

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2048

The land of Pangu was boiling again.

The world was in heated discussion about everything that had happened on Mount Tian Peng.

The battle between the two clans and the emergence of all kinds of treasures was a hot topic among the people. The most attention-grabbing and sensational topic was still the monstrous Tang Hao.

This time, he had undoubtedly become the biggest winner.

First, a celestial medicine was delivered to his door. Then, he obtained two drops of Supreme Being's blood. Finally, he successfully obtained the ROC King's divine halberd from the hands of thousands of cultivators.

He held the halberd in his hand and blocked one million cultivators!

This incident became a legend and made people exclaim in admiration.

The hundred clan Alliance was also constantly mentioned.

When he said this, everyone had a look of sympathy.

The hundred clan Alliance was really unlucky. Previously, in the demon burial abyss, they had schemed against that brat and suffered a double loss. This time, they had paid a huge price and activated the great void divine wheel. In the end, they still lost to that brat.

"Poor thing! He's really pitiful!"

"They paid such a great price, yet they still failed. The hundred races have suffered yet another great loss!"

There was no lack of gloating people in the world.

"That demon of the Liu Clan, yes, that little black Tiger thief, he's also quite eye-catching this time. He obtained a drop of Supreme blood, and he's the one who discovered the divine weapon of the ROC King. He has the inheritance of the ancient thief immortal."

"I've heard that this little thief seems to have something fishy going on with that Tang guy. The two of them seem to be old lovers. That drop of Supreme Being's blood was given to him by that Tang guy. He was the one who discovered the divine weapon of the king Roc. In the end, that Tang guy got it."

"Yes, yes! I've also heard that there's definitely something going on between these two! It was said that there was enmity between the two of them, but I think it's most likely an act. The two of them are very good!"

"That's right! That Tang kid is very cunning. It's normal for him to arrange for someone to infiltrate the enemy's base in advance!"

Many people also mentioned Liu heihu, the famous Black Tiger Bandit in Pangu.

In everyone's impression, the black Tiger Bandit had a grudge with that surnamed Tang, so when the news came from the heavenly Peng mountain, they were really surprised.

"Speaking of which, that Black Tiger thief is also quite powerful. Think about it, he's a swindler and a thief who steals everything. The fact that he could survive from so many people's pursuit proves his strength!"

"Also, he's quite talented. He was the son of blood source who caused a sensation during the Grand ceremony of blood source. With the help of the power of blood source, his cultivation improved extremely quickly. Furthermore, he also obtained the inheritance of the thief immortal, has a nine tribulations treasured clothing, and has that drop of sovereign blood. I think it won't be long before another seven tribulations magnate is born in this world."

"I didn't realize it before. I didn't expect him to be so strong. Among the geniuses of the ten thousand races, he can definitely be ranked in the top three with his current strength."

"Tang Hao and Liu heihu! There are so many talents in the younger generation of the lower realm!"

The people of the world were even more shocked by the strength of this little black Tiger.

Liu heihu's reputation and status had skyrocketed among the geniuses of the ten thousand races. He used to be average, but now he was in the top three.

"Al! With this little thief's personality, if he were to become a seventh tribulation, how terrible would that be? Why isn't there an expert who can come out and take care of this kid?"

"Hey! Now, that kid is the most precious treasure of the Liu family. If anyone dares to touch him, the Liu family will not fight back. I heard that the Liu family has just announced that if anyone dares to touch that little black Tiger, they will send out their entire family to fight him. Therefore, no one dares to touch him now."

Everyone felt a little helpless.

This little black Tiger was a disaster. If he advanced to the seventh tribulation, it would be a disaster for the entire Pangu world!

However, there was nothing they could do. After all, the little black Tiger was the Liu Clan's treasure. All they could do was to curse him.

Other than the hundred races and the little black Tiger, many people were also talking about the Vermillion Bird young master. They were constantly discussing what relationship she had with that Tang fellow to the point of helping him so much.

If it wasn't for the Vermillion Bird young master's help, that Tang guy probably wouldn't have been able to survive the siege of the hundred races, and he wouldn't have been able to obtain the divine halberd.

The younger generation was extremely jealous of him.

This man surnamed Tang was from the lower realm, but he had overshadowed all of them. This had already made them extremely jealous. Now, this guy had even established a relationship with the goddess in their hearts and seemed to have won her heart. It was inevitable that they would burn with jealousy.

Not only on Pangu continent, but also in the thirty-three heavens, countless curses were heard from the young generation.

While the outside world was in an uproar, it was also extremely lively in the gate of fortune.

This time, they had obtained countless divine herbs and ten-thousand-year-old spiritual herbs on the heavenly Peng mountain. It was a great harvest.

Every elder was given a lot of divine medicine. After swallowing the divine medicine, their cultivation rose greatly. Among the third, fourth, and fifth tribulations, there were more who had completed them. As long as they passed the next Dao tribulation, they would be able to advance to a higher realm.

Among the six tribulations, many of them broke through from the initial stage to the middle stage.

And in the middle stage, three people had also successfully broken through and advanced to the late stage. They were Daoist Shi song, Yuan Wu, and the eldest of the mud mountain four monsters.

Originally, he had taken in five people at the late stage of the sixth tribulation. With these three, he had a total of eight people.

Among them, Daoist yinfeng had also made a breakthrough and successfully advanced to the perfection stage, which greatly increased his combat strength.

Most of the godly medicine was divided among the high-level Saints. The remaining 10000-year-old spiritual medicine was made into pills. Some of them were given to the high-level Saints, while the rest were given to the low-level Saints and disciples who had become Immortals.

With the help of these pills, a large number of New Saints were born in the sect.

The gate of Fortune's strength had once again experienced a massive increase.

The fighting spirit and confidence of the disciples soared, and the atmosphere was jubilant.

Among them, the happiest person was still Zao Huazi. Not only was he happy that the sect's strength had increased, but he was also happy that his realm, which had been stagnant for a long time, would finally be able to rise.

His upgrade this time was the most crucial to the creation sect. As long as he succeeded, his creation sect would be promoted to a first-rate force. No clan would dare to look down on them.

This had been his long-cherished wish for many years!

Now that this long-cherished wish could finally be realized, how could he not be happy?

He was not in a hurry to go into closed-door cultivation. He would wander around the sect every day, watching the disciples cultivate diligently, and listening to the news of the elders breaking through from time to time. He could not stop smiling.

“I haven’t been this happy in my life for a long time. When I first became the sect leader, who could be happy with such a broken burden on my shoulders? you don’t know how worried I was back then.”

After Tang Hao had rested for a few days, she accompanied him for a walk.

Zao Huazi couldn’t help but sigh.
