

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2116

Bang!

A deafening explosion.

The two fists collided with each other.

Both of them grunted and backed away. Tang Hao only backed away five or six Zhang, while young master Taixu backed away eight or nine Zhang.

“Again!”

Young master Taixu let out an angry roar and charged forward again.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The two of them turned into flowing lights, one golden and the other gray, constantly clashing.

The void between the two of them was almost unable to withstand such a powerful force, and black cracks kept appearing.

Ripples spread out and created huge waves in the sea.

The elders of the great void heaven kept retreating as they revealed a look of apprehension.

The battle was in a stalemate, and they couldn't see the result for the time being.

“Tang kid, let's settle this today. Either you die or I die!”

Young master Taixu's eyes turned red, and he seemed to have gone mad.

He couldn't lose this battle again, and he couldn't retreat. No matter what price he had to pay today, he had to defeat his opponent!

He donned the Supreme armor and drew his magical sword. The clone of the God-devil vital embryo also leaped out, donning the Supreme armor and holding a halberd, which was also at the Supreme artifact level.

One main body and one clone charged toward Tang Hao from the left and right.

“Alright!”

“Die!” Tang Hao shouted. A golden light flashed above his head, and the heaven and earth origin embryo clone leaped out. He was wearing the Taiyi mind-clearing armor and holding a bow. As soon as he appeared, he drew the bow and shot an arrow at the God-demon origin embryo clone.

The divine demon vital embryo was immediately blocked.

The two avatars leaped up into the sky and began to fight.

The two of them started to fight again.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The sword and halberd collided, creating a deafening sound.

The two of them were about the same in terms of strength. In terms of immortal blood, divine abilities, and magic arts, Tang Hao was only slightly better. In terms of Dao laws, young master Taixu had comprehended a few more. Their weapons and armors were all at the Supreme weapon level. There was no difference between them. After fighting for a while, it was impossible to tell who would win.

Above, the two origin cores were the same, and they were difficult to distinguish.

Young master Taixu became crazier and crazier as the battle progressed, and his aura suppressed Tang Hao's for a time.

Clang!

The sword and halberd clashed, creating a loud explosion.

The two of them exchanged another blow. Tang Hao's body shook, and he grunted as he retreated.

"I'm going to kill you, Tang kid, to wash away my shame!"

Young master Taixu let out an angry roar and slashed at the man again with his magic sword.

"You want to kill me? I don't think you have any hope this time!"

"Hmph!" Tang Hao grunted, his eyes cold.

He tightened his grip on the divine halberd and charged forward again, striking out with the halberd.

Clang!

The two of them exchanged another blow.

This time, young master Taixu had the upper hand.

Young master Taixu was overjoyed. He had thought that his opponent would not be able to hold on any longer, so he had to kill him in one go.

However, Tang Hao smirked at that moment. A light flashed above his head, and his second clone, the eternal Buddha, rushed out. He was wearing the moonlight Treasure King cassock and holding the mirror of Thunder in his hand. The light of Buddha shone brightly.

“What ... What is this?”

Young master Taixu was stunned.

The elders of the great void heaven who were watching from afar were also dumbfounded.

“This is my second clone!”

Tang Hao looked at him with a mocking expression.

After saying that, he stopped and his aura instantly skyrocketed as he charged forward again.

At the same time, the second clone took out the mirror and fired a beam of Buddhist light at young master Taixu.

Ah!

There was a scream.

Young master Taixu was hit by two attacks at the same time. His body shook violently, and blood spurted out of his mouth as he was sent flying backward.

Tang Hao closed in on him. He waved the divine halberd in his hand and slashed wildly.

Clang clang clang!

Young master Taixu tried to block the attack in a hurry, but he only managed to block a few attacks. His sword was sent flying, and the divine halberd landed on his chest.

Pfft!

He spat out blood again, and his body flew backward like a cannonball.

At this moment, his face was pale and his aura was extremely weak.

“Not good!”

“Hurry up! Save the young master!”

The group of great void heaven elders were stunned. When they regained their senses, they hurriedly made their move.

However, it was too late. Tang Hao caught up to him and pressed his palm between young master Taixu’s eyebrows.

“Your blood, I want it!”

He shouted coldly and pulled out the drop of immortal blood from young master Taixu’s body.

“Don’t be scared!”

Young master Taixu shrieked madly. However, he was powerless to do anything at the moment. He could only watch as his immortal blood was snatched away by his opponent.

“Don’t worry, I won’t waste it. Your blood general will help me reach the seventh tribulation!” He said.

Tang Hao smirked at him, then opened his mouth and swallowed the blood.

“I’ll take this armor and this ring!”

Then, Tang Hao continuously reached out and took the treasures from young master Taixu’s body and put them into his bag.

In the end, he struck out with his palm and imprinted it on young master Taixu’s chest, sending him flying towards the group of elders of the great void heaven.

At the same time, the second avatar above his head had already rushed up. Together with the first avatar, they took down the God-demon vital embryo.

“Young master!”

The group of elders of the great void heaven sect rushed over and caught young master Taixu.

Then, they glared at Tang Hao.

“Brat, you’re looking for death! Return the blood!”

“Do you really think that we don’t dare to attack? If you don’t hand it over, I’ll let you die without a burial place today!”

They gritted their teeth and roared in anger.

Their expressions were slightly crazed. The other treasures on their young master were nothing much. It was fine if they lost them, but that drop of blood could not be lost. It was something that they, the great void heaven, had spent countless efforts to refine.

Moreover, after losing this drop of blood, the young master’s cultivation would fall back to the peak of the 6th tribulation and his Foundation would also be damaged.

“There’s no reason for me to hand over something that’s already in my hands!”

Tang Hao looked at them and smirked.

Then, he raised his hand, and the drop of chaos blood flew out into the sky. The next moment, a thunderclap suddenly came from the sky. Then, the wind and clouds changed, and hundreds of millions of Thunderbolts flashed like horned Dragons, galloping in the sky.

A vast and somber might of the heavens and earth instantly spread out.

“This is ... Tribulation power? He’s going to pass the seventh tribulation!”

The elders of the great void heaven looked up and exclaimed.

The strange phenomenon in the sky was clearly a precursor to the arrival of the lightning tribulation.

This kid was going to pass the Tribulation in one fell swoop!

“Detestable!”

“The lightning tribulation is coming. Don’t act rashly. It won’t be too late to kill him after he has successfully passed the Tribulation!”

The group of elders hesitated for a moment, then stepped back.

The Tribulation lightning had already risen, and if they rushed in now, it would be no different from suicide. They didn’t have any good means to stop this kid from crossing the Tribulation, so they could only wait. They would attack after he passed the Tribulation.

Even though this kid would be even more difficult to deal with by then, they had no better idea.

They looked at the range of the Tribulation lightning and retreated more than 30000 meters, watching from afar.
