

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2007

In the blink of an eye, another month had passed.

It had been two months since the strange phenomenon appeared.

In these two months, the eight desolate lands continued to boil.

Everyone was discussing the strange phenomenon that had lasted for two months.

The four corners of the mountain range of fortune were filled with people every day. People from all races were trying their best to find out about this situation. However, they were helpless because the gate of fortune had been sealed. The formation was activated, and they could not find out anything.

The xiuzhe that had been complaining and the descendants of the chaos all accepted their fate. After scolding for so long, they were almost out of energy. They could only pray and hope that the kid would end it soon.

Another few days passed, and the strange phenomenon suddenly changed. It did not disappear, but instead intensified. The essence of the sun and moon poured down madly, and the scale was more than ten times the original.

“Heavens!”

The world was once again shocked.

The eight desolates were in an uproar again.

However, this situation only lasted for about ten days before the strange phenomenon suddenly disappeared.

At this time, on the peak of creation peak, Tang Hao finally opened his eyes. His skin was flowing with a shocking divine light, and his body was bursting with a shocking Buddhist light that was tens of thousands of feet tall. Under the cover of the Buddhist light, he looked solemn, like a Buddha.

“Light King body! It’s done!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He was overjoyed.

After two and a half months of cultivation, his light King body had finally reached major accomplishment!

To cultivate such a Supreme Buddha body in two and a half months, the speed was quite astonishing. This was all thanks to the few sariras.

The sarira was a Buddhist item, and it was a seventh tribulation one at that. Using it to cultivate such a Buddha body would yield twice the result with half the effort.

If he did not have these sariras, he would have to spend a few years to cultivate this Buddha body.

Then, he used his inner sight to check the God spirit bone in his chest.

The God spirit bone was complete and had already fused perfectly with the light King body.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao smiled with satisfaction.

His transformation could be considered a success. Now, his physical body had the power of both the light King body and the God spirit bone. It was even stronger than the simple Buddha body.

He estimated that his physical strength had increased by three to four times.

His previous physical body was already quite strong at this stage. With such a large improvement, it was quite terrifying. He was sure that no one in the six tribulations was his opponent in terms of physical body.

More importantly, he still had the Supreme Kasaya. With this body, he could unleash even more power.

He clenched his fists and adjusted to his current strength. He laughed out loud, feeling very carefree.

As he stood up, he saw several figures rush over. The one in the lead was none other than Zao Huazi, and behind him were the two Grand elders Yun Qing and Yun LAN, the silver Peak Daoist, and the mud mountain four monsters.

“Congratulations!”

Zao huaizi laughed out loud, his face filled with joy.

“Congratulations, my Lord!”

“Mighty Lord!”

The four monsters of mud mountain giggled and began to flatter.

“Is this the famous Buddha body from the ancient times? This aura is indeed extraordinary!” Daoist yinfeng congratulated Tang Hao, then looked at him in amazement.

He was not only amazed by the powerful aura of the Buddha body, but also by the cultivation speed of his Lord.

It should be known that this was the Supreme Buddha body. In his opinion, it would take at least a few decades to cultivate it. However, this master only spent two and a half months. It was truly shocking.

This master’s Divine Art was getting more and more powerful!

He was secretly amazed. He admired his master even more now.

Tang Hao exchanged pleasantries with them. Then, he asked about the gate of fortune and the situation outside.

“The sect? very good. The apothecary rice you brought back has been planted successfully. We’ve all eaten it and the effect is not bad. It’s especially suitable for those disciples and is easier to absorb than immortal crystals. Now, I’ve asked them to clear out more medicinal fields to plant this apothecary rice.”

“I’ve also distributed the pills you gave me. During this period of time, many people have broken through. Those 2nd tribulation ones have taken the pills and quickly broke through to the 3rd tribulation. The other 3rd and 4th tribulation ones have taken the pills and their strength has greatly improved.”

“And the mystical materials you gave me, I’ve asked many patriarchs to make all kinds of treasures for the disciples to equip.”

Zao huaizi first explained the situation of the sect.

Thanks to the large amount of resources that Tang Hao had brought back, the strength of the disciples had greatly improved.

“As for the situation outside, heh! You don’t know how much of a stir it has caused because of the strange phenomenon caused by your cultivation. In the past two and a half months, there have been people outside our mountain range. I don’t know how many people have scolded you for stealing their sun and moon essence!”

As he talked about the situation outside, Zao Huazi couldn’t help but laugh.

“There’s such a thing!”

Tang Hao was shocked.

He had never thought that such a situation would occur.

“What about the main clans? Any recent movements?” Tang Hao asked.

“This ... I’m not very sure either. The strange phenomenon you’ve caused recently has been too sensational, so I have no choice but to close the door!” Said Zao huaizi as he shook his head.

After chatting for a while, the group went to the main hall to celebrate.

Tang Hao went to the herbal field to check on the apothecary rice, then returned to his cave abode. He went to see sis Xiangyi and collected the ripe divine fruits of creation and some other spiritual herbs to make the pills.

This busy work took three to four days.

When he came out of the immortal's cave and took the elixir to Zao huaizi, he received a message from Master Li.

Tang Hao was shocked when he saw the message.

This news was about the hundred clan Alliance's movements.

According to the information that young master Li had gathered, the hundred clan Alliance had recently colluded with the great void heaven in order to deal with him. They paid a great price to get the great void heaven to take out their most precious treasure, a treasure called the great void divine wheel.

In the great void heaven, the most famous Dao technique was the time Dao law.

The great void divine wheel was said to be a divine weapon that could control time.

At the same time, it was also a divine weapon used for cultivation. As long as one entered this divine weapon, they would be able to cultivate for hundreds of years inside. To the outside world, it would only be a few days or a few months.

However, the Dao Law of Time was too powerful, and the price to activate such a treasure was extremely high. Even with the great void heaven's Foundation, it rarely used such a treasure.

This time, the hundred clan Alliance had paid a huge price to get the great void heaven to agree to activate this divine weapon so that the Holy Sons of the various clans could enter it to cultivate.

"Void divine wheel? It's truly a divine artifact!"

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He was quite envious of the divine weapon.

Time-type treasures were extremely rare, and they were countless times more precious than space-type treasures. This was the second time-type treasure he had ever known.

The first was a seal that he had snatched after killing the people of the divine dynasties in the lower realm.

However, the seal could only stop the time in the space inside and prolong the life of those who hid inside. It could not be compared to the void divine wheel.
