

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2005

“This light King body is truly amazing!”

Tang Hao put down the book in the cave abode and could not help but exclaim.

He had read many Scriptures and had seen at least thousands of body refining techniques. He had also seen many similar Buddhist golden body cultivation techniques in the lower realm. Back in the ancient clan of Dong Lin, many had cultivated the Golden body.

However, those so-called golden bodies were like heaven and earth when compared to the light King body. They were on completely different levels.

The light King body was one of the Supreme Buddha bodies of the Buddha way. It was extremely wondrous and its power was unparalleled. Moonlight Treasure Buddha King had relied on this Buddha body to make a name for himself and leave his name behind in history.

“There are countless physiques in the world. There are Dao physiques, divine physiques, and sacred physiques. There are too many of them and I have seen many of them. However, the most powerful ones are still the Yao clan’s sacred lotus physique and this Moonlight Treasure King physique.”

“The creation divine body is a little special. It’s not as powerful as these two physiques, but it has its own wondrous aspects. There’s no bottleneck before the sage realm, and you can become a Sage in one step!”

Tang Hao made a comparison. Of all the physiques he had seen so far, the sacred lotus body was the most powerful.

However, Tang Hao could not compare which one was stronger. He could only say that both of them were the best.

If Yao kongxuan had not been in a hurry to seek revenge after he had cultivated the saintly being, but had instead cultivated in peace and cultivated the saintly being to a stronger level before coming to find him, he might not have been his match.

However, the Yao clan was too anxious and careless. They didn’t expect him to have a heaven and earth origin embryo clone. That was why they were defeated and a part of the Black Lotus essence was taken away by him, causing their saintly being to become incomplete.

Now, Yao Kong Xuan, with his incomplete sacred lotus body, was not a big threat to him.

If he managed to cultivate the light King body, he would be able to take on the sacred lotus body at its peak without a problem.

“I must cultivate this light King body!”

Tang Hao’s heart was racing.

This was the first time he had cultivated this kind of physique. In the past, he had relied on God bones. At first, he had used the God bone of the winged Dragon, and then a piece of God spirit bone, which ensured the strength of his physical body.

Now that he had cultivated the light King body, his physical body would become even stronger.

“But ...”

However, Tang Hao quickly thought of another problem. He furrowed his brows.

If he had to change his entire body to cultivate the light King body, then what about the God spiritual bone in his body?

This God spirit bone had already transformed part of his body, and part of his flesh had already transformed into a God Spirit's body. Could it be fused with the light King body? Would the two conflict?

This was a problem that Tang Hao was very worried about.

He definitely wouldn't give up on the God spirit bone, and he also wanted to cultivate the light King body.

“I have to think of a way to modify the light King body and merge the two together.”

Tang Hao picked up the Scripture again and began to ponder.

The cultivation of the light King body was to absorb the essence of the moon and the sun to strengthen one's body and forge a Supreme Buddha body.

In that case, he could cultivate according to this method, but he wouldn't modify the God spirit bone. He could also fuse a portion of the moon essence and sun essence into the God spirit bone, allowing it to perfectly fuse with the light King body.

“We can try!”

Tang Hao read the scripture a few times, then simulated it in his mind. He began to try it out after he was confident.

He stepped out of the cave abode and set foot on the peak of creation peak.

He sat down cross-legged, put his palms together, and began to circulate his heart technique.

His lips moved and he chanted Buddhist incantations. They turned into golden talismans that circled around him.

It was midnight.

The sky was as dark as ink, and a crescent moon hung high in the sky, covered by clouds.

In the mountain range of fortune, there were many lights. Countless disciples were cultivating.

All of a sudden, the clouds in the sky dispersed, and the moonlight shone brightly, turning into a light curtain that was visible to the naked eye and pouring down. This scene was as if the Milky Way had fallen from the nine Heavens, which was extremely spectacular.

Everything within ten thousand miles could be seen clearly.

“What’s that?”

“What’s going on?”

On the vast land, countless cultivators raised their heads and looked at the sky with shock.

The moonlight covered the entire sky, which was too magnificent.

“That’s all moonlight?”

“Heavens! Who is this expert that is absorbing the moonlight?”

Then, they cried out in surprise.

This was clearly moonlight!

Someone was cultivating some kind of cultivation technique and drew the moonlight down.

However, this was a little too exaggerated!

Usually, when xiuzhe absorbed moonlight, they would only absorb it when the moonlight shone down. The more powerful ones could do this, drawing the moonlight down, but at most, they could only form beams of light.

But now, the moonlight was like a large river and sea, pouring down madly. It was really somewhat inconceivable.

“That’s amazing!”

“I think it must be a peerless master of the 7th tribulation who is practicing some peerless Tao technique, which caused such a phenomenon!”

They all gasped in admiration, revealing looks of worship.

“F * ck, which bastard dares to snatch the moonlight from me!”

“F * ck! Which old fart did this? this is too exaggerated!”

At this moment, the so-called peerless master was also cursing at this moment. He looked at the strange phenomenon in the sky, dumbfounded.

They had never seen such an exaggerated scene.

In some hidden places on the earth, the ferocious beasts and descendants of the great wilderness who cultivated by absorbing the moonlight were also shocked.

How ... How was it possible to attract so much moonlight at once?

“F * ck, is this the birth of some ancient godly beast?”

At some of the places where the descendants of the chaos gathered, a series of curses also broke out.

Most of the beasts relied on the essence of the sun and the moon to cultivate. They were originally absorbing it well, but this guy who came out of nowhere suddenly squeezed in and swept over the moonlight.

They all thought that some ancient divine beast had come into being. Only such a divine beast could do this.

“Not enough! It’s not enough!”

At this moment, Tang Hao mumbled at the peak of creation peak and continued to activate his mental cultivation method.

In an instant, the moonlight surged and poured down like a Silver River. Then, it fell on his body and was absorbed by him.

As the moonlight fell, it seeped into his skin, entered his body, melded into his flesh, blood, bones, and bones, rapidly transforming his Constitution.

At the same time, he took out a relic and placed it in front of his chest, starting to absorb it.

As he absorbed the moonlight, he also absorbed the power of the seven tribulations relic. His physical body was changing rapidly and becoming stronger. His skin began to glow like the moonlight.

A Holy and cold aura emanated from his body.

At the same time, a Buddhist aura gushed out of his body, and it was getting stronger and stronger.

“Motherf * cker! Again!”

“Who is this! Where did this bastard come from? can’t you just let me cultivate?”

That night, countless cultivators and beasts in the eight desolates looked up at the sky and cursed the instigator countless times.
