

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2087

“How could it be her!”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows.

Tamamo was actually the goddess. This discovery was completely out of his expectations. At the same time, it also messed up his plans.

He had originally wanted to sneak into the Fusang clan in advance, meet Tamamo, steal the God's spiritual blood, and leave. But now, he had no choice but to change his plan.

That Fusang Divine Son had colluded with the great void heaven to deal with her, so how could he not care?

“I didn't expect her to be doing so well!”

Tang Hao chuckled.

Tamamo was doing very well in the Fusang tribe. She was now a goddess and had the support of more than half of the Fusang tribe. In several battles, she had suppressed the Son of God. That was why she had taken the risk and colluded with the people of the great void heaven.

However, Tang Hao was not surprised. Tamamo was not bingyao. Master Jiang was inexperienced and simple-minded, but she was the leader of the Japanese cultivation world back on Earth.

“Since she's doing so well, why don't I help her and help her become the young master of the fu sang tribe? in the future, she will be in control of the fu sang tribe. This will be beneficial to both me and the creation sect.”

Tang Hao quickly came up with a plan.

After all, the Fusang clan was the descendant of a God and was not weak. Although they could not be compared to the great void heaven and the other 33 heavens 'orthodoxies and did not have an 8th tribulation figure, they still had quite a number of 7th tribulation figures.

This kind of strength was stronger than most of the clans in the eight desolate land.

“The Fusang divine realm will open in 16 days. All the divine sons and daughters will enter and take the test. Only those who win will become the young master of Fusang.”

“When entering the divine realm, both of you can bring people in. However, there is a limit to the number of people you can bring in. You can not bring more than 10 people in. At the same time, your strength is also limited to the 6th tribulation.”

“At that time, that Fusang Divine Son will definitely bring people from the great void heaven in. Young master Taixu will also come. With his strength, no matter who Tamamo brings, they will not be his match. I have to get in there to help her.”

Tang Hao pondered.

“According to the rules, we can’t rely on the strength of outsiders. In that case, the people of the great void heaven will definitely not follow that remnant in openly. They might hide it in a mobile abode and be brought in.”

“Then I can also use this method to enter.”

Tang Hao wanted to find Tamamo and enter the divinity with her, but after some thought, he came up with a better idea.

He raised his hand and sent out a thought into the body of the Fusang tribe member, controlling him.

“Let’s go back!”

“Yes! My Lord!”

The Fusang person bowed and turned to leave.

Tang Hao brought his clone into the scroll of the world and hid near the deserted island.

On the deserted island, Fusang tribesmen would enter and leave from time to time. Tang Hao did not make a move. He was waiting for the people of the Fusang Divine Son to come out.

After waiting for an entire day, a ripple appeared in the void behind the stone gate on the deserted island, and another figure appeared.

As soon as this man came out, he was wrapped in a black robe. He flew to the sea, summoned a giant dragon, and headed toward the island of the immortals.

Tang Hao could see that this person was one of the divine son’s four followers.

It had been exactly two days since that meeting. This man must have gone to the island of the immortals to meet young master ye.

Tang Hao activated the scroll of the world and followed them.

Sure enough, this person arrived at the island of the immortals and met with young master ye again. The two of them talked about the detailed plan. After half an hour, he left the island and rushed back.

“Hahaha! With the help of the great void heaven, my grand plan will succeed!”

He sat on the back of the giant “Dragon” and laughed in joy. He was in a carefree mood.

The plan was going too smoothly!

Not only did the great void heaven agree to help their Divine Son, it was also said that the eldest young master of the great void heaven was coming to help them personally.

He had heard of the eldest young master of the great void heaven sect. He was the number one genius in the world and a legendary figure. Even their Divine Son could not compare to him. With the help of such a powerful figure, would they still have to worry about a plan?

No matter who the opponent invited, it was useless.

He had already begun to fantasize about how many benefits he would receive when the divine Son ascended to the position of young master.

The more he thought about it, the happier he was, and the more he laughed.

But at this moment, in the void in front of him, there was a sudden ripple. A treasure map shuttled through, and two figures stepped out from it.

One of them was dressed in white, his black hair flying in the wind. He had his hands behind his back and was looking at him with a smile.

The other person was a little strange. His skin was golden and he was wearing a green armor that was emitting a shocking divine light.

The laughter stopped abruptly.

The man's expression changed. He stood up and shouted, "Who are you? What do you want to do?"

However, he was a little shocked in his heart. The aura of the two people in front of him was too terrifying. The aura of the guy in the green armor was so terrifying that it was as deep as the sea. Just by standing there, there was a monstrous pressure that madly rushed toward him, making his mind tremble and he could not breathe.

As for the man in white, although he did not have any aura, it was precisely because of this that he was even more terrifying.

His eyes, in particular, were deep and serene, as if they could see through everything. He felt a chill run down his spine when he was swept by those eyes.

These two people ... Who on earth were they?

Why did such a terrifying person suddenly appear here?

Tang Hao did not say anything. He only smiled at him.

The man became more and more flustered. His whole body trembled and cold sweat poured down.

"I'm telling you, I'm a member of the fu sang celestial race. I'm under the command of the Son of God. If you dare to touch me, the fu sang celestial race will never let you off." He shouted with a fierce look.

“Fusang Divine Son? Who the hell was he! He’s the one we’re messing with!”

The origin core avatar sneered in disdain.

The man was stunned, and his expression changed drastically.

Could it be that ... These two terrifying guys were the helpers that the woman had invited back?

That’s impossible! How did she find such a powerful guy?

He had some doubts in his heart.

Then, he composed himself and shouted, “Don’t mess around. Let me tell you, my race’s Divine Son has already cooperated with the great void heaven. That legendary eldest young master of the great void heaven will also come to help my race’s Divine Son. No matter what benefits you have received from that woman, I advise you to be sensible and escape as soon as possible!”

“The divine Son of our race is a rare genius. Young master Taixu is an eight barren legend. You have no chance of winning if they join forces.”

As he said that, a smug look appeared on his face.

In his opinion, after mentioning the name of the eldest young master of the great void heaven, these two guys would definitely be so scared that they would run away.

After all, he was the legend of Pangu world and the number one genius in the world.

However, to his surprise, after hearing the name of the eldest young master of the great void heaven, these two guys did not show any signs of fear. They did not even lift their eyelids.

“Is the eldest young master of the great void heaven very powerful?”

Tang Hao chuckled. He raised his palm and slapped it down.
