

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2008

“It seems like these clans are really going all out. Otherwise, why would the great void heaven take out such a divine weapon!”

Tang Hao said to himself.

Young master Li had mentioned in the message that when young master Taixu was comprehending the Dao laws, the great void heaven did not even use this divine weapon. Now that he could take it out and let someone outside use it, he must have received great benefits.

“This great void divine wheel can control time. A few hundred years inside is equivalent to a few months outside. Once those Holy Sons enter to cultivate, their cultivation will definitely increase greatly when they come out.”

“Now, these Saints are generally at the peak of the 5th tribulation. This is a threshold. If they advance one step further, they will need to comprehend the Dao law. However, it is very difficult to comprehend the Dao law. Even if they are all monstrous, it will take several years or even decades to comprehend a Dao law.”

“If I were to cultivate normally, they would not be able to catch up to me. But now that I have the void divine wheel, they can easily catch up to me and even surpass me.”

Tang Hao quickly understood why the hundred races were willing to spend so much.

This was because the Holy Sons could only surpass him by relying on the void divine wheel.

Even an ordinary person would be able to comprehend Dao laws after cultivating for a few hundred years inside, let alone a group of geniuses. They could comprehend not only one type of Dao law but many types of Dao laws.

As for the cultivation level, it was even simpler. Those great clans were all large clans with deep foundations, and could easily raise it.

A few months later, when they come out of the void divine wheel, they might be at the late stage of the sixth tribulation and comprehend three or four types of Dao laws. They might even be more powerful.

All of these were possible!

After all, that was a few hundred years!

It was extremely terrifying to give a monster a few hundred years of cultivation.

Furthermore, there were many ancient clans standing behind them.

After being toyed with by him time and time again, these clans were probably mad with anger. That was why they were willing to raise the strength of these Holy Sons at all costs so that they could deal with him.

“Things are a little troublesome!”

Tang Hao stood there with his brows furrowed.

A group of late-stage geniuses who had comprehended three to four Dao laws. Just thinking about it was terrifying!

What made him even more worried was that at the end, young master Li also mentioned that young master Taixu seemed to have taken this opportunity to enter the spirit wheel realm and cultivate with those monstrous talents.

Young master Taixu’s strength was beyond doubt. During the battle of the ancient deity plateau, Tang Hao had only won by a slight margin.

If he was given another few hundred years, it was hard to imagine how powerful he would be when he came out.

“We can’t be sure just how many years they can cultivate in there, but no matter how many years, even if it’s only a few decades, their strength will have greatly improved when they come out!”

Tang Hao felt a strong sense of urgency.

He had just cultivated the moonlight Treasure King body, and his strength had increased greatly. However, this was not enough. He had to quickly improve his cultivation and become stronger.

“I just got a large batch of ten-thousand-year-old spiritual herbs from the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard. I was busy cultivating the Buddha body before, but now I can finally use them to make pills. This batch of spiritual herbs is enough to improve my cultivation.”

“I can go to Emperor Pan City again and buy more spiritual herbs to make elixirs. I also need to catch some Saint beasts to make the six tribulations supplement pill.”

Tang Hao quickly came up with a plan.

A few months ‘time was not enough for him to comprehend a Dao law. However, he could improve his realm and reach the later stage of the sixth tribulation as soon as possible. This way, he would not be at a disadvantage when facing the Holy Sons of the various races who had come out of seclusion.

“By the way, not only do I need to improve my strength, but the gate of fortune also needs to improve its strength. The number of sixth tribulation cultivators is still too few. We need to take in more. The current gate of fortune does not lack resources at all. What it lacks are people.”

Tang Hao pondered this for a long time, then summoned the mud mountain four monsters, Daoist yinfeng, and the other elders.

“Do you ... Have any friends who are also itinerant cultivators and are interested in joining our creation sect?” Tang Hao asked.

“No, I didn ‘t!”

The mud mountain four monsters immediately shook their heads.

Tang Hao rolled his eyes. ‘You four weirdos,’ he thought. ‘It’d be weird if you had friends.’

“I do have friends, but they might not be willing to join the creation sect! Master, you also know the status of the gate of fortune in Pangu. We’re The Public Enemy of all races and enemies are everywhere!”

“Yeah! Besides, some wandering cultivators like to be free and do not like to be bound. ”

The rest of the people chimed in.

“Anyone who is willing to join will be given a late-stage sixth tribulation Emperor’s weapon, a seven tribulation Buddha’s light armor, a number of pills, a mid-stage sixth tribulation weapon, an eighth tribulation weapon, a Buddha’s light armor, and a number of pills,” Tang Hao said.

“This ...”

Everyone hesitated.

Regardless of whether it was an Emperor artifact, an 8th tribulation artifact, or a 7th tribulation Buddha’s light armor, they were all treasures that rogue cultivators dreamed of. For these treasures, there would definitely be many rogue cultivators who would be tempted and dare to take the risk to join the creation sect.

“Also, if any one of you can pull in one person, you will be immediately rewarded with three six tribulations great Supplement Pills!”

Tang Hao said.

Hearing this, everyone was stunned, their faces full of disbelief.

“My ... My Lord, re ... Really?”

The four mud Mountain Brothers said.

“Of course it’s true!”

Tang Hao said.

“F * ck!”

The four brothers exclaimed, their eyes shining.

“Let me calculate! If you can get three great Supplement Pills for one person, then wouldn’t you get thirty if you get ten?”

“Oh my God, 30 great Supplement Pills. I didn’t even dare to think about it in the past.”

The four brothers were almost drooling.

They all knew how powerful the effects of their master’s great supplement pill were.

The rest of the people were also a little excited. A great supplement pill was equivalent to many years of their bitter cultivation. If they could get a few more, their cultivation would soar.

“We have to get a few more. If we can’t, we’ll have to kidnap them here!”

They muttered, their eyes shining as they thought of all kinds of crooked ideas.

“Alright! You all can go! We’ll pull as many as we can!”

Tang Hao waved at them.

They responded and left excitedly.

“Now, let’s go to Emperor Pan City and take a look!” “Let’s go,” Tang Hao said to Zao huaizi. Then, he turned into a beam of light and shot up into the sky.

When he landed at the entrance of the city, the bustling city gate fell silent.

The cultivators who were about to enter the city, or those who had just come out of the city, were all stunned. Their eyes were wide open. They looked at Tang Hao with disbelief and fear.

They recognized him at a glance. The handsome young man in white was Tang Hao, the devil who had once swept through the entire panhuang city and committed those heinous crimes!

Today, he had actually come again!

“It’s bad!”

“That Tang kid is here!”

After being stunned for a long time, they all raised their voices and shouted.

In the next moment, the entire Emperor Pan City fell into dead silence.

After a while, an earth-shaking uproar broke out.

“That devil is here again! Quickly run!”

“Oh my God! It’s that little devil, let’s go! Hurry up! If we don’t leave now, we’ll be stripped by him, and that’s worse than death!”

In the city, countless xiuzhe shouted in panic.

They were all in a state of panic as they scurried away.

Those who opened shops did the same. They rolled up their blankets, closed their doors, and ran away.

For a time, the city was in a state of chaos.

Tang Hao was speechless as he stood at the entrance of the city.

“Am I really that scary?”

He scratched his head with an innocent look on his face.

“F * ck! This little devil actually still has an innocent look on his face, he’s too beastly!”

“Motherf * cker! You’re too shameless!”

The crowd at the door couldn’t stand it anymore, and they all cursed in their hearts.

“Quickly run!”

They didn’t dare to stay here any longer. They scurried and ran, disappearing in a flash.
