

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2045

“Eh? What is this light?”

“What’s wrong?”

Around the mountain peak, a group of cultivators was entranced. Suddenly, they saw a divine light shoot up into the sky from below. The light was so bright that it lit up the sky and earth.

At the same time, there was also a shocking killing intent that spread out.

They couldn’t care about the battle above and looked down.

When they saw it clearly, they were stunned.

The divine light came from the mountainside. A crack had appeared there, and the inside of the crack was golden.

“There are more treasures ... In this mountain?”

Everyone was a little dumbfounded.

How could this be possible!

They had searched this mountain countless times, and many seventh tribulation experts had also explored it. If there was really a treasure inside, they could easily detect it with their divine thoughts. How could it be hidden until now without anyone finding it?

In the air, the two sides gradually stopped their fierce battle.

Everyone from the gate of fortune and the hundred clan Alliance looked toward the mountainside.

“What kind of treasure is inside?”

“Look, there seems to be a person in the golden light. He looks a bit like that Black Tiger thief!”

Everyone narrowed their eyes and looked towards the center of the divine light. They could vaguely see a figure.

Someone cried out in surprise, having recognized this person.

“It’s actually this little thief!”

“Hurry up! Catch him!”

Many xiuzhe shouted in anger, a hint of greed in their eyes.

This little black Tiger had a nine tribulations Supreme treasured clothing and a drop of Supreme blood.

However, before they could make a move, another unforeseen event occurred. The mountain peak that was a million Zhang tall in front of them actually started to tremble violently. The mountain began to crack, and gravel fell down like a waterfall.

As the mountain split open, more golden light emerged from the cracks.

“This is ...?”

Everyone’s eyes widened, revealing a bit of shock.

Hidden in the mountain was a halberd, an incomparably huge divine halberd. This mountain was one hundred thousand feet tall, and the halberd was also of the same height. It was so huge that it was difficult to describe.

An ordinary Ruyi treasure would be at its peak when it reached a height of 10000 feet. However, this halberd in front of him was a full 100000 feet!

Not to mention the shocking baleful Qi on it. This was the baleful Qi that could only be formed after killing many living creatures!

Looking at the halberd that was gradually being revealed, everyone was a little stunned.

Then, everyone revealed excited and ecstatic expressions.

“This is the halberd once used by the ROC Demon King!”

“This is the Peng King’s weapon, the famous heavenly desolate halberd! I was wondering why I didn’t find this halberd in the Treasury and only found a Lotus platform. So he had hidden it here! Hahaha! The heavens are really helping me!”

Especially the Group of Seven tribulations, they were ecstatic.

They were all glad that they did not leave early. Before them, many of the seven tribulations had searched the entire Mount Tian Peng. After finding nothing new, they had left long ago. They were the last to wait for the appearance of the divine halberd.

“This little black Tiger Kid is really good!”

“He has the inheritance of the thief immortal. In terms of finding treasures, I’m afraid no one in the world can match him.”

They were even more amazed and complimented the little black Tiger.

Then, they wanted to dive down to get the halberd, but in the next moment, they realized that things were a little troublesome.

At this moment, the mountain was enveloped by the formations of the hundred races. The people inside could not leave, and naturally, the people outside could not enter. If they wanted to rush down to snatch the treasure, they would have to break through the formations first. If they really did break through, the boy would definitely be able to escape in the chaos.

Then, today's efforts would have been in vain.

At this moment, the people of the hundred races also realized this, and their expressions became rather ugly.

They knew that the situation had changed with the appearance of the divine halberd. No one was concerned about that fellow surnamed Tang anymore. The attention of those seven tribulations must be on the divine halberd. If they did not withdraw the formation, they would definitely be destroyed by these seven tribulations.

Once the formation was broken, they would not be able to trap this kid anymore.

"Withdraw the formation!"

The hundred clan elders immediately called out.

If it was forcefully destroyed, then their losses would be great. Not to mention that the array would be scrapped, the person who set up the array would also be seriously injured. The consequences were not something they could bear.

"Damn it, it's all because of that Black Tiger brat. He didn't appear earlier or later, but he just had to appear at this critical moment. Because of him, all our efforts have been in vain."

They gritted their teeth and began to hate Liu heihu.

They didn't think that there was anything fishy between this kid and that Tang guy before, but now they began to believe that there was really something going on between the two of them!

"So it's here!"

Tang Hao looked at the halberd and laughed bitterly.

He had never thought that the halberd would be hidden here.

"It seems that there's something strange about the rocks of this mountain. It perfectly concealed the aura of this halberd, and even the seventh tribulation divine sense couldn't detect it." Young master Li, who was beside him, said.

Then, the two of them looked up at the sky, looked at each other, and nodded in tacit understanding.

In the next moment, they moved almost at the same time and pounced down.

Now was the best time for them to take the treasure. The group of 7th tribulation cultivators were blocked outside and could not come down for a while. There was only a group of 6th tribulation cultivators inside. In terms of individual strength, few people were their match.

Their only threat was young master Taixu.

Young master Taixu also realized this and rushed toward the halberd. He wanted to take the halberd before the other seven tribulations cultivators did.

But at this time, young master Li pounced on him. With a wave of her Jade-like hand, the divine sword turned into a red divine light and blasted straight at him.

“You ...”

Young master Taixu was both shocked and furious. He dodged the attack and shouted, “Do you really want to help him? What’s so good about him?”

Li gongzi didn’t say anything. He controlled the divine sword and attacked again.

Young master Taixu didn’t dare to be negligent. Although he had cultivated in the divine wheel for many years and was ahead of her in terms of the Dao laws he had comprehended, he wasn’t that much better than her in terms of combat power. He had to give it his all.

Young master Taixu was stopped, and Tang Hao managed to reach the divine halberd.

At this time, many cultivators who were originally on the mountain rushed to the front of the divine halberd. They wanted to subdue the halberd. However, as soon as they got close, they couldn’t withstand the shocking evil Qi and were all sent flying.

“Weak! You’re too weak!”

A bell-like voice rang out from the halberd. It was rough, hoarse, and the tone was extremely bold.

“It’s the halberd spirit! It should be a wisp of the king ROC’s spirit!”

The cultivators’ expressions changed.

Many xiuzhe hesitated and then tactfully retreated.

Supreme artifacts were different from ordinary tribulation artifacts. Ordinary people couldn’t subdue them. If one didn’t have any outstanding qualities, going up would only be asking for trouble.

“Let me try!”

“Die!” Tang Hao shouted. He charged toward the halberd and pressed his right palm on it.
