

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2073

“That’s weird! What is this?”

“What a strange aura! It doesn’t look like a crystal ore ...”

Everyone stared at that piece of crystal, their faces full of doubt.

The crystal was about two Zhang Long and one Zhang wide. It was irregularly shaped and had an uneven surface. The crystal itself was five-colored and covered with a thin layer of spiritual light.

“There are a few kinds of five-colored crystals among the mystical materials. For example, the five-colored sky Crystal is a top mystical material. But this crystal doesn’t look like one of them.”

“That’s right! This shouldn’t be an ore, but more like the crystallization of some kind of spiritual energy!”

The weapon forging Masters guessed.

“What the hell is this?”

At this moment, Liu heihu was also stunned.

His expression was a little unsightly. At first, he had thought that he would drop an awesome Supreme artifact or even a celestial artifact. He didn’t expect that he would get such a thing?

He raised his hand and touched it, and his face turned even darker.

He could also tell that this was not a spiritual material at all. Moreover, there was no trace of immortal Qi in this crystal, so it was not a spiritual essence and had no value.

“Wretched heavens, you’re giving me this broken thing?”

He was a little indignant, so he lifted his foot and kicked her.

“Aiyu!”

Then, he cried out in pain.

“Motherf * cker! This broken thing doesn’t have much use, but it’s quite hard!”

He touched his feet and became even angrier.

“Little friend Liu, don’t be anxious!”

At this moment, the Lord of the numinous treasure path suddenly growled. He stared at the crystal, and a piercing golden light burst out of his eyes. His expression gradually became serious.

“What ... What’s wrong?”

Liu heihu was stunned.

Could it be that this lousy crystal stone was some kind of treasure? He muttered to himself.

“Take a closer look. Is there something inside this crystal?” Numinous treasure path master said solemnly.

Hearing this, everyone’s eyes widened, and they looked at the crystal carefully.

At first glance, they couldn’t see anything inside, but once they used their spiritual pupils and Dharma eyes, they could vaguely see that there was something inside. What was even more surprising was that this thing was in the shape of a human!

“It’s a human!”

“There’s a person sealed inside this crystal!”

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

“Could it also be a corpse? The ancestor of the Liu Clan?”

Many people guessed.

After all, a corpse had fallen in the song clan before.

This could be an ancestor of the Liu Clan or an ancient cultivator with some karma with this Black Tiger. For some reason, this person died somewhere and his body was sealed by this crystal.

“Not necessarily! This person ... Might not be dead!”

There were also seven tribulations who said with a serious expression.

“It can’t be!”

All the cultivators were stunned when they heard this.

Could there be a living ancient cultivator sealed in this crystal?

Who was this person? What cultivation base did he have?

“This crystal ... Seems familiar?”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows and mumbled to himself.

He felt that he had seen this five-colored crystal before!

“Oh right! Aren’t those five-colored essence crystals?”

Tang Hao suddenly remembered.

This five-colored crystal, wasn't it the five-colored crystal source from the five-colored mountain in Qiyuan?!

This item was extremely mysterious. Just like Amber, it could perfectly seal anything and wouldn't decay even after tens of thousands of years.

"This person might really be alive!" Tang Hao mumbled.

Even living things could be sealed in the mystical crystal source for ten thousand years. As long as the person was still alive when they were sealed, they would be able to come back to life once the crystal source was unsealed.

"However ... This seems to be different from Qiyuan's five-colored essence crystals. Just now, Liu heihu's kick didn't cause any damage to it. It's clear how sturdy these essence crystals are. It seems that these five-colored essence crystals are also divided into different grades."

Tang Hao said to himself.

At this moment, Liu heihu seemed to recognize what it was, and his face turned serious.

"Little friend Liu, although this item was obtained by you and has a trace of karma with you, you must be careful with it. This is an ancient treasure, a five-colored crystal essence. If you don't unseal it, it will never unseal itself."

"As for the identity and cultivation of the person inside, even I can't tell. How to deal with it depends on you and your Liu clan!"

Liu heihu scratched his head, looking troubled.

"Is it to solve the puzzle?"

He couldn't make up his mind.

If it was a good-tempered senior, then he would have one more backer. But if it was an old demon, then he would suffer.

"Forget it. I'll take him back and do some research on him!"

Liu heihu pondered for a while, then put away the five-colored crystal and returned to his seat.

In the square, the crowd was still discussing animatedly. They were all trying to guess who was inside.

After a while, the square finally calmed down.

The ceremony continued.

As Liu heihu took the lead, a group of young geniuses could not hold back and stepped forward one after another. The first to step forward was the monstrous genius of the Jiang family, Jiang jingchen. He landed on an ordinary seven tribulations weapon.

He was a little disappointed and walked back with a gloomy face.

Compared to the treasures that Liu heihu had obtained, his seven tribulations weapon was too ordinary.

After him was the monstrous talent of the night clan, ye jiuxuan.

He strode forward, took a deep breath, and put his hands on the basin.

With this strange phenomenon, another ripple appeared above the treasure basin. Then, with a clang, an armor fell out of the ripple and into the basin.

“What quality is this armor?”

All the cultivators were stunned when they saw this.

The armor was pitch-black and looked very ordinary. It didn't have many decorations or patterns. It even looked a little simple. Moreover, they couldn't feel a trace of spirit Qi or even immortal Qi.

At first glance, it looked like a battle armor made of ordinary iron.

Many xiuzhe were dazed for a moment and then wanted to laugh.

“Hahaha! It was also a piece of trash! Old men of the Night race, you laughed at me before. Can you still laugh now?”

Sir God Wu Ling laughed out loud.

However, the elders of the night race, including the night patriarch, ignored him. They all stood up and stared at the armor. They were all excited and in disbelief.

“This ... Could this be ...?”

Some of the night race elders were so excited that they were trembling.

“It can't be wrong! That's it!”

The night patriarch's body was also trembling with excitement.

“Hahaha! This old man would like to congratulate everyone from the night race!” Numinous treasure path master laughed heartily and turned to the night race to congratulate them.

Then, he looked around and said with a smile, "Ladies and gentlemen, during the Grand ceremony a hundred years ago, the East Pole was lucky enough to obtain a supreme weapon. This time, it's the night race's turn!"

"Don't think that this armor looks ordinary. In fact, this is a Supreme armor that has shocked the world. This armor doesn't have a name because it was made by the ancestor of the night race. It's also known as the night nightmare!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the surroundings instantly became deathly silent.

Everyone's expression changed drastically. Many xiuzhe sucked in cold air and showed extreme shock.

This battle armor of the night race was a legendary item. It was famous in the ancient times. The geniuses of the night race had used this armor to kill countless magnates.

In ancient times, this item was an existence that could make all the cultivators in the world change their expressions. It was also a great killing weapon of the ancient night race that shocked the world.

However, more than 10000 years ago, this battle armor was lost, and the night race's reputation also weakened a lot.

He did not expect that after so many years, he would appear again in this treasure falling ceremony.

The cultivators were shocked, but they also looked fearful.

Once the night race obtained this killing weapon, their reputation would definitely soar and they would become even more terrifying.
