

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2028

The tense atmosphere suddenly stopped.

Everyone was stunned and looked at the divine light. Then, their expressions changed, and they were ecstatic.

Tang Hao and young master Taixu had all been thrown to the back of their minds. There was only one thought left in their minds, and that was to charge into the heavenly Peng mountain and search for the treasure.

“Hurry up! Hurry up and go in!”

“Let’s go, let’s go!”

Everyone jumped up and rushed madly towards the entrance, fighting to get in.

In the thirty-three heavens, all the great clans, sects, and even the ancient clans were charging forward madly.

Those seven tribulations experts did not fall behind. They were sandwiched in the crowd and rushed in.

“Hmph! We’ll fight again next time!”

Young master Taixu looked at the entrance with an unwilling expression. Then, he snorted angrily and concealed his aura. He jumped onto the warship and rushed toward the entrance.

Tang Hao’s body trembled slightly as he retracted the Buddhist aura around him.

He was not afraid of young master Taixu. Although his opponent was much stronger than him, he still had the ability to fight.

However, since the heavenly Peng mountain had opened, this battle would have to be put on hold. Nothing was more important than the treasures of the heavenly Peng mountain.

“Hurry up! Let’s go!”

Zao Huazi activated the ship and rushed over.

Once Tang Hao got on the ship, he pushed it with all his might and charged toward the entrance.

The heavenly ROC mountain was huge and was a vast mountain range. This mountain range was originally hidden, but for some reason, it had appeared in the world. This attracted cultivators from all over the world, as well as the untainted land tribe.

The Golden ROC tribe’s Natal divine light enveloped the four corners of the mountain range. Although the divine light was powerful, it had been fading ever since the mountain range appeared.

At this moment, the divine light in front of them finally dissipated completely, revealing a large hole, which became the entrance.

“This is the territory of the ten ancient beasts. Master Tang, elders, please be careful and don’t go out easily!”

Son of fortune solemnly warned.

“Yes, sect master!”

All the elders responded.

The flying boat continued to accelerate, and soon, it rushed into the cave.

“Heavens! What a shocking amount of immortal Qi!”

As soon as they entered the heavenly Peng mountain, everyone’s first reaction was to exclaim.

The immortal Qi here was even denser than in the mountain of fortune.

Tang Hao was a little surprised. He had been to many places on Pangu continent, including dangerous and Forbidden Lands, and even the so-called heavenly grandmother sacred mountain, but none of them could compare to this heavenly Peng mountain.

“As expected of the territory of one of the ten ancient beasts!”

Tang Hao praised.

He stood at the bow of the ship and looked ahead.

As far as the eye could see, it was a vast mountain range. The peaks rose from the ground and reached into the clouds. Among them, the one in the middle was the tallest, hundreds of thousands of feet high. It was shining with a golden light, which was extremely spectacular.

In all four directions, there were more than a dozen mountain peaks that were slightly inferior. They were all covered in clouds and mist, exuding an astonishing aura.

“The one in the middle should be the main peak, the place where the Peng King lives. Look, those 7th tribulation experts are all heading towards that peak. That’s where the competition is the fiercest and the most dangerous place.”

Zao Huazi looked around and pointed at the mountain in the middle.

Tang Hao looked up and nodded.

At this moment, the divine light formed by the seventh tribulation was all heading towards the mountain peak. There were also many primeval beasts, all of which were exuding the aura of the seventh tribulation.

“We can’t interfere in the battle between the seven tribulations! We won’t be going to the main peak for the time being. Besides the main peak, there are only those few peaks. Those peaks should be different from ordinary mountains, there must be something inside. ”

Said Zao Huazi as he looked around and pointed at the dozen or so slightly inferior mountains.

Then, he turned around and looked at Tang Hao with a questioning gaze.

“Go to that one! Recently!”

Tang Hao pointed at the nearest one without thinking.

“Alright!”

Without wasting any time, Zao huazi immediately rushed over.

There were too many people, and they had to race against time to grab more treasures.

BOOM!

At this moment, the sounds of fierce fighting could be heard from all directions of the mountain range. There were the cries of human cultivators and screams of pain, as well as the angry and sorrowful cries of the untainted tribe.

Tang Hao looked around. He could see countless cultivators and giant beasts fighting for treasures on the mountains around him and in the valleys below.

Some of them were spirit herbs that grew in the valley, and some were treasures found in some halls.

“The king Roc was not the only one who lived on the heavenly ROC mountain. There should have been many members of the Golden ROC tribe. Besides the Golden ROC tribe, there were also many human cultivators who were captured by the king Roc and became his slaves. Therefore, there will be many treasures of human xiuzhe here. ”

Said Zao Huazi.

As they spoke, the ship arrived at its destination.

In front of everyone, a majestic peak appeared. It was at least 100000 feet tall, and it was full of immortal Qi. Clouds and mist lingered around it, making it look like a celestial mountain.

At this moment, there were many large ships. Beams of divine light swept over and rushed into the clouds.

“Heavens! So many spiritual herbs!”

“That ... That’s a godly medicine!”

The group of elders activated their spirit eyes and looked inside. They saw that on this mountain peak, there were many medicinal gardens, planted with spirit herbs. At a glance, it was extremely dazzling and colorful.

And among these spirit herbs, one could occasionally see some with particularly astonishing auras. They were all divine herbs!

One, two ... At a glance, there were simply countless.

The eyes of the elders turned red as they watched, and they were so excited that they were trembling.

Tang Hao was also shocked.

On Pangu continent, divine herbs were also very rare and rarely seen in the market. Back when he was on tianlao mountain, he did not get many divine herbs, and later on, he rarely encountered divine herbs.

There wasn't a single one in the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard that day either. That was because the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard had fallen into a crack in the void. There wasn't enough immortal Qi there, and it couldn't produce any divine medicine.

“Snatch!”

Tang Hao's body flickered. He leaped out of the warship and headed toward the mountain.

He reached out with his hand, and a Golden Palm that covered the sky appeared and slapped down at the xiuzhe who were snatching the Ling herbs.

With a few screams, those xiuzhe didn't even have time to Dodge and were blown apart.

Then, with a wave of Tang Hao's hand, all their treasures, storage tools, spirit herbs, and divine herbs flew toward him and were put away.

With a flash of golden light above his head, two clones jumped out and rushed to the left and right. Then, he released all the clones and souls and scattered them in all directions to search for treasures.

These split souls might not be a match for the cultivators, but they were large in number and moved quickly. With their help, Tang Hao could collect more treasures.

Yun qingzi and the others also got into action. They split into groups of two or three and rushed in all directions to collect the treasures.

Then, creation Zi kept the ship and joined in.
