

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2057

“This Dao Jiu ... Where did he go?”

“Why did he suddenly disappear? Is there really any connection between him and Dao Qi?”

Tang Hao had been thinking about this since he left the primitive mountain.

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that there was a connection between the two. First, their names were too similar. Second, the people of the primitive mountain had said that Dao Jiu liked to study cultivation techniques very much, just like the ancestor of technique.

And the ancestor of technique and Dao Qi were most likely the same person.

“Let’s go and see if we can find him!”

Tang Hao flew up and released his divine sense to search for Dao Jiu.

The Qi Yuan star was not big. Moreover, Tang Hao’s current cultivation level was already at the peak of the sixth tribulation. With the strength of his divine sense, it would only take him a few hours to search the entire star.

But in the end, he gained nothing.

“Could it be that he’s no longer in Qiyuan?”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows.

He searched again, but there was still no result, so he could only give up.

“Perhaps he encountered some kind of fortuitous encounter that allowed him to successfully sever his Dao and leave this planet! If he was really related to Dao Qi, then it was even more likely that he had left this planet long ago! How am I supposed to find it in this vast universe?”

“Forget it. If we’re really fated, we’ll still meet again in the future!”

Tang Hao heaved a sigh of relief.

“We can go back now!”

Tang Hao said to Li Gongzi.

“Oh! Right, I still have to go to a place to meet a senior!” Tang Hao suddenly said as he was about to leave.

“Senior?”

Li Gongzi was stunned. There were not many people who could be called senior by brother Tang now.

“Locust tree? Not human? Is it a Yao?”

Li gongzi was more and more confused.

“Right!” Tang Hao nodded and said with a smile, “don’t underestimate Qiyuan. This place can be considered the origin of your thirty-three heavens. Your Vermillion Bird heaven, Kunwu, and Emperor Yan have all left their remains here.”

“I know this! It was also mentioned in the ancestral records of the sect, but those ancestral records did not mention why he left Qiyuan. It was only after hearing brother Tang’s words that I knew that there was such a shocking battle in the ancient times. ”

Li gongzi said.

“Speaking of which, this senior locust tree has a deep relationship with your thirty-three heavens!”

“Oh?”

Li gongzi was a little surprised.

“It’s wahuang heaven! This senior locust tree is from wahuang heaven, he once participated in that battle and was severely injured. He was sealed in ice, and I dug him out later, and he became The Guardian of my Sun Sky Valley. ”

Tang Hao said.

After hearing that, young master Li’s beautiful eyes widened, revealing an extremely shocked look.

From the ancient ruins Emperor heaven?

Didn’t that mean that the locust tree had lived for tens of thousands of years?

Then, she was filled with deep veneration.

This was truly an old senior of her thirty-three heavens!

“I can’t wait to see him!” She revealed a look of anticipation.

The two of them quickly arrived at the sun Sky Valley.

The sun Sky Valley had not changed much, but Nanping City and the mountain Gate of Kun Lun had changed a lot. Not only had they expanded, but there were also more people. They were very prosperous.

This time, Tang Hao did not want to alert the people of Kun Lun. He concealed his aura and brought Master Li into the mountain.

“That’s it!”

Tang Hao pointed at a lone locust tree on one of the peaks.

The old locust tree seemed to have grown a lot taller, and its branches and leaves were lusher. It was a little greener than before, and it was obvious that it had recovered a lot of vitality.

“You’re back!”

When the two of them came close, the locust tree shook and woke up.

“I came back to do something, so I came here to take a look.” Tang Hao said.

“Alright!”

The old locust tree responded and said, “your cultivation seems to have improved quite a bit!” Not bad!”

“Where did you kidnap this girl from? there’s ... A familiar aura on her.” Then, he noticed Li Gongzi.

“She’s the eldest young master of Vermillion Bird heaven!”

Tang Hao said.

“Vermillion Bird heaven?” The old locust tree was surprised. It shook its branches and leaves and gently stroked young master Li’s face. “That’s right, it’s the aura of the Vermilion Bird sect. I have an impression of it!”

“Junior Li greets senior!”

Li Gongzi bowed and saluted.

“Your cultivation level ... Is not bad!” The old locust tree praised.

Tang Hao sat down and told the old locust tree everything he had seen and heard.

Previously, he had already returned once to retrieve his clone. However, he was in a hurry that time and only chatted with senior locust tree for a short while. This time, he had more time and had a good chat.

He also took out the nine-colored skeleton and showed it to the old locust tree.

He had thought that the old locust tree had already recovered some of his memories and might know who this person was. However, to his disappointment, the old locust tree could not figure out who this person was even after checking.

“My memory is still a bit fuzzy. There are still many things that I can’t remember. I don’t recognize this skeleton!”

The old locust tree shook his head.

“However, this nine-colored bone might really be related to that Dragon count. You have to handle this skeleton carefully.”

Tang Hao recalled the divine herb and summoned her.

“An immortal herb. You’re quite lucky!”

The old locust tree first exclaimed in admiration, and then said, “Although this girl is a celestial medicine in human form, different from plant demons like me, she’s still a plant. You have to treat her well!”

“I’m very good to her!”

Tang Hao said softly.

Wasn’t it good that he gave her celestial water to drink every day?

“Girl, come here. I’ll teach you something that will be good for you in the future!”

The old locust tree called out to the girl.

Then, a ball of light emerged from the locust tree and burrowed into the girl’s forehead.

“This is the inheritance of the plant demon race. Once you learn it, you’ll have the ability to protect yourself!” The old locust tree said.

“Many thanks, senior!”

The servant girl bowed respectfully.

She also knew that the locust tree in front of her was an extremely ancient existence among the plant clan.

Tang Hao chatted with the old locust tree for a long time before he got up.

“Senior, why don’t you come with me to Pangu? there’s plenty of immortal Qi there, which will be good for your recovery.”

“I’ll go after I’ve recovered a bit! I’m going to continue sleeping! You have to be careful over there!” The old locust tree shook his head.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao said.

Soon, the old locust tree stopped moving, as if it had fallen asleep again.

Tang Hao took out a lot of immortal crystals and pills and crushed them one by one. He then set up a formation around the area to lock the immortal Qi, which would help senior locust tree recover.

“Let’s go!”

Tang Hao brought li gongzi to the central astral. The two of them passed through the passage and returned to Pangu world.

“Brother Tang, what’s your next plan?”

Young master Li asked him.

“Dao enlightenment! The Dao laws I’ve comprehended are still too little!” Tang Hao said.

The blood solidification realm was not easy and time-consuming. He had to comprehend more Dao laws in order to increase his strength and not lose to young master Taixu.

Moreover, the more Dao laws he comprehended, the more helpful it would be for the blood solidification realm. The two did not conflict with each other.

“That’s true!”

“After I comprehend two or three more Dao laws, I’ll go to the demon burial abyss and see if I can find a drop of blood from an ancient demon God.” Tang Hao said.

“Good! Then I should go back and continue my cultivation! If there’s anything, remember to find me in Vermillion Bird sky!”

Li gongzi said with some reluctance.

She only left after she sent Tang Hao to the gate of fortune.
