

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1999

Li gongzi said in a low voice.

The two of them quickly rushed over. Being able to be placed in such a position meant that this Buddhist scripture was extraordinary. It was probably the most powerful Buddhist scripture here.

Tang Hao was overjoyed when he got closer and took a closer look.

“It’s the moonlight Treasure King Scripture!”

This Buddhist scripture was one of the Supreme Buddhist scriptures of Buddhism. It was also the Scripture that baoyue guangwang Buddha had cultivated.

It was also because he had cultivated this Buddhist scripture that he had received the honorific title of Moonlight Treasure Buddha Lord.

“It’s actually this Buddhist scripture!”

Li gongzi exclaimed, and his eyes also became a little hot.

This was a Supreme Buddhist scripture that was famous throughout the ages. It was the treasure of the heavenly Buddha courtyard. How could she not be tempted?

She moved and was about to rush forward, but the next moment, she stopped and her expression changed. She could sense that there was a powerful ancient restriction in the surroundings of the Buddhist scriptures.

This was a restriction set up by an eminent monk of the ancient heavenly Buddha Academy to protect the treasure of the Academy. One could imagine how powerful it was.

If she stepped in with her 6th tribulation strength, she would probably die instantly, her soul would scatter.

Tang Hao’s expression changed when he noticed that.

“This restrictive spell ... Is not easy to break!” He said with a frown.

If a restriction wasn’t very powerful, it could be broken with a little effort. However, if it was too powerful, it would trigger a counterattack, and only death would await.

Li gongzi also shook his head with a helpless look.

The two of them circled the place a few times, thinking about how to break the restriction.

Such a peerless treasure was placed in front of them, but they couldn’t get it. No one would be willing to accept this.

"I'm quite skilled in the Dao of restrictions. Ordinary ancient restrictions can't pose a problem for me. I can break them easily. But this restriction ... Is too difficult!" Li gongzi's eyebrows were tightly knitted, and he had a bit of a headache.

This restriction was too complicated.

Tang Hao sighed. There was nothing he could do.

This might have been set up by a Supreme martial artist, and no matter how high his attainments in the field of seals were, he would not be able to break it.

He paced around for a while. Suddenly, he had an idea.

"How about ... I put on this Kasaya and go in to try it on?"

Tang Hao said as he took out his Kasaya.

"This ..." Young master Li was stunned and hesitated.

This Kasaya was an item of the heavenly Buddha courtyard. It came from the moonlight Treasure Buddha Lord and had the aura that he had left behind. In theory, there was a chance to deceive the restriction and enter.

However, this was only in theory. What if it didn't work?

What if something else was needed, such as an elder's token or some other treasure, to remove the restriction?

If he stepped in rashly, he would die!

"There's still some risk. Why don't we think of another way?" Li gongzi said hesitantly.

"There are definitely risks, but this is our only way!" "I'm fine," Tang Hao said resolutely. "Besides, with this Kasaya, I can escape even if the restriction is triggered."

"That's true! After all, this is a suit of Supreme armor. It has a powerful defense and can withstand a strike from the restrictive spell. You still have time to escape." Li gongzi nodded.

After a moment of silence, she nodded. "Then we'll do it this way. Put on the Kasaya and go in to check it out. If something's wrong, you'll immediately come out. You must be careful."

"Don't worry!"

Tang Hao took a deep breath, then put on the Kasaya and walked to the edge of the restriction.

He raised his foot and very carefully took a step forward, stepping into the range of the jinzhi.

In an instant, waves of immortal Qi fluctuated in the void around him. The huge Buddha statue also trembled, and a pair of Buddha eyes shone with a dazzling light. A terrible fluctuation spread out from the pair of Buddha eyes.

Tang Hao's heart skipped a beat. He stopped in his tracks and stood frozen on the spot. He did not dare to move.

Under the suppression of this aura, he felt cold all over, as if he had fallen into an ice cellar.

"It's too terrifying! It was definitely set up by a Supreme level expert!"

Tang Hao thought to himself.

He was a little nervous and his mind was perturbed.

And outside, young master Li was also sweating and extremely nervous.

It was only a few seconds, but it felt like centuries.

The fluctuations of the immortal Qi in the void gradually dissipated, and the light in the pair of Buddha eyes also gradually converged. It seemed that everything was fine.

However, Tang Hao did not dare to be careless. He remained in that position for a long time before he carefully took half a step forward and nervously observed the situation around him.

He waited for a long time, but nothing happened. Tang Hao sighed in relief.

To be a little more safe, he activated the monastic robe, and his entire body glowed with Buddha's light. Then, he slowly walked forward, observing the situation in his surroundings from time to time. As long as there was something wrong, he would turn around and run.

Fortunately, the restrictive spell was not activated even when he walked to the front of the Buddha statue.

"It seems like this Kasaya is effective! It's possible that this restriction was set up by the moonlight Treasure Buddha King." Tang Hao said to himself. He was completely at ease.

He leaped lightly onto the Buddha statue and grabbed the golden light before quickly retreating.

"Hu!"

Tang Hao heaved a sigh of relief when he stepped out of the room. He felt as if his entire body was at ease.

Then, he picked up the Scripture in his hand, flipped through it, and revealed a look of wild joy.

When he got the Kasaya, he had wanted this Buddhist scripture. The Buddhist scripture and the Kasaya were a perfect match, and they could unleash a stronger power.

“This is the Supreme Buddhist scripture of the heavenly Buddha courtyard?”

Li gongzi came forward, borrowed the Scripture, flipped through it a few times, and exclaimed.

“I can’t copy Scriptures of this level, and I don’t need them. You can take them first and let me take a look after you’re done cultivating. I’m not really interested in Buddhist techniques, but reading all the Scriptures is beneficial to my cultivation.”

Li gongzi returned the Scripture.

“Alright!”

“Okay,” Tang Hao replied, then put the Scripture away.

At this time, the many split souls had already collected the sutras on this level. After copying them, they continued to collect the sutras on the next level.

There were a total of seven floors in the Scripture chamber. It took them a lot of time to sweep through all of them.

After leaving the Scripture Depository, they continued to collect treasures.

The ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard were huge. There were countless temples and pagodas. Even with the Army of split souls, it would take a long time to collect all of them.

Tang Hao was in the middle of collecting them when he suddenly stopped. He seemed to have sensed something. He snapped back to his senses and looked in the direction where they had come from.

“They’re here!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. His expression darkened.

When he had entered, he had left a few wisps of his soul at the other side of the spatial crack to guard against the hundred clan Alliance. This was because they also had a list of names and were looking for the heavenly Buddha courtyard. They could find this place at any time.

“So fast!”

Li gongzi’s face also changed.

The hundred clan Alliance had the advantage in numbers. Once they entered, they couldn’t continue to collect treasures.

Moreover, once they were blocked by them, they couldn’t escape even if they wanted to.

“Are you leaving or not?” Li gongzi said, “it’s still not too late. As long as we hide our tracks and wait for them to all come in, we can sneak out.”

“Let’s wait!” Tang Hao thought for a moment. “Let’s hide first and wait and see. There might be other treasures here.”

“Alright!” Li gongzi nodded, “with the strength of the two of us, even if we are discovered, as long as we try our best to break out, we still have a chance to get out.”

The two of them discussed for a while. Tang Hao recalled all his soul clones and clones and went into hiding.
