

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2004

On creation peak, a ray of light fell.

Tang Hao took out a jade talisman and sent it to the main hall to inform Zao huaizi. Then, he hurried back to his own cave abode.

He had gained a lot from this trip, and he had to organize and digest it.

His harvest this time, whether it was the grade of the treasures or the quantity, was incomparable to the past.

During the trial of Dao, he killed a group of 6th tribulation saints and obtained their treasures. In panhuang city, he robbed countless 5th and 6th tribulation saints and obtained a large number of treasures. However, even if all these treasures were added up, they were not even one-ten-thousandth of what he had obtained this time.

This time, his harvest was too great. The collection of an ancient Buddhist sacred land was too shocking.

He couldn't even remember how many treasures he had obtained. He had collected countless treasures himself, and even his split soul had helped him collect them, let alone his clone.

Elixirs, tribulation weapons, spiritual materials, spiritual medicine, cultivation techniques ...

There were all kinds of treasures.

"In the past, it could only be considered a small fortune. This is what you call instant wealth!"

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He took out his treasures and began to organize them.

With a wave of his sleeve, countless treasure lights gushed out like a tide and piled up into a mountain. Precious seven tribulation treasured armors, tribulation weapons, and ten-thousand-year-old spiritual herbs were piled up like cabbages.

He had only taken out a small portion, but the cave abode was already full. Tang Hao had no choice but to stop. He summoned his split souls and began to organize them.

Each type of treasure was placed according to their grade.

Tribulation weapons were classified according to the number of tribulations, first tribulation, second tribulation, third tribulation ...

As for spirit herbs, they would be ranked according to their age.

The Scriptures were arranged according to the cultivation technique's level. The alchemy, weapon, and array Dao books had to be taken out and placed separately.

Tang Hao was already very familiar with organizing treasures. He had his own way of doing so.

“I didn’t get too many top-grade treasures this time. None of them could be compared to the Kasaya I’m wearing. That moon treasure light King Sutra might be one of them. After all, it’s one of the Supreme techniques of the Buddhist sect.”

“Eleven Seven tribulations relics, compared to the supremely powerful Suan ni, are still a little lacking.”

“It’s a pity. If the ninth floor of the treasure Pavilion hadn’t been emptied, there would definitely be even more top-grade treasures. There might even be divine materials that could rival the creation true gold and the 10000-year godly iron embryo mother. If that were the case, My Immortal abode would be able to advance another step.”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He was a little disappointed.

Not being able to find any divine materials was indeed a great regret.

That day, the Buddhist Academy was a large sect that refined weapons and had the highest level of refining. There must have been many divine materials in the sect, but unfortunately, they were all snatched by the people of the 33 heavens.

“But it’s still not bad. There are still so many treasures left. There aren’t many top-tier treasures this time, but the grades of the treasures are generally not low. Moreover, there are many of them. There are more than a thousand kinds of gold and iron ores that are slightly inferior to divine materials. There are also more than a thousand Buddha’s light armors.”

Tang Hao’s brows relaxed again.

Although he felt a little regretful, he was still very satisfied to be able to obtain so many treasures.

“Most of the treasures were obtained from the treasure Pavilion, Sutra Pavilion, herb garden, and stupa. The rest were scattered all over the place. The number of treasures collected by the split soul was also quite astonishing, but the quality was not high. Some were even broken.”

“The treasure Pavilion has the most treasures,” ye mo said. “There are tribulation weapons, spiritual materials, elixirs, and spiritual medicines. They range from Dao seeking, immortal transformation, all the way to the sixth or seventh tribulation of the sage realm. Among them, the Buddha’s light armor and the many body-tempering pills are the most useful. You can take out a portion and give it to the elders of the Fortune sect.”

“We can’t find so many users of the Buddha’s light armor at the moment. However, that batch of pills can help the disciples of creation sect increase their combat strength rapidly.”

“You can keep all the rare spiritual materials and spiritual medicine. They can be used for forging weapons and alchemy in the future.”

“The sutras in the sutras Depository are very complicated. There’s body refining, spirit cultivating, Buddhist martial arts, Buddhist pill Dao, weapon Dao, talisman Dao, and so on. It’s a huge treasure. I must read all of them, especially the weapon Dao. The heavenly Buddha Academy’s weapon Dao is the best in the ancient times. It’s very beneficial for me to improve my weapon refining skills.”

“We can make a few more copies of these Sutras. We can give one to the gate of fortune and one to Kun Lun.”

“I must practice the moon treasure light King Sutra. That way, when I work with the Kasaya, I’ll be able to unleash more power.”

“As for the spiritual herbs we got from the herb garden, they are all ten thousand years old and extremely precious. You have to keep this for yourself to use for alchemy in the future.”

“Also, this apothecary rice has to be thoroughly researched as soon as possible. After figuring out its habits, we have to cultivate its seeds and spread them on a large scale in the medicine fields of creation sect.”

“Finally, there are the six seven tribulations relics!”

Tang Hao organized the treasures and made some arrangements.

In the end, his gaze fell on the six seven tribulations relics in his palm.

These six sariras were of different shapes, but they were all crystal clear and made of glass. They exuded a shocking Buddhist power.

A sarira was the essence left behind by an eminent monk after he passed away. The power contained in it was not something that elixirs of the same level could compare to.

He estimated that the power contained in these six seven tribulations relics could allow him to break through to the late stage of the sixth tribulation. It could even help his two avatars break through to the middle stage.

This way, his strength would increase greatly again.

However, Tang Hao was hesitant.

That was because he thought of the moonlight Treasure King Scripture, which cultivated the Supreme Buddha body, the moonlight Treasure King body. It was a perfect match for the Kasaya, and Tang Hao had to cultivate it.

It was not easy to cultivate this Buddha body. After all, it was one of the Supreme Buddha bodies of the Buddhist sect and required a vast amount of spiritual essence.

Therefore, he was in a dilemma. Should he use these six sariras to increase his cultivation, or should he use them to refine the moonlight Treasure King body?

He pondered for a long time, weighing the pros and cons of various aspects, and finally decided to cultivate the light King body!

“This sarira is a relic of an eminent monk. It’s naturally much more effective in cultivating the Buddha body. Besides, as long as I master the light King body and use it with the Kasaya, my strength will increase greatly. It won’t be inferior to raising my cultivation to the late-stage.”

Tang Hao thought about it for a while, then made up his mind.

“Before I start cultivating, I have to go out!”

Tang Hao was not in a hurry. Before he went into seclusion to cultivate, he needed to go out and give some of the treasures he had just tidied up to fate creator. He also needed to cultivate the herbal rice and sow them in the herbal field.

After doing all this, he could go into seclusion and cultivate the Buddha body in peace.

After leaving the cave, he went straight to the main hall and met with Zao Huazi. He gave him the things that he had prepared. Then, he gathered the elders and gave each of them a seventh tribulation Buddha’s light armor.

In the end, he went to the medicinal field and gathered a group of alchemists. He then took out the apothecary rice and studied it together.

“This is the legendary medicine rice? I’ve heard that it’s an ancient Wondrous Item!”

“It’s amazing! As long as this medicine rice is cultivated, it will definitely shake the entire pill world. ”

The group of alchemists was very excited.

They were all alchemy Saints from all over Pangu, and their attainments in the field of medicine were top-notch. After a day or two of research, they soon found a way to breed the seeds, and then they sowed them.

Tang Hao returned to his cave abode and began to study the moonlight Treasure King Scripture.
