

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2032

“Look! It’s the sect master and fellow Daoist Tang!”

“They’re back!”

Halfway up the mountain, Yun qingzi looked up and saw two divine lights rushing down from above.

They immediately went up to him.

“Is that really a celestial medicine? What did the celestial medicine look like? I’ve never seen it before!”

“Are you guys alright? When I looked up just now, I saw that there were many seven tribulations up there. Who has the celestial medicine now?”

They asked curiously as soon as they met.

Zao huaizi’s expression was a little strange. He looked at Tang Hao and hesitated.

Tang Hao grinned. He did not know where to start.

After all, this matter was too bizarre! Even now, he still found it unbelievable!

“What’s wrong?”

Seeing that the two of them weren’t speaking, Yun qingzi asked in confusion.

Without saying a word, Zao huaizi raised his hand and pointed upwards.

Yun qingzi was even more puzzled. He wondered what was going on with these two people, why they were acting so sneaky.

When he looked up, he was almost scared out of his wits.

Above them, many figures were standing there, looking over. They were all seven tribulations. Their faces were gloomy, and their eyes were unfriendly, as if they had some deep hatred for them.

“This ... This is ...?”

Yun qingzi’s hands were trembling, and cold sweat was dripping from his forehead.

They were all seven tribulations!

This scene was simply too terrifying!

“Sect ... Sect master ... What ... What have you guys done?” Fu Yunzi raised his eyes to take a look and almost fainted from shock.

“It’s nothing, I just robbed them of their celestial medicine!”

Said Zao Huazi.

When Yun qingzi and the others heard this, they were all dumbfounded, and they looked incredulous.

Did the sect leader and the others get the celestial medicine?

‘How ... How is this possible?’

How could the two of them get a celestial medicine from the hands of so many seven tribulations?

“It’s not that I have to snatch it! It’s the celestial medicine that delivered itself to my door!” Tang Hao mumbled.

In fact, after seeing so many seven tribulations, he really didn’t want to snatch the celestial medicine, because he knew that he had no hope at all. But no one had expected that the celestial medicine would come to him on its own.

Yun qingzi and the others ‘mouths opened even wider when they heard this.

“Hahaha! You’re such a Joker, Daoist Tang!” After a while, Yun qingzi came back to his senses and laughed dryly.

A celestial medicine that was delivered to his door? How could this be possible?! I’m sure fellow cultivator Tang is joking!

Tang Hao smiled wryly. He knew that he could not explain himself, so he did not continue.

He asked creator to take out the big ship and entered the cabin. He sat down cross-legged and his primordial spirit entered the mobile immortal’s cave.

“Sister, you’re so beautiful!”

“You little girl, your mouth is so sweet!”

“Hehe!”

Tang Hao heard the little girl and sis Xiangyi’s voices as soon as he entered the room.

When he looked again, the two of them were playing together.

“Big brother, this big sister is so beautiful!”

The little girl immediately walked over when she saw Tang Hao.

“Lil Tang, where did you kidnap this girl from?” Qin Xiangyi walked over and smiled. “She’s weird and has a sweet mouth.”

“She’s an immortal herb!” Tang Hao laughed bitterly.

“Celestial medicine?”

Qin Xiangyi was stunned. She looked at the little girl in disbelief.

She naturally knew what celestial medicine was!

“Sister, you have the best heart and the kindest heart. Please don’t eat me!” The girl blinked her eyes again and said pitifully.

“Good! You’re so cute, who would have the heart to do that!”

Qin Xiangyi chuckled.

“Big sister is the best!”

The girl immediately beamed with joy and threw herself into her arms.

Tang Hao grinned. He could tell that the little girl was not a child at all. She was very smart. Perhaps she had come to him on her own just now to escape from those old monsters.

“I can promise that we won’t eat you. But you have to tell me clearly why you want to come with me!”

“Shut up!” Tang Hao scolded with a stern face.

“Because ... Big brother, you look like a good person! That group of people are old and ugly, and they’re clamoring to refine me into a pill and even want to chop me up. They’re too hateful!” The girl said angrily.

“Really?”

Tang Hao rolled his eyes.

“Actually, there’s another reason!” The girl lowered her head under Tang Hao’s gaze and mumbled, “I smell a very nice scent on you, big brother.”

“What?”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows in confusion.

A very nice smell? What was that?

“This is the smell!” The girl raised her hand and pointed to a water tank not far away.

“Celestial water?”

Tang Hao looked up and saw that it was the celestial water from the Jade bottle!

“So it’s this! No wonder!” Tang Hao suddenly understood.

This celestial water was extremely magical. It could make all the spiritual herbs in the world grow faster, and it had a strong attraction to this celestial herb.

But then, his expression changed. Why did the celestial water in the water tank seem to be much less?

“Did she drink it just now?”

“Yeah!” Qin Xiangyi said.

Tang Hao’s face twitched. ‘F * ck, I’ve invited an ancestor back. I’m already in need of the Holy water, and this little ancestor has drunk half a jar.’

“Big brother, don’t worry. I can help you grow these spirit herbs!”

The little girl said.

She walked to the divine Tree of fate, stretched out her hand, and pressed it on the trunk. In her palm, a milky white glow gushed out and drilled into the divine Tree of fate.

Then, Tang Hao was shocked to find that the divine Tree, which had not grown for a long time, began to grow taller. More branches and leaves emerged, and on the branches, there were flower buds that bloomed again.

And all of this happened in a short moment.

“This ...”

Tang Hao was in disbelief.

It had been a long time since the divine Tree had grown any taller. When the celestial water had been poured on it, it had only been able to produce flowers and fruits. But now, with this little girl touching it, it had actually grown taller.

Furthermore, it had blossomed and bore fruit!

This speed was even faster than when he poured the celestial water on her!

“Although the celestial water is incredibly magical, it’s still just the essence of the plant. This girl is different. She’s formed from celestial medicine, and is a member of the plant and vegetation clan, so it’s easier for her to affect the spirit medicine, and thus increase the efficiency of the planting process.”

Tang Hao pondered to himself.

He looked at the girl, and his eyes gradually brightened.

He realized that this girl was a treasure to him!

Even if he didn't eat it, he could let her grow herbs and cultivate the spirit herbs in this cave.

"Come on! Drink more! Let's try again!"

Tang Hao took out a Jade bottle and some celestial water for the girl to drink.

After a series of experiments, he found that the girl was twice as efficient as before. The efficiency was two or three times higher than before. And that was not all. Tang Hao was shocked to find that his herbal field had produced divine herbs under the girl's cultivation!
