Li.

After all, it was all thanks to her that he could have such an opportunity.

“Brother Tang, thank you!”

Li gongzi cupped his hands solemnly and said gratefully, “in return, I will not fight for the treasures of the heavenly Buddha courtyard. Whatever I find, I will give it to you, brother Tang!”

“There’s no need for that!” Tang Hao waved his hand and smiled. “We’ll just split what we find evenly. These are all your ancestors from the 33 heavens. It’s only right for you to bring them back. I understand.”

“This ...” Young master Li was still a little hesitant.

“Let’s go! Hurry up and find the treasure, or else I’m afraid they’ll find their way here!”

Tang Hao smiled. He moved forward and began to search for treasures.
