

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2093

Ah!

Young master ye cried out in pain.

The primordial fire invaded his body and instantly burned his flesh, blood, and internal organs. Even his primordial spirit was burned by the primordial fire.

He struggled madly, trying to escape, but he couldn't break free from the other party's hand. He could only endure the roasting of the true fire.

The screams lasted for a while before they stopped.

This young master ye had already been burned to death by the true fire.

Young master Taixu finally stopped. His face was extremely gloomy.

He was a little shocked. That guy didn't even Dodge and took a few of his sword strikes. He would rather be injured than kill young master ye. This kind of ruthlessness had truly shocked him.

"Senior brother ye!"

"You demon, you dare to kill people of the great void heaven! You're dead!"

The group of great void heaven disciples roared in grief and anger.

"You all should die too!"

Tang Hao's eyes swept over them like lightning. He raised his hand and threw the king Roc divine halberd. It turned into a stream of light and instantly pierced through several disciples, killing them along with their souls.

"Don't go too far, Tang kid!"

Young master Taixu roared.

Tang Hao ignored him and charged toward the disciples.

"Let's go!"

Young master Taixu was helpless. This guy was determined to kill this group of disciples, and he couldn't stop him. In order to protect this group of disciples, he could only leave.

Moreover, the Son of God was dead, and the plan had long failed. There was no point in keeping him.

With a wave of his sleeve, he took in this group of disciples, then grabbed a Fusang Clansman and flew out.

He needed a Fusang tribesman to show him the way out of this divine world.

Tang Hao stopped and did not give chase. He raised his hand and sent out a few palm strikes, killing the remaining Fusang tribe members.

Then, he heaved a sigh of relief and turned around.

Just as he turned around, he saw a black shadow flash in front of him. A gust of fragrant wind blew over, and a curvaceous and exquisite body had already crashed into his arms, holding him tightly.

“It’s really you!”

Tamamo raised her head. Her foxy eyes were covered in a layer of mist, and she was on the verge of tears.

“It’s me! I’m fine now!”

Tang Hao hugged her and patted her shoulder.

She held him in her arms and looked at him in a daze.

Suddenly, she wrapped her arms around Tang Hao’s neck, pulled hard, and kissed him deeply.

This kiss was extremely passionate.

As they kissed, her body entangled with his.

“Wait, here? That’s not good!”

Tang Hao was shocked.

“What’s not good about it?”

Tamamo chuckled and glared at him. Then, she pushed him to the ground.

“I thought I would never see you again! I’ve been staying here all these years, and I’ve only been to the other islands, so I didn’t know you were so famous in the eight desolates. ”

“This place is too far away from the eight desolations!”

She mumbled as she curled up in Tang Hao’s arms.

Then, she told Tang Hao about everything that had happened since they arrived.

In the end, she smiled and said, “it’s actually quite good here. It’s much more fun than staying on earth. It’s just that after staying there for a long time, sometimes I miss it and want to go back to take a look. But now that I have you, I don’t want to go back anymore.”

“Why don’t I take you away?” Tang Hao said.

“No! I’d better stay here! With the divine Son dead, I’ll be the young master. I’ve already gained the support of more than half of the elders in the clan. When I get out, I’ll be able to control the situation in the clan and there won’t be any danger. ”

“Moreover, I can help you in the future. The strength of my Fusang clan is still not bad.”

Tamamo laughed.

“I don’t want much, as long as you have time in the future, you can come and visit me.”

She raised her hand and gently caressed Tang Hao’s cheek as she spoke emotionally.

After a long time, the two of them stood up and went to retrieve a few treasures. Then, Tang Hao entered the mobile abode and she brought him out.

She only brought Tang Hao out of Fusang world after she had stabilized the situation in the clan.

“There! This is the blood you want! There are three drops in total. I’m now the young master of Fusang, so I have the right to use this blood. ”

Tamamo had given him three Drops of God’s spiritual blood before they left.

“Remember to visit me more often!”

She turned around and gave Tang Hao a flying kiss. She giggled,

Tang Hao was stunned by her bright and charming smile.

Tang Hao watched her return to the island and enter the stone door before looking away.

He stood there and sighed.

He had always felt a sense of guilt towards Tamamo and the others. It wasn’t just because of his feelings, but also because they had been brought here because of him.

He stood there for a long time before he turned around and left.

“I’ve already obtained the God spirit blood. All that’s left is the Buddha blood, but Where can I find this Buddha blood?”

Tang Hao was confused.

He had been searching for so long, but he couldn’t even find a trace of the Buddha blood.

He didn't leave the East Ocean immediately. Instead, he returned to the island of the immortals and stayed there for a few days to make sure that nothing happened to Tamamo. At the same time, he also spied on young master Taixu a few times.

As young master Taixu rushed towards the great void heaven, he did not look too good the entire time. The group of disciples who had survived even cursed at him.

"How did that guy know that we are in the ruins of East Sea?"

Young master Taixu had been thinking about this question.

He thought about it and cracked his head, but he still couldn't figure out what was going on.

"That guy can't be following me now, right?"

He became even more suspicious as he tried his best to travel through the void.

Tang Hao chuckled. Young master Taixu would never have thought of the wonders of his heavenly eyes.

After a few days, he went to inquire about the situation of the Fusang tribe again. After confirming that there were no problems, he left.

Before he left, he had left a clone on each of the big islands in the East Sea. If anything happened in Fusang, he would be able to get the news at the first moment.

At this moment, young master Taixu had also returned to the great void heaven. He recounted what had happened in the Fusang tribe, causing the group of elders to be extremely shocked.

"What? It failed and even ye died?"

"What's going on? Where did the problem occur? how did that kid know our plan and appear there?"

They could not figure it out.

From the beginning to the end, only this group of elders, ye and a group of disciples knew about this. The rest of the disciples in the sect didn't know about it. It was impossible for the news to be leaked out. And with the eldest young master's strength, it was impossible for him to be followed by that brat without being discovered.

"This matter is too strange!"

Elder Xu Heng frowned and said, "next, let's not take any action for the time being. Even if there is news of Supreme blood, we have to slow down and investigate thoroughly to see where the problem is."

Then, they started to look around.

Of course, there was no result to this.

After Tang Hao returned to the eight barren lands, he continued to search for the Buddha blood.

Of the five types of blood, immortal, devil, God, Buddha, and demon, he only had this one left. As long as he found it, he would be able to condense the blood of chaos and attempt the seventh tribulation.
