

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2023

In the sky, there was a continuous stream of light.

Large ships and giant birds came from all over the world and landed around the sky ROC mountain.

Outside the mountain range, more and more people gathered, and it became more and more lively.

Everyone was waiting, waiting for the divine light that was protecting Tian Peng mountain to dissipate. As long as the divine light did not dissipate, they would not be able to enter. Even a seven tribulation expert would not be able to break through the divine light and enter.

Every day, countless cultivators would look over to the other side of the mountain.

“It dissipated a lot more!”

“It’s getting faster and faster. It seems like we can enter in another day.”

As the divine light grew fainter and fainter, everyone became more and more excited. They gathered together and discussed enthusiastically what kind of treasure was hidden in this mountain range.

“That’s one of the top ten ancient ominous beasts, a top figure among the Supreme martial artists. No matter what, he should have at least a few Supreme weapons!”

“There must be a lot of godly medicines, maybe they’re everywhere! As long as I can get one, this trip won’t be in vain.”

“I heard the people of the primitive tribe discussing that there’s a blood pool inside, which contains the blood essence of countless powerful ancient creatures. They all want to enter the blood pool and absorb the blood essence to evolve their bloodline.”

“I’ve also heard that there will be many high-level tribulation weapons inside, all of which are weapons ...”

In the discussions of the crowd, the heavenly Peng mountain was simply a paradise filled with treasures.

“There are many treasures inside, but it’s not easy to snatch them! There are too many people and experts this time. Look at the sky, there are many seven tribulation magnates hiding there, and many of them have come with their true bodies. Also, many forces from the 33 heavens have come.”

“I heard that young master Taixu has also come. This is the first time he has appeared since the battle at the ancient deity plateau. I wonder if that Tang fellow will come as well. If he’s here, it’ll be very lively.”

“Yup! When the two of them meet, there will definitely be a battle!”

“It’s been more than nine months since the battle on the ancient deity plateau. The two of them must have improved a lot. I wonder who will win in the next battle.”

The crowd also began to discuss the two most dazzling people of the younger generation.

The last time the two of them fought, it attracted worldwide attention and shook the entire world.

If they met this time, there would definitely be intense sparks!

They were all looking forward to this battle.

“Last time, that Tang guy was only slightly better. After such a long time, with the foundation of the great void heaven, young master Taixu’s strength must have improved by leaps and bounds, far surpassing that Tang guy. This time, he will definitely be able to avenge his humiliation!”

Someone said confidently.

Most of the xiuzhe agreed with this point of view.

It was undeniable that Tang Hao was a monster. However, he did not have the support of a force on the level of the thirty-three heavens. They all believed that in terms of growth speed, that surnamed Tang could not possibly compare to young master Taixu.

“That’s not for sure! That kid’s performance has always been beyond everyone’s expectations. Half a year ago, he obtained the Supreme Kasaya and caused such an astonishing phenomenon. Have you all forgotten?”

“That’s right! This person was a special demon that couldn’t be judged with common sense! Who knows what kind of encounters he’ll have after such a long time!”

However, there were also many people who held the opposite view.

They all thought highly of Tang Hao. After all, he was still the number one genius of Pangu.

Another day passed while everyone was discussing.

The divine light around the divine mountain was reduced by a lot.

On this day, at the break of dawn, the four sides of the heavenly Peng mountain were suddenly in an uproar.

A piece of news came from the front of the crowd.

“In less than six hours, the divine light will dissipate!”

This piece of news caused a sensation.

Countless xiuzhe who were sitting cross-legged and resting suddenly opened their eyes and shot into the sky, looking towards the direction of Tian Peng mountain.

“Eh? That’s not right! From the looks of it, it’ll take at least half a day or so. How can it disperse in six hours?”

Very quickly, someone noticed that something was wrong.

“Hey! It will indeed take half a day for all the divine light to dissipate, but this divine light has a weak spot and has almost dissipated. We can definitely enter in six hours. Now, everyone in front has started to move and rush over. ”

“There’s such a thing?”

When everyone heard this, they were first stunned, then they revealed excitement and anxiety.

“Hurry! Hurry up and save a seat!”

“We must get in first. Otherwise, we’ll lose everything!”

They asked for the direction and rushed over.

This time, there were so many people, and they were all experts. If they were slow in entering, they might not be able to snatch anything.

In an instant, tens of thousands of light beams shot up into the sky above the vast land. The large ships that had stopped in the air also started to move, bursting out with the fastest speed and sailing forward.

In the distance, rumbling sounds could be heard. It was the people of the untainted land. They had also started to move.

All of them were heading toward one place, which was next to the divine light. Countless large ships were already parked there, and countless figures were standing in the void. The untainted tribe had shrunk their bodies and gathered on the other side, dividing this area equally with the human tribe.

Even though the atmosphere between the two races was still extremely tense, no conflict broke out.

“Look, those in front are all super clans, and there are also those from the 33 heavens. Those seven tribulation old monsters have also appeared. One, two, three ... Oh my God! So many!”

The people looked forward and exclaimed in surprise.

The closer they got to the divine light, the more powerful the forces and cultivators became. Those who stood at the front line were all top forces, while the seven tribulation Giants descended from the clouds and came here.

Some of their primordial spirits descended and stood in the void. Their bodies shone with a shocking divine light, and their might was like that of ancient true immortals.

There were also some who had descended with their true bodies. Most of them had concealed their auras, but they still had a shocking aura. They stood there like mountains, suppressing the void.

“The aura of the seventh tribulation is too strong!”

Everyone looked from afar and was extremely shocked.

The magnates of the seven tribulations were so powerful that they stood at the peak of Pangu continent. Each of them had the power to reach the heavens, and just sensing their aura from afar was enough to suffocate them.

More and more people arrived. They all knew their own limitations, so they didn't dare to squeeze forward and all lined up.

But at this moment, a large ship came from behind and pushed forward.

“F * ck! Which clan is this from? you still dare to push forward!”

“What are you squeezing for! You're looking for death!”

Along the way, the large ships in front of them hurriedly made way.

The people on the ship cursed loudly.

Many hot-tempered people were about to attack, but when they looked at the big ship carefully, their faces changed, revealing extreme shock and fear.

Then, they shut their mouths tightly and didn't dare to make a sound.
