

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2030

“Celestial medicine? That’s impossible, right?”

Many people revealed doubtful expressions, somewhat unable to believe it.

“What’s impossible? This was the territory of the ancient vicious ten! It’s possible for any treasure to appear!”

Most of the xiuzhe believed it without a doubt.

There were so many spiritual herbs and divine herbs on this mountain, so it was not impossible to grow a stalk of immortal herb.

They looked up at the peak of the mountain, their breathing becoming hurried, and their eyes revealed extreme greed.

Even if they only managed to grab a few roots and broken leaves from a celestial medicine, it was still a profit.

Many xiuzhe and people of the desolate race rushed into the sky and rushed towards the top of the mountain.

“Celestial medicine? This is incredible!”

The beggar looked at the top of the mountain and said, “are you going or not?” then he turned to Tang Hao and asked.

“Go!” Tang Hao said firmly.

If it really was an immortal medicine, then he would have to fight for it no matter what.

“However, it’s enough for just the two of us to go. The others don’t need to go. Stay here and continue to collect spirit herbs and divine herbs.” Tang Hao continued.

“Alright!”

Zao huaizi nodded his head in agreement.

If the celestial medicine really appeared, it would inevitably attract all forces to fight for it. All the major clans and the untainted clan would do whatever it took to get the celestial medicine, and there might even be a seven tribulation expert.

In this situation, it was useless to send more people.

The two of them were the strongest, so they just had to go and take a look and wait for an opportunity to attack. The others would stay behind and continue to collect the divine herbs. This was the safest choice.

“Let’s go!”

Tang Hao led the way toward the top of the mountain.

At this moment, people were rushing up from all directions of the mountain peak. Everyone was heading for the immortal herb.

At the top of the mountain, the sounds of an intense battle could be heard.

A rumbling sound reverberated through the world.

He looked up and saw that at the peak of the mountain, there were bright immortal halos and divine lights that exploded from time to time in the thick clouds. The figures of giant beasts were also faintly visible in the clouds.

From time to time, there would be people or treasure fragments falling.

“That’s ... The aura of the seventh tribulation!”

Tang Hao’s pupils constricted and his expression changed when he saw a giant Golden Palm appear in the clouds.

BOOM!

This giant palm collided with the other giant Silver Palm, and the light that exploded caused the world to lose its color.

The force spread out and sent a group of people flying.

“There’s one over there too!”

Zao Huazi pointed to the other side.

There were two seventh tribulation controllers using tribulation weapons, and the sound was earth-shattering.

“I didn’t expect so many seven tribulations to come!” Tang Hao furrowed his brows. His expression turned serious.

With the arrival of the seventh tribulation, his chances of snatching the celestial medicine were very slim, not to mention that there were so many seventh tribulations. Even if all of them descended in primordial spirit bodies, he had no hope at all.

“It’s going to be difficult!”

Zao huaizi sighed in disappointment.

If the seventh tribulation did not come, the two of them would still have some hope. But now, it was basically impossible.

“Let’s go up and take a look first!”

Tang Hao said as he continued to fly upward.

They quickly arrived at the top of the mountain. A chaotic battle had broken out here. Xiuzhe and giant beasts were fighting everywhere.

“Where’s the celestial medicine?”

Tang Hao stopped and looked around.

However, the situation was too chaotic, and he couldn’t tell where the immortal medicine was.

He narrowed his eyes and scanned through it a few more times.

Suddenly, his eyes focused and he stared at a place.

Over there, there was a five-colored divine light speeding away. This divine light was very agile and shuttled through the crowd at an extremely fast speed. Behind it, there were many divine lights chasing after it. Upon a closer look, they were all seventh tribulation!

“Could it be ... That’s the celestial medicine?”

Tang Hao fixed his eyes on the five-colored divine light.

Subconsciously, he felt a little strange. Since it was an immortal medicine, why would it run?

But very quickly, he came to his senses. He had almost forgotten that in the lower realm, all godly medicine had a physical form. Only when ordinary spiritual medicine became spiritual would they become godly medicine.

However, in Pangu world, perhaps because the environment was different, none of the divine herbs could take human form. Since this immortal herb was an existence that surpassed divine herbs, it must be even more powerful and could take human form.

“That’s the celestial medicine, that’s right!”

Said Zao Huazi.

The two of them didn’t make a move either. Those were all seventh tribulations, so it was useless even if they made a move. They couldn’t snatch them at all.

“What a pity!”

Tang Hao sighed.

Then, he focused his mind and looked around, wanting to see which of the seven tribulations would be able to obtain this celestial medicine.

After watching for a moment, he was amused.

That five colored divine light was too slippery. It was even more agile than a Loach and was especially fast. It did not lose to those seven tribulations at all. No matter how they increased their speed and used all kinds of means, they just could not catch it.

From time to time, the divine light would pause for a moment, as if it was waiting for the seven tribulations behind to catch up.

However, when they caught up, the divine light shot far away with a whoosh, increasing the distance between them.

This didn't look like he was fleeing, he was clearly toying with these seven tribulations.

“Stop!”

“You little kid, when I catch you, I'll definitely chop you up!”

The group of 7th tribulation experts shouted in anger.

In any case, they were all seven tribulations, which one of them wasn't an illustrious figure? today, they were actually played by a plant that had taken human form.

“Don't run!”

There was Sir God Wu Ling in the group.

He came with his true body and followed closely behind the divine light. He kept stretching out his hands and conjuring huge palms to catch the divine light. Occasionally, he would also take out all kinds of treasures like pots and nets in an attempt to collect the divine light.

However, he could not catch it at all.

That divine light was too agile!

“Motherf * cker!”

After not being able to catch up for a long time, he was a little annoyed and cursed.

The other seven tribulations old monsters did not look any better.

“Eh? That's ...”

As he was in pursuit, Sir God Wu Ling suddenly saw a familiar figure at the edge of the crowd.

“Isn’t this that stinky brat? He’s here too?”

When he looked, he was stunned.

His expression was a little ugly. This brat had embarrassed him several times. The first time was on the chaotic World Mountain. The thing in this brat’s body had scared him quite a bit and made him, a dignified seventh tribulation, run away in embarrassment.

This was simply a great humiliation!

After that, during the battle on the ancient deity plateau, he had made a bet with the rain master clan’s patriarch that this kid would lose. However, he didn’t expect that this kid would F * cking win and make him lose so miserably!

“You brat, what are you doing here?”

He pulled a long face and scolded, “this is a battle between us seven tribulations. You, a mere six tribulations, are not qualified to participate. Get lost!” I’m in a bad mood whenever I see you!”

If it were not for the old demon blood, he would have struck out with his palm and killed this damned kid.

When he saw that Tang Hao did not move, he shouted, “You brat, why aren’t you leaving yet? with your little strength, you still want to take this immortal herb? Hahaha! You must be dreaming!”

As he spoke, he laughed mockingly.

Tang Hao rolled his eyes at him.

He was rather familiar with divine Lord Wu Ling.

At this time, the other seven tribulations also noticed him and looked at him one after another, but they did not pay attention to him. He was just a six tribulation kid, he was not a threat to them seven tribulations.

“Kid, this divine Lord will show you a hand today and let you see this divine Lord’s power!”

Sir God Wu Ling laughed again and charged towards the five-colored divine light.

However, at that moment, the five-colored divine light suddenly stopped. A soft sound came from within. Then, the divine light made a sharp turn and accelerated toward Tang Hao.

As Tang Hao and everyone else watched in shock, the divine light shot straight into his arms.
