

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2044

“Die, Tang kid!”

“Kill!” With an earth-shaking roar, several figures rushed over. The one leading was Yao kongxuan. He was wearing a valiant armor and holding the Barbarian-killing spear, the treasure of the Yao clan.

“Your Lotus body ... Has been restored?”

Tang Hao was slightly surprised when he saw what it was.

“That’s right! Now, I have the complete sacred lotus body!”

“Die!” Yao kongxuan shouted and attacked with his ancient spear.

“You still have me, Tang kid!”

On both sides, ye jiuxuan, Jiang jingchen, and the others appeared, and Yuchi Xuan also followed behind. She did not use any weapons, but directly struck out with her palms. In her body, the eternal bone became more and more brilliant.

These people were the most powerful figures among the Saint children of the hundred races.

At that moment, they had joined forces and vowed to kill Tang Hao.

“Good!”

“Die!” Tang Hao roared. The Buddhist light around him shone brightly. He threw his fists at the group of monsters.

The origin core avatar also shouted and charged forward with his golden spear.

He was formed by the embryo of heaven and earth, and he had the Taiyi mind-clearing banner and an Emperor weapon in his hand. His combat strength was no less than those Holy Sons.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The two sides clashed, and bright light kept exploding as the energy madly spread out.

“That kid ... Blocked it!”

Above, the Group of Seven tribulations looked around and were all surprised.

Seven to eight Holy Sons had surrounded this kid and yet they couldn’t take him down. This was really beyond their expectations.

“It’s all because of that clone! Not long ago, this clone was still in the early stage. In such a short period of time, after swallowing so many divine medicines, it has reached the perfection stage, and its battle prowess has skyrocketed!” Sir God Wu Ling scoffed.

He was very envious of this clone.

“However, there’s no need to worry. The hundred races still have the advantage in the current situation. They have more people, so that brat won’t be able to hold on for long.” Then, he said, “we have to be careful. Be careful that the kid will break out of the encirclement and escape.”

The Group of Seven tribulations beholds became vigilant.

The gate of Fortune’s strength was indeed weaker than the hundred races’, and they wouldn’t be able to hold on for long. However, if they broke out of the encirclement together, the hundred races might not be able to resist them. After all, that kid and young master Li were too powerful.

If the two of them joined forces, it would be difficult for anyone to stop them.

“Young master, aren’t we going to make a move?”

On the mountain, behind young master Taixu, an elder of the great void heaven said.

Young master Taixu shook his head and snorted. “The hundred races are using their numbers to fight against the few. It’s because they want revenge and want to kill that bastard that they don’t care about their reputation. However, how can I be the same as them? if I act now, even if I kill him, the world will laugh at me. I can’t wash away the humiliation I suffered from the ancient deity Foundation.”

The elder was startled and did not say anything more.

They stood there and continued to watch.

“Fight! Good fight!”

“Hit him hard! It’s best if both sides are injured!”

“That Tang guy is a bastard. He’s always bullying me. That group of Holy Sons and those old monsters aren’t good people either. They framed me and even tried to snatch my Supreme Being’s blood. These people are all F * cking bastards.”

On a certain part of the mountain peak, a figure was squatting there, watching the battle in the sky and shouting excitedly.

Seeing the battle between the two sides become more and more intense, with people constantly vomiting blood and people’s bodies being destroyed, he was very happy.

“How good would it be if we were to perish together! Without that Tang guy, I, the black Tiger Lord, will be free!”

He muttered.

He was Liu heihu.

After he escaped from the blood temple, he didn't leave. He had always been quite bold. After pretending to escape, he came back, changed his appearance, and mixed into the xiuzhe.

As he watched the two sides fight, he was secretly pleased.

He squatted there and looked at it for a while. He was a little annoyed.

"Damn it, can this group of Holy Sons do it? After fighting for so long, he still couldn't take down that kid, trash! All of you are F * cking useless! I'm not looking, I'm not looking, snatching the treasure is the most important thing."

He retracted his gaze and looked around. He had shifty eyes and looked especially wretched.

"Eh? There's a fat sheep there!"

He quickly locked onto a target. It was a xiuzhe at the middle stage of the sixth tribulation. He was dressed in a gorgeous robe and was standing there, watching the battle in the sky with great interest.

However, he had no idea that someone had already set their eyes on him.

"Wonderful! It was really wonderful! Fight, continue to fight!"

As he watched, he shook his head and was already entranced.

At this moment, he felt a chill at the back of his head. A strong force attacked him. When he reacted and was about to turn around, there was a thud. His vision went black and he didn't know what happened.

"Tsk ts! This idiot, you don't even know the principle of not showing off your wealth, and you still dare to wear such ostentatious clothes in front of this great master. It's not right if I don't Rob you!"

Liu heihu snorted as he looked at the fallen xiuzhe with a large stick in his hand.

Then, he squatted down and quickly touched the xiuzhe. He stripped the xiuzhe of all his clothes and treasures.

He lifted his leg and kicked the man down the mountain. Then, he continued to search for his next target.

Then, on this mountain peak, there would be thuds from time to time. In every corner, cultivators fell down one by one. They were stripped of their treasures and then kicked down the mountain.

At this time, the battle in the sky was intense, and no one noticed this abnormal situation.

Liu heihu was crazy. In a short while, he had robbed over a hundred xiuzhe.

After robbing the xiuzhe that were alone, he stopped. The remaining ones were in groups and were not easy to deal with. If he was discovered, it would be troublesome.

“There are still many treasures on this mountain, I’ll take a few!”

He stared at the weapons on the mountain.

He swept all the way up, and when he saw one that closed his eyes, he subdued it and put it in his pocket.

“This treasure is not bad!”

“Although this sword is useless, the materials can still be recycled. I can sell it for a good price.”

His eyes flickered with a golden light. After scanning the weapons, he knew what material they were made of and what grade they were.

He had obtained the inheritance of the thief immortal and cultivated a pair of divine eyes for appraising treasures. There was no treasure in this world that could escape his eyes.

This pair of divine eyes could not only see through the disguise of any treasure, but also discover it.

He activated his divine eyes and scanned the surroundings. Suddenly, his gaze stopped and he stared at a spot. He let out a soft gasp.

“There’s something wrong with this mountain. Why is there a treasure light here? Could it be that there are more treasures in the mountain?”

Under his divine eyes, there was a trace of treasure light from the inside of the mountain.

“A treasure that can be hidden in this place is definitely not an ordinary treasure! Wahaha! I, Liu heihu, am going to be rich again!”

Liu heihu was very excited. He hid in a ditch that no one else could see, took out a shovel, and started to dig.

“I’ll dig! I’ll dig! I’ll dig, dig, and dig!”

He muttered as he dug.

The deeper he dug, the stronger the treasure light became.

Clang!

Suddenly, the shovel seemed to have hit gold and iron, giving off an explosive sound.

“There it is!”

Liu heihu's eyes lit up.

He gritted his teeth and dug hard.

The rock in front of him crumbled. In an instant, golden light shone brightly. Endless divine light rushed out from the crack, dazzling his eyes.
