

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2039

“Master Tang, could the halberd you mentioned be on the main peak?”

Zao huaizi stood at the bow of the warship and looked around. Then, he turned to look at Tang Hao.

They had already been to a few mountains, but they had not seen any halberds.

“I’m not sure!” Tang Hao shook his head.

He wasn’t too sure about the situation within the heavenly Peng mountain.

“This halberd should be the one used by the ROC King, so it should be on the main peak. If that’s the case, it’ll be difficult. The main peak is full of 7th tribulation experts, so we can’t take it. Besides, it might have already been taken by one of them.”

Said Zao huaizi as he shook his head.

The celestial medicine he had obtained previously was due to luck, and it was impossible for it to appear again.

“Let’s go and take a look first!”

Tang Hao said after a moment of silence.

“Alright!”

“Yes,” Zao huaizi replied. Then, he steered the warship toward the main peak.

This main peak was especially majestic. It was hundreds of thousands of feet tall and was so huge that it was almost boundless. When the ship arrived at the foot of the main peak, they couldn’t see the end of it. Compared to this giant peak, their ship was too small.

Even those giant beasts that were hundreds of thousands of feet tall seemed a little petite in front of this mountain.

As the ship flew up, it could be seen that on this mountain, there were still many fifth and sixth tribulation cultivators. They were searching around, trying to find some treasures that the seventh tribulation strong men had missed.

“There’s no movement. It seems to have ended!”

Yun qingzi said as he looked up.

It had already been two to four hours since the opening of the Tian Peng mountain. Most of the treasures had been snatched away. For example, the battles on the medicine peak and the mountain where the blood sea was located had already ended.

In the sky, one could occasionally see the divine light leaving.

“It’s possible!” The beggar frowned.

When the heavenly Peng mountain first opened, all the cultivators of the 7th tribulation came to the main peak. With so many cultivators of the human tribe and the untainted land tribe, even if there were any ancient inhibition formations or arrays on the main peak, they would have been destroyed.

After all, it had been more than 10000 years. No matter what kind of restriction, array, or power, they would all weaken and become broken.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he looked up.

“Let’s find someone to ask first!”

Tang Hao said.

“Alright!” “Yes,” Zao huaizi replied. He continued to fly upwards for a while on the ship and encountered a few xiuzhe.

“You’re too late. This place ended long ago. There’s nothing left! Those seven tribulations have searched every corner of this place!”

“It was a fierce battle before. The Masters of the various clans and the 10000-year-old monsters of the untainted clans were locked in a fierce battle! However, the treasure is gone now, and most of them have left. ”

“What treasure is there? This ... Seems to be quite a lot. On the peak of the mountain, there’s a Palace where the ROC King lives. There’s a treasure vault there that contains many of the ROC King’s collections. It’s said that there are many Emperor artifacts that have been divided by the seven tribulations. There are also many rare treasures. ”

“A Supreme artifact? There seemed to be one? It wasn’t a weapon, but a lotus throne. It was a very powerful treasure, and it wasn’t obtained by the human race. It was obtained by the Golden ROC Race! For this lotus throne, the two tribes fought fiercely, and many 7th tribulation cultivators were injured. ”

After asking a few people, Tang Hao and the others finally understood what had happened on this mountain peak.

“King ROC’s Treasury ... How many treasures are there? I’m afraid there are dozens, hundreds of Emperor artifacts!”

Yun qingzi sighed with regret.

“Hey! Although the treasure house is good, we can’t snatch it. Those are all seventh tribulations. Any Qi that leaks out can kill us dozens of times. ” Yun Lanzi mumbled.

Tang Hao was deep in thought. He had asked so many people, and all of them had said that there was no halberd. That should be true.

However, if the halberd was not on the main peak, where could it be?

This main peak had been searched thoroughly by the seven tribulations, so it was unlikely that there was anything that was missed. The other peaks must have been searched by many seven tribulations as well.

Could it be that ... There was no such treasure?

Tang Hao was starting to suspect something.

However, the mysterious old man's words should be true. What was going on?

"Let's go up and take a look!"

Tang Hao pondered for a long time, then decided to search the place himself. It was not impossible for him to miss out on something.

The warship sailed upward and arrived at the top of the mountain in a short while.

"It's so tragic!"

The crowd looked around and gasped.

This place was in a complete mess, with broken walls and ruins everywhere. One could imagine how intense a battle had broken out here.

"Is this the palace of King Roc?"

Tang Hao laughed bitterly as he looked at the ruins.

Sweeping forward, they searched around and quickly found the so-called treasure vault. It was also empty inside, with nothing.

He searched the entire mountain again, and left after he found nothing.

"There are still a few mountain peaks over there that we haven't been to before. Let's go and take a look!" Tang Hao's eyes swept around, then he pointed at a few peaks in the distance.

There was also a lot of divine light coming and going from there.

The warship sailed away and soon arrived at one of the mountain peaks.

"What a shocking killing intent!"

Tang Hao could feel the murderous aura emanating from the mountain from a distance.

“So many weapons!”

Tang Hao narrowed his eyes. He could see the situation on the mountain peak through the thick clouds.

From the bottom to the top of the mountain, there were all kinds of weapons. There were swords, halberds, and Spears. All kinds of weapons could be found here.

Some of the weapons were rusty and looked lethargic, while others were sharp and bright.

Many xiuzhe were trying to take the treasures.

Pfft!

Some xiuzhe were sent flying by the battle spear in their hands. They spat out blood and flew backwards.

But then, someone continued to try to subdue the spear.

“An 8th tribulation spear! No wonder!”

Tang Hao mumbled as he glanced at them.

This spear was an 8th tribulation weapon. For most cultivators, it was a rare treasure. Moreover, although it was only at the 8th tribulation, it had an extraordinary aura. There was a shocking evil Qi on it. It had obviously been stained with countless blood and had extraordinary power.

That was why the gun was so popular.

However, these vicious soldiers that had been dyed in blood were the hardest to subdue. The xiuzhe were all sent flying, and no one could suppress them.

He then swept around and found that there were quite a few of these weapons.

Occasionally, there would be someone who managed to subdue one, and they would exclaim in joy. They would activate the weapon in their hands, and sometimes it would become bigger, becoming ten thousand feet tall, and sometimes it would shrink, becoming ten feet in size, showing it off well.

These weapons were all Ruyi treasures, and they could change their size at will.

“It’s said that the ROC King loves weapons. He collected countless weapons in his life. He’s had this hobby since he wasn’t a Saint. After he defeated his opponent, he would take their weapons as his spoils of war.”

“This mountain peak should be the place where he placed his spoils of war!”

Said Zao Huazi.

“No wonder!”

Tang Hao understood.

He had been wondering why these weapons were of different grades, some of which were at the second or third tribulation, and many of which were obviously broken. It turned out that they were all the spoils of war of the ROC King's life.

"That halberd ... Could it be here?"

Tang Hao's mind began to race again as he looked at the mountain of weapons.

He started from the foot of the mountain and went up to check each item.
